

YOUNG BOURBONS RALLY TOMORROW NIGHT AT HOTEL

En route to Albany, N. Y., to rejoin the household of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic nominee for president, Charles Richard stopped in Medford yesterday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Kelly and will probably remain in this city for the meeting Wednesday night at the Hotel Holland of the Young Democratic club of Medford. Mr. Richard is accompanied by his wife and son, John. He met the Kellys in Portland, when they went to the Rose City to hear the address of Governor Roosevelt, was interviewed by Mrs. Kelly, and was so impressed with news of Medford he decided to include southern Oregon in the itinerary of his trip east.

Several other special features are listed on the Wednesday program for Young Democrats. James Stevens, well known local soloist, will sing and Porter J. Neff will speak. Frank DeSouza, chairman of the Democratic central committee, will also be present to aid organization of the club. Evan Reames will be unable to attend the meeting, he announced with regrets yesterday.

All young people of the county, who are interested in discussion of present day topics, regardless of their party affiliations, are invited to the meeting. Edward C. Kelly, organization chairman, stated yesterday. The object of the organization is to promote interest in governmental affairs not partisanship.

Plans for numerous rallies and good old fashioned campaign fireworks are planned by the organizers to promote the election of Governor Roosevelt.

A challenge to the Young Republicans of the city, issued last week, was repeated yesterday, and the organizers of the Democrats are anxiously awaiting a response. The challenge calls for a debate with the G. O. P.'s with "Resolved that President Hoover should be elected president on his past record in office," as the subject.

O. S. C. Registration Drop 30 Per Cent

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 4.—Registration on Oregon State college totaled 2,163 full-time students at the end of the first week classes, compared with 3,030 on the corresponding date of a year ago, first detailed figures showed today. This is a drop of slightly less than 30 per cent.

GRANGE AT PHOENIX ENJOYS PROGRAM IN BOOSTER CAMPAIGN

PHOENIX, Oct. 4.—(Sp.)—Grange booster program Friday night was attended by a large number. The program consisted of the following numbers: "The Value and Service of the Order," talk given by O. C. Maust; solo by Irene Steadman, with group of juvenile members of the community portraying the story of the song; essay on "What Must Be Done to Assure Agricultural Prosperity in America," by A. W. Shepherd; violin solo by Vaughn Queckenbush, accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Wilcox; reading by Mrs. Donna Griffin; tap dance by Barbara Franklin; dialogue by Jean Bancourt and Warren Loffer, and two numbers by the ladies' quartet, composed of Medames George Drake, Raymond Purry, Ray Ward and Douglas Steadman, with Mrs. Ralph Wilcox accompanying.

The hall was decorated with autumn flowers.

At the close of the hour's program, fellowship and visiting was enjoyed by all, and refreshments of cookies and coffee served with the home economics committee in charge.

Next meeting will be October 11, when members of the Eagle Point Grange will have charge of the lecture hour and put on the program.

GILMORE OFFICIAL PASSES SUDDENLY

BEND, Ore., Oct. 4.—(Sp.)—Lloyd Gedamke of Portland, district manager of the Gilmore Oil company, died from a heart attack Sunday while he was fishing at Crescent lake, forest service officials reported here today.

Gedamke was wading in shallow water when the attack occurred. He was alone, and when companions missed him a search was started that led to finding the body in less than four feet of water.

Mr. Gedamke was well known in this city and is remembered here by a host of friends and business associates, made during his frequent visits. He was particularly interested in southern Oregon and carried on, through his company, extensive publicity for the advancement of this section.

His cooperation with the Mail Tribune on publicity for opening of Crater Lake National park last winter brought national attention to the

WISECARVER HERE GREETING VOTERS

Ray H. Wisecarver, member of an old family in Yamhill county, and prominent in the civic affairs of McMinnville, where he lives, was a visitor in Medford yesterday and today, meeting many people, in the interest of his candidacy against Hal Hoos for secretary of state.

Mr. Wisecarver is the Democratic nominee for this important state post, and was taken around the city and county by his close friend and strong supporter, Charles Hoover, of post business fame.

The Democratic nominee is a practical farmer and stockman, and has made a great success of Hoover's winter bluegrass. He stands for harmony in the state board of control, and a square deal for all sections of the state. He also favors reduction in auto license fees, abolishment of the operators' division, with its 85 officers and large expense, and driving examinations only for new drivers and those who demonstrate an unfitness for driving.

According to all reports, Mr. Wisecarver made an excellent impression on the people he met in this section of the state.

MRS. REIMER ENJOYS READING TRIBUNE ON JOURNEYS TO SOUTH

Mrs. F. C. Reimer is returning home soon and thanks to the Mail Tribune she will be well in touch with events when she gets here, according to a letter received from her this morning. All through her extensive travels through the southland she has found the Mail Tribune filled with news of the valley, awaiting her, she writes and adds "I have enjoyed keeping in touch with the Rogue River valley and would have been far behind with the news had it not been for your newspaper. It has come regularly."

Since leaving her home at the Southern Oregon experiment station, Mrs. Reimer has visited in many of the south's leading cities, including Raleigh, N. C., Chattanooga, Tenn., Atlanta, Augusta and Macon, Ga., Jacksonville and Daytona Beach, Florida, and Lookout Mountain, Tenn. She reports a very enjoyable journey.

world wonder and gists interested in snow sports, from numerous sections. Newspapers and motion pictures were used as media for informing the world of the beauties of the lake in snow blanket.

Mr. Gedamke was never stationed in southern Oregon, but his sympathies were ever for this region, which realizes a great loss in his death.

Ray H. Wisecarver, member of an Mr. Gedamke was also known here as an enthusiastic sportsman and a great lover of the out-of-doors. Fishing was always one of his favorite hobbies.

Whalers Battle 93-Ton Monster

SEATTLE, Oct. 4.—(AP)—A 6-hour battle with a 93-ton whale, 30 miles from Kodiak Island, was described here today by Captain Andrew Thorvik, master of the whaling steamer Westport, which arrived from Port Hoborn, Alaska. "The giant whale was of the blue variety and gave us a long battle," the skipper said.

"Nature in the Raw is seldom MILD"

BRING 'EM BACK ALIVE
"Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by the vicious battle between the python and the tiger... in Frank Buck's thrilling motion picture, "Bring 'Em Back Alive," filmed from nature in the Malay jungle.

—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes

They are not present in Luckies... the mildest cigarette you ever smoked

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

Does not this explain the world-wide acceptance and approval of Lucky Strike?
