

CITY'S JOBLESS SEEK TRADE FOR KLAMATH SPUDS

Preliminary plans for trading fruit to Klamath Falls for potatoes were outlined last night by the Medford Association of the Unemployed at one of the largest meetings held since organization of the association. Under the plan upon which Harry Moore, manager of the association, is working today, the Klamath people will be given apples in exchange for the potatoes.

The need for immediate action toward filling of the local larders, was stressed today by Mr. Moore, following the check made last night, which revealed that many families are already without food.

The association is also working on a proposition to bring into Medford an adequate meat supply. A co-operative plan will be worked out, it is hoped, which will enable the unemployed to take care of all elements of the trade without seeking assistance from any other source.

In spite of the fact that this is the harvest season and the valley filled with an abundance of food, Mr. Moore said investigations made last night showed that several families because of lack of ways and means to transport produce from the country are in dire need of fruits and vegetables, as well as other more solid items for the winter menu.

BARNARD OPPOSES ZORN SCHOOL BILL

Judge C. P. Barnard of Eugene, Lane county judge, was in Medford yesterday afternoon calling on County Judge C. B. Lamkin and contacting acquaintances who are opposed to the passage of the Zorn-MacPherson school merger bill.

A journey through the southern part of the state is being made by Judge Barnard, and during an eight-day period he plans to visit Douglas, Coos, Curry, Josephine, Jackson, Klamath, Lake and other eastern Oregon counties.

Judge Barnard carries with him pamphlets opposing the bill, including one which states Governor Julius L. Meier's reasons for opposing the proposed merger.

HUNTERS KILLED IN AUTO CRASH

LEWISTON, Idaho, Oct. 7.—(AP)—A hunting expedition met a tragic end last night when an automobile left the road eight miles southwest of Orofino, rolling 350 feet down a hillside and fatally injuring three men, two of them brothers, and their cousin.

Orrville and Jess Burden, and their cousin, Emery, were killed and the driver of the machine, Ray Felton, sustained a fractured skull, wandering about the scene of the wreck until he dropped unconscious. The father of Emery Burden was in another automobile driving ahead, and did not immediately learn of the accident.

Harry Gamble, of Orofino, discovered the accident when he found Felton, and the victims were rushed to Orofino. Two of the men had fractured skulls and the third one's neck was broken.

Relief Workers In Appreciation Of Ticket Sales

Members of the committee on theater ticket sales for the women's division of the county council for relief of the unemployed issued a statement today thanking all individuals and organizations which have aided the project. The drive will end tomorrow night, but tickets bought during the campaign will be accepted at shows, presented until November 5.

Thirty-five per cent of the profits realized on Craterian tickets, sold by the committee, will be donated to the unemployment relief project, and the drive has met with great success. The committee announced today.

BROMLEY WILL FILM YREKA CELEBRATION

H. L. Bromley, advertising manager of the Copeco and Mountain States Power companies left this afternoon for Yreka to take movies of the "Gold Rush" celebration, which started today. Pictures of the highlights of the big pioneer program will be secured, including the parade with its ancient vestiges and old-time costumes for early showing of the "Copeco Current Events" news-reel. Mr. Bromley will also make advance arrangements for the Crater club's participation in the parade and other events of the Yreka celebration.

Racing Driver In Fatal Smashup

SEATTLE, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Ewing (Dutch) Snyder, Portland, Ore., professional automobile racing driver, was injured fatally and another driver may die as the result of a collision between two cars at the civic auditorium here last night.

MAYORALTY ELECTION ORDERED IN NEW YORK

ALBANY, Oct. 6.—(AP)—The court of appeals held today a New York mayoralty election to choose a successor to James J. Walker, who resigned, must be held this fall.
