

Society and Club Events Reviewed for Week

Edited by Eva Nealon

Roberts, Hosts At Dinner For T. S. Johnstons

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Roberts were hosts last evening at a delightful dinner party for the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. T. Slater Johnson, whose marriage was celebrated here and whose dinner had been arranged in compliment to the Johnstons during the past few weeks.

Covers were placed for the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Corbin Edgell, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, A. S. Rosenbaum, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morrill, Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Sprague Biegel and the Roberts.

Mr. Ohrt Greeted With Enthusiasm By Guests At Tea

Carrying an audience of fifty-five attentive guests through the southern seas to Africa, land of romance and glamour, and on into the very home of the Zulus, Frank Ohrt, journalist of international experience, talked yesterday afternoon at the tea arranged by the Women's association of the Presbyterian church at the Hotel Holland, and wove an intriguing story around his former servant boy, John, who was the "epitome of everything Zulu."

Talking in an easy and informal manner, he held his listeners, eager for more information, through two hours of African travels and tales, and the address was followed by a spirited discussion, demanded by his audience.

The code of the Zulus, established under the leadership of Chaka, was praised by Mr. Ohrt, who described the inhabitants of Zululand as the finest native people in the world.

Preceding and following Mr. Ohrt's address, the audience was entertained with a group of piano numbers, played by Miss Dorothy Reynolds, popular local pianist.

The discussion led by Mr. Ohrt continued during the tea hour, while Mrs. George Treichel and Mrs. Frederick Johnson presided at the beautifully decorated tea tables, where amber glassware and autumn roses formed the centerpiece.

Mr. Ohrt was introduced to the audience by Mrs. W. W. Cleaves, chairman of Grace circle of the Presbyterian church. It is very probable that he will speak again soon to a Medford audience as a unanimous demand for a story of his experiences in the German prison during the World war was voiced at the tea yesterday.

Local Folk Home From Trips North

Several members of the ranch colony took to motor trails during the past two weeks and the north was the favored land. Returning Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, who motored as far north as Revelstoke, Canada, a very interesting town, where cars must be forsaken for rails if the journey is to be continued northward.

Mrs. Alex Sparrow and daughter Miss Harriett, also returned yesterday from a motor trip north to Victoria.

Fine Program Is Anticipated by Local Delphians

The local Delphian club will meet for the first regular session of the new season at the city library the second Thursday of this month, Mrs. Glen Fabrick, president, announced yesterday.

The regular program of study, laid out for the coming year, is a very varied one, Mrs. Fabrick announces, and will contain a number of interesting talks by out of town speakers.

Reverend Howell Leaving for City

Medford friends of Rev. W. J. Howell, newly appointed minister of the First Presbyterian church here, have received word that Reverend Howell is leaving Spokane with his family, not later than Monday, and will be in Medford this week to make their home.

Allens Visit Knapps Here

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Allen were guests here Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Knapp, having stopped enroute from Seattle and Eugene, home to Los Angeles.

Mrs. Rosenberg Gives Foursomes

Mrs. David Rosenberg was among hostesses of the past week, entertaining with bridge parties for four, which is becoming one of the most popular pastimes of local society folk. She invited friends in to lunch and a table of bridge Tuesday and again Friday.

Presbyterian Women To Meet Tuesday

The Women's association of the Presbyterian church will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the church parlors. The Sunny Sisters circle will present the program and tea will be served by the ladies of the East Side circle. All women of the congregation are cordially invited to attend.

Ore and Bullion Purchased

WILBERG BROS. SMELTING & REFINING CO. Office: 742 Market St., San Francisco. Plant: South San Francisco.

Civic Music Drive Starts at Banquet On Monday Evening

Last winter many residents of Medford and Southern Oregon, who had failed to join the Civic Music association, were disappointed when they endeavored to secure admission to civic concerts presented here and learned that only members of the Association might attend. These along with all others who enjoy good music will have an opportunity to secure membership in the Civic Music group next week, and thereby they may insure their attendance at the concerts which will be presented here during the forthcoming season.

William F. Isaacs, president of the association, announces that the second annual membership campaign of the organization will begin tomorrow, Monday, and continue throughout the week. Civic Music headquarters are established at the Medford Chamber of Commerce and a committee of prominent citizens will be on hand to register new members as well as to accept payment of annual dues from present members. The dinner chairman, Mrs. C. H. Paake, reports that there will be over a hundred officers and workers at the annual workers' dinner tomorrow night at the Medford hotel at 6:30 o'clock. Several prominent local speakers will take part in the program and Arthur W. Manuel, Pacific coast manager, will be the principal speaker.

A partial list of officers, directors and team captains follows: Wm. F. Isaacs, president; Miss Louise Woodruff, first vice-president; Miss Inge Wallace, second vice-president; Mrs. Effie Herbert Yeoman, secretary; Mrs. Harry Young, assistant secretary; Mrs. Roberts Ward Bebb, treasurer; Dr. E. W. Shockley, organization chairman; Clayton Isaac, assistant organization chairman; Mrs. C. H. Paake, dinner chairman; Miss Genevieve Brown, publicity. Directors and captains: Roberts Ward Bebb, Mrs. Lilla M. Purnacker, Mrs. Minnie Guy, Miss Harriet Baldwin, Mrs. Edwin L. Knapp, Dr. I. H. Oore, Mrs. H. E. Marsh, Mrs. Glen Fabrick, John R. Knight, Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, Mrs. Harry Young, Mrs. Lloyd Williamson, Henry W. Frame, Mrs. E. E. Gore, George Henselman, W. Carlton James, Mrs. R. C. Mulholland, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fuller, Mrs. A. E. Woods, Miss Regina Johnson, Mrs. A. E. Mitchelmore, Mrs. D. L. Glen, Rev. W. R. Baird, Harris B. Jones, Mrs. S. G. Nye, Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, Miss Eleanor Curry, Mrs. C. H. Paake, Mrs. Elsie Strang, Dr. Dan E. Standard, Mrs. Sprague Riegel, Clayton Isaac, Mrs. Treve Lumsden, headquarters chairman, and the Messrs. Dorothy Mitchell, Jean Woodford and Rosa Gore, headquarters assistants.

Party Given for Christian Church Classes Saturday

Mrs. J. T. Davis and Mrs. Edna Kindred were joint hostesses yesterday afternoon at the Davis home, 1112 East Main street, to their classes of the First Christian church. The party in the form of a get-together, opened at 2 o'clock. Games were followed by refreshments, which were served by the main members.

Miss Ruth Collins And F. Greene Wed At Local Ceremony

At a quiet 3:30 o'clock ceremony last evening at the parsonage of the First Christian church, Miss Ruth Collins, youngest daughter of S. C. Greene Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Green, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Greene of this city were married. Rev. W. R. Baird performing the ceremony.

The bride was charming in a brown traveling suit with accessories of harmonizing shade and was attended by her niece, Miss Mildred Gregory of Table Rock.

Both bride and groom are well known to Medford. The bride attended school at Central Point and Oregon State college, where he was affiliated with Sigma Pi fraternity.

They will leave on the Shasta this morning for Hood River to make their home, where Mr. Green is stationed as state fruit inspector.

In the earthquakes there the bamboo houses swing and move but do not go down as the adobe ones do. Orphanages are needed for the neglected children. "Great changes have been made in that country since the love of Christ has come into their lives and homes."

The secretary read a letter from Mrs. W. C. Penoyar of Los Gatos, Calif., and the ordination of Gordon C. Griffin at Dexter, Oregon. Mrs. Geo. B. Young read a report of an address made by Evangelina, Mrs. P. H. Daily then gave statistics from a Salvation Army leader of Chicago, showing that "of those fed and housed by the Army, 99 1/2 per cent were free from any signs of liquor," and that in 1930 the U. S. sent out a commission to investigate the claims of the wet propagandists and found a few wealthy men were the paid-up members or the whole organization.

A new president took the chair of state.

Mrs. Irene Downing, a returned missionary from Equador, South America, told of a revolution that recently occurred there, when 500 were killed and 100 wounded.

A new president took the chair of state.

In the earthquakes there the bamboo houses swing and move but do not go down as the adobe ones do. Orphanages are needed for the neglected children. "Great changes have been made in that country since the love of Christ has come into their lives and homes."

The secretary read a letter from Mrs. W. C. Penoyar of Los Gatos, Calif., and the ordination of Gordon C. Griffin at Dexter, Oregon. Mrs. Geo. B. Young read a report of an address made by Evangelina, Mrs. P. H. Daily then gave statistics from a Salvation Army leader of Chicago, showing that "of those fed and housed by the Army, 99 1/2 per cent were free from any signs of liquor," and that in 1930 the U. S. sent out a commission to investigate the claims of the wet propagandists and found a few wealthy men were the paid-up members or the whole organization.

A new president took the chair of state.

In the earthquakes there the bamboo houses swing and move but do not go down as the adobe ones do. Orphanages are needed for the neglected children. "Great changes have been made in that country since the love of Christ has come into their lives and homes."

The secretary read a letter from Mrs. W. C. Penoyar of Los Gatos, Calif., and the ordination of Gordon C. Griffin at Dexter, Oregon. Mrs. Geo. B. Young read a report of an address made by Evangelina, Mrs. P. H. Daily then gave statistics from a Salvation Army leader of Chicago, showing that "of those fed and housed by the Army, 99 1/2 per cent were free from any signs of liquor," and that in 1930 the U. S. sent out a commission to investigate the claims of the wet propagandists and found a few wealthy men were the paid-up members or the whole organization.

Mrs. Howard Leclerc

—Kennell Ellis Photo
The former Miss Blanche Fried and Howard Leclerc were married last evening at a lovely service at the St. Mark's church, Episcopal, read by Father Wm. B. Hamilton. They will make their home in Medford following a short wedding trip young married set.

Reception Honors Lincoln Teachers At School Friday

A delightful evening in school circles Friday evening was the reception held at the Lincoln school by the Parent-Teacher association, complimenting the teachers of the school.

An interesting program, prepared by Mrs. Peter Deltrich, program chairman, included solos by Miss Allen Guy, who entertained with "The Song of Songs," which was followed by a well received encore. Rev. W. R. Baird of the First Christian church gave a group of readings. Among them were: "At Levin's Wedding," "Experience in the Barber Shop," and "Shaving of Jacob."

The Deltrich sisters entertained with a mandolin and piano duet. Mrs. Ethel Flory, president of the Lincoln P.-T. A., introduced the teachers and Mrs. H. Glascock directed the get acquainted program. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Morrow and Mrs. B. J. Klein, who presided at the beautifully appointed tea table, where autumn roses were artistically arranged.

Miss Ruth Collins And F. Greene Wed At Local Ceremony

At a quiet 3:30 o'clock ceremony last evening at the parsonage of the First Christian church, Miss Ruth Collins, youngest daughter of S. C. Greene Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Green, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Greene of this city were married. Rev. W. R. Baird performing the ceremony.

The bride was charming in a brown traveling suit with accessories of harmonizing shade and was attended by her niece, Miss Mildred Gregory of Table Rock.

Both bride and groom are well known to Medford. The bride attended school at Central Point and Oregon State college, where he was affiliated with Sigma Pi fraternity.

They will leave on the Shasta this morning for Hood River to make their home, where Mr. Green is stationed as state fruit inspector.

In the earthquakes there the bamboo houses swing and move but do not go down as the adobe ones do. Orphanages are needed for the neglected children. "Great changes have been made in that country since the love of Christ has come into their lives and homes."

The secretary read a letter from Mrs. W. C. Penoyar of Los Gatos, Calif., and the ordination of Gordon C. Griffin at Dexter, Oregon. Mrs. Geo. B. Young read a report of an address made by Evangelina, Mrs. P. H. Daily then gave statistics from a Salvation Army leader of Chicago, showing that "of those fed and housed by the Army, 99 1/2 per cent were free from any signs of liquor," and that in 1930 the U. S. sent out a commission to investigate the claims of the wet propagandists and found a few wealthy men were the paid-up members or the whole organization.

A new president took the chair of state.

In the earthquakes there the bamboo houses swing and move but do not go down as the adobe ones do. Orphanages are needed for the neglected children. "Great changes have been made in that country since the love of Christ has come into their lives and homes."

The secretary read a letter from Mrs. W. C. Penoyar of Los Gatos, Calif., and the ordination of Gordon C. Griffin at Dexter, Oregon. Mrs. Geo. B. Young read a report of an address made by Evangelina, Mrs. P. H. Daily then gave statistics from a Salvation Army leader of Chicago, showing that "of those fed and housed by the Army, 99 1/2 per cent were free from any signs of liquor," and that in 1930 the U. S. sent out a commission to investigate the claims of the wet propagandists and found a few wealthy men were the paid-up members or the whole organization.

A new president took the chair of state.

In the earthquakes there the bamboo houses swing and move but do not go down as the adobe ones do. Orphanages are needed for the neglected children. "Great changes have been made in that country since the love of Christ has come into their lives and homes."

The secretary read a letter from Mrs. W. C. Penoyar of Los Gatos, Calif., and the ordination of Gordon C. Griffin at Dexter, Oregon. Mrs. Geo. B. Young read a report of an address made by Evangelina, Mrs. P. H. Daily then gave statistics from a Salvation Army leader of Chicago, showing that "of those fed and housed by the Army, 99 1/2 per cent were free from any signs of liquor," and that in 1930 the U. S. sent out a commission to investigate the claims of the wet propagandists and found a few wealthy men were the paid-up members or the whole organization.

Reames Chapter Has Enjoyable Social Evening

There was a large attendance Wednesday at the social night of Reames chapter, O. E. S. Mrs. John Fluhrer was chairman of the evening's entertainment, and a program arranged by Miss Dorothy Reynolds was presented. It included whistling duets by Miss Reynolds and Miss Elvay M. Wilson and vocal solos by Miss Wilson, who also entertained with several violin numbers. The program was received with enthusiastic applause.

During initiation, Mrs. Julia Kroschel was taken into the chapter. Following the program, refreshments were served in the dining room, which was beautifully decorated in autumn flowers. Pear pies from Fluhrer's bakery were served ala mode and much praise of the southern Oregon fruit was voiced.

The October 12 meeting of the chapter will also be social night, it was announced yesterday.

Lady Lions Meet For First Affair Of Autumn Season

The Lady Lions will meet for their first luncheon of the new season on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. F. G. Bunch on the Jacksonville road. Covered dish luncheon will be followed by bridge and all wives of Lions club members are urged to attend the party.

Those who do not have transportation, are asked to call Mrs. Al Littrell and arrangements will be made to enable all guests to attend the luncheon.

Assisting Mrs. Bunch as hostess will be Mrs. H. T. Hubbard, Mrs. Chas. Reames and Mrs. Goodwin Humphreys.

New Choir, Local Church In First Appearance Today

Music lovers of Medford greet with enthusiasm organization of the new choir at the First Presbyterian church, which will sing for the first time this morning at the 11 o'clock services of the local church. There are 15 voices in the choir and the organization is under the direction of Mrs. Elsie Carlton Strang, who has had much experience as a director both in Oregon and in the east, having spent 10 years in this type of work.

Miss Dorothy Reynolds, organist for the organization, is also well known here for her musical ability, so many beautiful contributions to the church services are expected from the organization during the coming season.

Valley School Presents First Program Friday

The first assembly of the new year was held Friday morning at Valley school and attended by an appreciative crowd of parents, for whom several playlets were presented.

The program opened with a well interpreted French game. Mother Goose rhymes were sung by the first and second grade pupils and a dramatized story by the older group completed the program.

The assemblies will be held once each month during the coming school year, instead of once a week, as in the past. The public is invited to the monthly programs.

The secretary read a letter from Mrs. W. C. Penoyar of Los Gatos, Calif., and the ordination of Gordon C. Griffin at Dexter, Oregon. Mrs. Geo. B. Young read a report of an address made by Evangelina, Mrs. P. H. Daily then gave statistics from a Salvation Army leader of Chicago, showing that "of those fed and housed by the Army, 99 1/2 per cent were free from any signs of liquor," and that in 1930 the U. S. sent out a commission to investigate the claims of the wet propagandists and found a few wealthy men were the paid-up members or the whole organization.

A new president took the chair of state.

In the earthquakes there the bamboo houses swing and move but do not go down as the adobe ones do. Orphanages are needed for the neglected children. "Great changes have been made in that country since the love of Christ has come into their lives and homes."

The secretary read a letter from Mrs. W. C. Penoyar of Los Gatos, Calif., and the ordination of Gordon C. Griffin at Dexter, Oregon. Mrs. Geo. B. Young read a report of an address made by Evangelina, Mrs. P. H. Daily then gave statistics from a Salvation Army leader of Chicago, showing that "of those fed and housed by the Army, 99 1/2 per cent were free from any signs of liquor," and that in 1930 the U. S. sent out a commission to investigate the claims of the wet propagandists and found a few wealthy men were the paid-up members or the whole organization.

A new president took the chair of state.

In the earthquakes there the bamboo houses swing and move but do not go down as the adobe ones do. Orphanages are needed for the neglected children. "Great changes have been made in that country since the love of Christ has come into their lives and homes."

The secretary read a letter from Mrs. W. C. Penoyar of Los Gatos, Calif., and the ordination of Gordon C. Griffin at Dexter, Oregon. Mrs. Geo. B. Young read a report of an address made by Evangelina, Mrs. P. H. Daily then gave statistics from a Salvation Army leader of Chicago, showing that "of those fed and housed by the Army, 99 1/2 per cent were free from any signs of liquor," and that in 1930 the U. S. sent out a commission to investigate the claims of the wet propagandists and found a few wealthy men were the paid-up members or the whole organization.

A new president took the chair of state.

In the earthquakes there the bamboo houses swing and move but do not go down as the adobe ones do. Orphanages are needed for the neglected children. "Great changes have been made in that country since the love of Christ has come into their lives and homes."

The secretary read a letter from Mrs. W. C. Penoyar of Los Gatos, Calif., and the ordination of Gordon C. Griffin at Dexter, Oregon. Mrs. Geo. B. Young read a report of an address made by Evangelina, Mrs. P. H. Daily then gave statistics from a Salvation Army leader of Chicago, showing that "of those fed and housed by the Army, 99 1/2 per cent were free from any signs of liquor," and that in 1930 the U. S. sent out a commission to investigate the claims of the wet propagandists and found a few wealthy men were the paid-up members or the whole organization.

A new president took the chair of state.

Garden Club Opens New Season Oct. 6

The Medford Garden club will begin its winter season Thursday evening, October 6, with a meeting at 7:30 o'clock. All members are urged to attend as the meeting will not only be the first of the season but the first to be held in the auditorium of the new county court house, where sessions will be held hereafter.

Business matters, which came up during the summer and the program for the winter as well as other questions will be considered. Mrs. A. E. Reames, president of the club, will also have an interesting announcement to make.

Reception Given At Soliss Home, Attended by 50

PHOENIX—A delightful reception was held last week at the Pacific highway home of Mrs. A. N. Soliss honoring Lillian Blackwood of Phoenix. The spacious rooms of the Soliss home were beautifully decorated in autumn flowers and more than fifty ladies of the community were in attendance. A short program included a piano duet by Messdames H. W. Frame and Walter Fraser Brown; readings by Mrs. John Gammill, Mrs. J. O. N. Polling, Mrs. Donna Grafias and Mrs. Walter Fraser Brown. A friendship toast to the honor guest was given by Mrs. C. C. Hartley. An "appreciation" was given by Mrs. M. P. Smetts, who presented Mrs. Blackwood with a lovely leather hand bag, a gift of those present.

The program closed with the singing of "A Perfect Day" by Elizabeth Carpenter. After refreshments of cake and coffee, pictures were taken of the guests by Mrs. Walter Fraser Brown and Miss Edna Mae White.

Mrs. Blackwood leaves Phoenix soon for a new home in California. She has been a resident in the Phoenix community for more than 60 years and will be sorely missed by a large group of friends.

Horseback Riders to Visit Sterling Mine Region Today

A jolly event of today will be the riding party of a group of equestriennes, who will go out from the Dodge riding academy about noon, headed for the Sterling mine.

The party will leave the academy at 12 o'clock and luncheon will not be served on the trail as all possible time will be needed to make the trip to the mine.

Dues-Paying Luncheon Scheduled for Tuesday. The annual dues-paying luncheon of the W. F. M. S. of the First M. E. church, which the officers of the society are sponsoring, will be held Tuesday at 1 o'clock at the parsonage on North Orange street, with Mrs. Bennett as hostess. All friends are invited to attend.

Those not paying dues contribute 35 cents for luncheon.

The regular program of study, laid out for the coming year, is a very varied one, Mrs. Fabrick announces, and will contain a number of interesting talks by out of town speakers.

The secretary read a letter from Mrs. W. C. Penoyar of Los Gatos, Calif., and the ordination of Gordon C. Griffin at Dexter, Oregon. Mrs. Geo. B. Young read a report of an address made by Evangelina, Mrs. P. H. Daily then gave statistics from a Salvation Army leader of Chicago, showing that "of those fed and housed by the Army, 99 1/2 per cent were free from any signs of liquor," and that in 1930 the U. S. sent out a commission to investigate the claims of the wet propagandists and found a few wealthy men were the paid-up members or the whole organization.

A new president took the chair of state.

In the earthquakes there the bamboo houses swing and move but do not go down as the adobe ones do. Orphanages are needed for the neglected children. "Great changes have been made in that country since the love of Christ has come into their lives and homes."

The secretary read a letter from Mrs. W. C. Penoyar of Los Gatos, Calif., and the ordination of Gordon C. Griffin at Dexter, Oregon. Mrs. Geo. B. Young read a report of an address made by Evangelina, Mrs. P. H. Daily then gave statistics from a Salvation Army leader of Chicago, showing that "of those fed and housed by the Army, 99 1/2 per cent were free from any signs of liquor," and that in 1930 the U. S. sent out a commission to investigate the claims of the wet propagandists and found a few wealthy men were the paid-up members or the whole organization.

A new president took the chair of state.

In the earthquakes there the bamboo houses swing and move but do not go down as the adobe ones do. Orphanages are needed for the neglected children. "Great changes have been made in that country since the love of Christ has come into their lives and homes."

The secretary read a letter from Mrs. W. C. Penoyar of Los Gatos, Calif., and the ordination of Gordon C. Griffin at Dexter, Oregon. Mrs. Geo. B. Young read a report of an address made by Evangelina, Mrs. P. H. Daily then gave statistics from a Salvation Army leader of Chicago, showing that "of those fed and housed by the Army, 99 1/2 per cent were free from any signs of liquor," and that in 1930 the U. S. sent out a commission to investigate the claims of the wet propagandists and found a few wealthy men were the paid-up members or the whole organization.

A new president took the chair of state.

In the earthquakes there the bamboo houses swing and move but do not go down as the adobe ones do. Orphanages are needed for the neglected children. "Great changes have been made in that country since the love of Christ has come into their lives and homes."

The secretary read a letter from Mrs. W. C. Penoyar of Los Gatos, Calif., and the ordination of Gordon C. Griffin at Dexter, Oregon. Mrs. Geo. B. Young read a report of an address made by Evangelina, Mrs. P. H. Daily then gave statistics from a Salvation Army leader of Chicago, showing that "of those fed and housed by the Army, 99 1/2 per cent were free from any signs of liquor," and that in 1930 the U. S. sent out a commission to investigate the claims of the wet propagandists and found a few wealthy men were the paid-up members or the whole organization.

A new president took the chair of state.

In the earthquakes there the bamboo houses swing and move but do not go down as the adobe ones do. Orphanages are needed for the neglected children. "Great changes have been made in that country since the love of Christ has come into their lives and homes."

The secretary read a letter from Mrs. W. C. Penoyar of Los Gatos, Calif., and the ordination of Gordon C. Griffin at Dexter, Oregon. Mrs. Geo. B. Young read a report of an address made by Evangelina, Mrs. P. H. Daily then gave statistics from a Salvation Army leader of Chicago, showing that "of those fed and housed by the Army, 99 1/2 per cent were free from any signs of liquor," and that in 1930 the U. S. sent out a commission to investigate the claims of the wet propagandists and found a few wealthy men were the paid-up members or the whole organization.

A new president took the chair of state.

In the earthquakes there the bamboo houses swing and move but do not go down as the adobe ones do. Orphanages are needed for the neglected children. "Great changes have been made in that country since the love of Christ has come into their lives and homes."

The secretary read a letter from Mrs. W. C. Penoyar of Los Gatos, Calif., and the ordination of Gordon C. Griffin at Dexter, Oregon. Mrs. Geo. B. Young read a report of an address made by Evangelina, Mrs. P. H. Daily then gave statistics from a Salvation Army leader of Chicago, showing that "of those fed and housed by the Army, 99 1/2 per cent were free from any signs of liquor," and that in 1930 the U. S. sent out a commission to investigate the claims of the wet propagandists and found a few wealthy men were the paid-up members or the whole organization.

Miss Fried, Bride Of Mr. Leclerc at Saturday Service

At a ceremony, lovely in its simplicity, read at the St. Mark's church, Episcopal, by Father Wm. B. Hamilton, Miss Blanche Fried, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fried of Klamath Falls, and Howard Leclerc, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leclerc of this city were married at 7:00 o'clock last evening.

The bride, who was attired in a smart fall suit of dark green with brown accessories, was attended by Miss Evelyn Seekata, and Glen Fabrick was best man for the groom. Others attending the service were Miss Joyce Andrews and W. B. Johnston, Jr.

Both young people are very well known here, the bride a former student of Washington State college, has been employed by the local Kennell Ellis studios for some time, and Mr. Leclerc, who attended school in Wichita, Kan., is a member of the Mann's Department store staff. They will make their home in Medford.

Following the wedding service last evening, Mrs. Glen Fabrick entertained at her home, 106 Crater Lake avenue, with a dinner for the wedding party.

Local Artists In Pleading Program

Mrs. Effie Herbert Yeoman and Miss Genevieve Brown, well known local musicians, presented a program which was enthusiastically received at the Southern Oregon Normal school Wednesday, Mrs. Yeoman entertained with two piano numbers. Miss Brown sang "Hindu Slumber Song," by Warr; "Cry of Water" by Campbell-Tipton; and "A Birthday," by Woodman.

She then sang in a duet with Mrs. Yeoman, "Serenade," by Tosti.

St. Mark's Guild Met Friday Afternoon

St. Mark's Guild met Friday afternoon with good attendance and many plans were made for the future. Tea was served by Mrs. Scheffel and Mrs. Woodcock. The first card party of the Guild year will be held Friday, Oct. 7th, which will be a desert bridge. The committee in charge include: Mrs. C. C. Murray, Mrs. Hugh Hamlin, Mrs. Clyde Eakin, Mrs. R. E. Swan, Mrs. Howard Scheffel and Mrs. Jess Woodcock.

Cady-Cummings Wedding Told

Mrs. Fred N. Cummings returned yesterday from Portland, bringing news of the marriage of Miss Fern Cady, daughter of Mrs. J. D. Ver-nam of Portland, to her son Fred N. Cummings Jr., of this city, which was solemnized in the northern city, where they will make their home.

The bride, who is also known here, visited at the Cummings' home in Medford during the past summer, and is remembered by many members of local society. She made the trip south with her mother, who was also a guest of the Cummings' with whom they visited Crater Lake and other scenic points. Mr. Cummings has been studying aviation in Portland.

While in Portland Mrs. Cummings visited her mother, Mrs. C. C. Hutchinson, and her sister, Miss Alice Hutchinson.

Mrs. Bunch Invites Guests to Bridge

Among hostesses of the coming week will be Mrs. F. G. Bunch, who has invited a number of friends to her home for an evening of bridge Tuesday. There will be five tables in play.

Guild Plans Card Party for Oct. 7, Committee Named

St. Mark's Guild met Friday afternoon with good attendance and many plans were made for the future. Tea was served by Mrs. Scheffel and Mrs. Woodcock. The first card party of the Guild year will be held Friday, Oct. 7th, which will be a desert bridge. The committee in charge include: Mrs. C. C. Murray, Mrs. Hugh Hamlin, Mrs. Clyde Eakin, Mrs. R. E. Swan, Mrs. Howard Scheffel and Mrs. Jess Woodcock.

St. Mark's Guild met Friday afternoon with good attendance and many