Class of Central Point Church Has Picnic on Rogue

There were thirty two class members and guests present at the wiener roast, held on Rogue river near Gold Hill Friday evening for Mrs. J. Sanford Richardson's class of the Central Point Christian church Sunday school.

The picnic opened with devotionals, led by Reverend Millard and followed by community song service. Other members on the program were readings by Reverend Millard and a group of solos by Ed Vincent, well known bass soloist.

The remainder of the evening was devoted to games and roasting of wieners.

Attend Football Game in Eugene

Among Medford folk leaving at an early hour yesterday morning for the football game at the University of Oregon were Misses Irma Smith and Helen Davis and Messrs. Ed and Geo. Smith.

Mrs. Click Honored Before Departure

A handkerchief shower and surprise party was given Mrs. O. W. Click of Beal Lane Thursday afternoon, about 19 ladies being present. The affair was given as a farewell party for Mrs. Click, who leaves for Pasadena, Calif., Friday, to make her permanent home. Her many friends and neighbors joined in wishing her a happy journey. Cards were enjoyed in the afternoon and refreshments served.

Mrs. Jefferson and Guest Visit Here

Interesting guests in the valley this week are Mrs. Katherine Jefferson and Miss Kitty Johnson, who recently arrived from Seattle to visit friends.

Miss McFadden and Mother, Guests Here

Miss Jeanette McFadden and mother Mrs. L. O. Penland of Talent, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rowley Thursday. Miss McFadden is a student at the Stanford School of Nursing at San Francisco and is at home for a four weeks' vacation.

What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

(By Mrs. D. J. Willson)

Girl Scouting is again in swing with several troops being organized recently, or perhaps it would be better to say that they are re-organized for their 1932 and 1933 activities.

Following are several schedules as planned for the coming week: Roosevelt Troop, under the leadership of Miss Vera Humphreys and Leda O'Neal will meet Monday night at 8:30 at the playground recreation hall. All girls of ten years of age or over may come and join.

Junior High Troop No. 4 for seventh and eighth grade girls, meets Monday night at 7:30 in the Girl Scout office, Medford National Bank building. Miss Margaret Kerr is captain, and Miss Lucy Lavis is her capable assistant.

Junior High Troop No. 2 for girls of the ninth grade will meet this Tuesday night at 7:30 in the Girl Scout office. Miss Grace Voss and Miss Joyce Gage are the leaders of this troop. I will be there also for this first meeting of the girls.

Washington troop will meet sometime this week under the leadership of Mrs. Leonard Carpenter and Katherine Stearns. Will you please Katherine Stearns for the meeting day? I shall be at the office here next Saturday afternoon, so if any of you wish to come up I'll be most happy to see you.

Plans for Court of Awards will be made soon. Watch for announcements.

Y. W. C. A.

Rooms at the Y. W. C. A. building on North Bartlett are open for rent at a very nominal price. These are comfortable and well located and young women and girls away from home find the matron, Mrs. Oldenburg, a ready friend and helper.

Girls and women are asked to hold in mind the coming reception and party for them to be held at an early date at the "Y". The committee in charge asks that each one interested bring her interests into this meeting, which the committee, Mrs. I. E. Schuler and Margaret Kerr, desire to be in the form of a forum, where the needs and interests will be considered, and met, so far as possible.

Miss Leverette

Miss Doreen Leverette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leverette, left Wednesday morning for St. Louis, Mo., where she will enter Principia college for her second year. She accompanied her father to Roseburg by motor, and made the remainder of the journey by train, arriving there Saturday evening.

Activities of Legion Auxiliary

An invitation has been received by the Medford unit to the joint installation of the officers elect of the Asland unit Monday evening, October 3. Anyone who is planning on going and does not have transportation may telephone Mrs. Goodwin Humphrey, 336-W. The meeting begins at 8 o'clock and is followed by dancing.

Plans are being formed for the joint installation of the Legion and Auxiliary of Medford Post October 19, Ray Wright and Mrs. Walter Olmscheid acting as general chairmen. The meeting and dance will be held in the Knights of Pythias hall, Grape and Fifth.

Pocahontas Card Party Enjoyed

The regular card party of the Pocahontas lodge was held Friday, September 30. Bridge and pinocle were played. High scores in bridge were held by Nilpha Armstrong and Frank Rush, low by Alena Erskine and George Armstrong. Pinocle high scores were held by Bill Milnes and Maggie Erskine and low by Ethel Blackburn and Jack Erskine.

The members having birthdays during the month of September were honored with a birthday cake and special favors.

The committee in charge was Ber-

New Officers of Auxiliary Named

Officers have been elected to head the local Ladies Auxiliary to the American Legion and a successful year is anticipated with Mrs. K. D. Ross as president.
