YOUTHS TEAR UP FLOWERS, REPORT

Reports that some members of the younger generation are on another destructive spree, were telephoned the Mail Tribune today. This time it's the flowers and fountains that are suffering. School children of ages up to 14 years, according to the report, are invading gardens in the southwest end of town, pulling up flowers and throwing them and clods of soil into the fountains. The motive of the performance seems to be unknown and the objectors this afternoon recommended some good old fashioned "hickory soup" served as a corrective.

JONES SAYS TIRE WAS NOT STOLEN

Glen Forest Jones, arrested about six weeks ago at Gold Hill by state police, on a charge of stealing an automobile tire, called at the Mail Tribune office today, and stated that the tire which he took from the car belonging to his uncle, Joe Jones, was his own property. He stated that his uncle did not know who had taken the tire, and notified the officers. Jones was arrested, and he stated today that the case was dismissed when he was taken before Judge H. D. Reed in justice court there.

Vaudeville Stars Coming Wednesday In Holly Feature

All is set for the big combination stage and screen show at the Holly tomorrow and Thursday. This will be the third of the big vaudeville bills held at the Holly and this one promises to be even better than the first two. This week's bill will be headed by the McKeone troupe, a sensational act that is nationally famous. Willard Hall will act as master of ceremonies for the show. Willard Hall is also nationally known as a vaudeville performer and promises a show that will be a surprise to everyone. All the acts are standard vaudeville acts and their assemblage here will mean that Medford will have an opportunity to see another big time vaudeville show. The screen program at the Holly theater Wednesday and Thursday will be "Those We Love," which features Mary Astor, Lilyan Tashman and Kenneth Mackenna. This combination program will offer a real entertainment bargain to Medford fans.

South Sea Picture At Craterian Soon

Prison Sentences Imposed On Five

ROSEBURG, Ore., Sept. 27.—(AP) Pentonary sentences were imposed in the circuit court here today on five men charged with burglary. Edward L. Bartow, Joe Simmons and J. J. McKinney, all of Astoria, were sentenced to one year each after pleading guilty to burglarizing a home near Canyonville. Earl Lewis and Elmer Davis drew terms of two years each for theft from a residence at Canas valley.

Smoot Optimistic On Hoover Chance

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(AP) After reporting to President Hoover upon conditions in Utah, Senator Smoot said today he believed the president would carry that state and "go on to win the nation." The Utah senator said the whole political picture is changing for the better, as far as the Republican party is concerned. He said he does not expect the result in Utah to be "even close."

DOGGS FOR HUBBY, AND COIN TO KIN

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Mrs. Florence Hunter died leaving $50,000 and eight dogs. Her husband got the dogs, now he wants a husband's share of the estate. Besides, four of the dogs were dead when he got them. In filing notice today that he would contest the will, Louis B. Hunter called attention to the fact that the will left his wife's estate to blood relatives, servants, the Christian Missionary Alliance, the Red Cross and other charities, and made no provision for him except for the dogs.

TRUCK LINE LOSES FIGHT ON TAX ACT

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 27.—(AP) An opinion handed down today by Federal Judges McNary and Fee affirmed the constitutionality of the Oregon motor transportation act. The opinion was written in the case of the Consolidated Freight Lines against C. M. Thomas, public utilities commissioner, I. H. Van Winkle, attorney general and Hal E. Hoos, secretary of state, over the one mill per ton-mile tax. The plaintiff alleged the act violated the 14th amendment. The court held the tax was not a tax upon property, but a charge for privileges. Judge McNary, who wrote the opinion, said that "as to whether the charge of 1 mill is confiscatory, the state in the exercise of its police power may exact reasonable payment for the use of its highways and the amount of the charge and the method of collection are left to the state."

Catarrhal Deafness And Head Noises

If you have catarrhal deafness, or head noises, caused by catarrh, or if phlegm drops in your throat, secure proper treatment at once. Sprays, salves and inhalers may bring you a temporary relief, but permanent results can only come from a constitutional treatment that will expel the catarrhal poison from your system. Get from Jarmin & Woods your druggist 1 oz. of Parmit (Double Strength). Take this home and add 1/2 pint hot water and a little sugar. Take a tablespoonful four times a day. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy, mucous stop dropping. All sufferers from catarrhal deafness or head noises need the simple, pleasant, inexpensive Parmit treatment.
