

RANDALL REPORTS MISSIONARY DUTY IN LOCAL REGION

D. D. Randall, missionary for the American Sunday School Union for the six southwest counties of Oregon, has completed his annual report for the year ending October 1. The report shows his work conducted in 86 rural communities.

In caring for these schools, Mr. Randall traveled 29,000 miles, mostly by auto, delivering 261 sermons and distributing several hundred bibles and testaments and gospel in the homes. He also organized prayer meetings, Bible study classes and supervised 14 different daily vacation Bible schools the past summer. Nineteen teachers, six different denominations, assisted Mr. Randall.

In the summer vacation Bible schools about one thousand persons were gathered, with Bible study, reading and memorizing of the scriptures the motive. The sum total of chapters read amounted to reading the Bible through 10 times. The sum total of verses memorized was more than 12,000. The results has been 177 hopeful conversions the past 12 months.

The American Sunday School Union is an inter-denominational organization doing rural Sunday school work in the otherwise unreached sections of the nation. The aim of the society is "to reach boy and girl of rural America in Sunday school, and a Bible in every home."

J. J. Ray of Portland is spending a few days with Mr. Randall in this locality on duties connected with the organization.

TEACHERS FORM CHORAL SOCIETY

Jackson County Teachers' Choral associations met at the Medford senior high school Saturday for organizing and planning the year's work. Superintendent Carter presided at the meeting. Mrs. Cora Gustin of Howard school was elected general chairman, and Miss Minnie Guy and Miss Laura York, assistant chairmen; Miss Harriet Baldwin, director of chorus, and Mrs. George Andrews, accompanist.

There was an enthusiastic response to the invitation to form a singing and public school music study club and the group began at once to practice chorus singing. Among teachers of the county are several trained singers and many excellent voices. The superintendent feels that it is a splendid means of promoting professional, social and cultural attitudes among the teachers of the county. The chorus plans to make public appearances soon.

YOUNG JOURNALIST BLAMED AT O. S. C.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 7. — (AP) — One of the largest and probably the strangest football rallies in all Oregon State college history sent the team off to Los Angeles last night to meet the national champion Trojans. Words of biting criticism from Sam Dolan, famous referee, state alumnus and faculty member, were ringing in the players' ears. But with the team, too, went the cheers and encouragement of a reunited campus.

Dolan, speaker at the rally which brought out the entire student body, criticized student and campus "embryo journalists" for what he described as a recent airing of a family skeleton in public. He referred to a wave of criticism against Head Coach Paul J. Schissler, following Oregon State's humbling at the hands of the Stanford football team.

SANDWICH SHOP IS BURGLARIZED

A pass key was used to enter Bobby's Sandwich shop on South Riverside avenue this morning some time after 2:30 o'clock, and between $32 and $35 was taken, according to a report made to city officers early today.

Coppin's cafe, next to Bobby's shop, was entered in a similar manner, police were informed, with a small amount of change, and a pie being taken.

BUDAPEST. — (AP) — Unemployed Hungarians living in villages along the Danube are earning an average of $2 a week by extracting gold from the river's sands.

This Is Farm Roosevelt Operates At Loss

He was born on a farm—lived on it for fifty years—and even now operates it at a loss. Oh, yes, "Farmer Frank" knows all about the farm problem!

Above is an aerial view of the "farm," by which the governor of New York qualifies himself as a "dirt farmer." With an open-air swimming pool, a private golf course, boxwood hedges, a green house, a six-car garage, a "farm house" with twenty bedrooms and ten servants, the principal agricultural activities consist of a splendid kitchen garden to supply the "big house."

The usual sight is conspicuous in its absence but there is a very nice, homey gate keeper's lodge guarding the inner precincts from intruders.

The estate, at Hyde Park-On-The-Hudson, belongs to Mr. Roosevelt's mother, but is the one on which he was born; on which he has "lived for fifty years," and now "operates at a loss."

A war on ruinous prices for dairy products is being waged by the embattled farmers of New York state, but Mr. Roosevelt has exhibited marked apathy toward their problems and to date has made no move of any kind to assist them.

Society and Clubs Edited by Eva Nealon

Rev. and Mrs. Howell welcomed to city Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Howell, who arrived yesterday from Spokane, Wash. Reverend Howell to accept his position as minister of the First Presbyterian church, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gilmore, 55 North Orange, and will be at home to members of the congregation and other friends at Apartment 8, Arthur Arms, next week.

Members of local society, who met the Howells during their vacation here last summer, are welcoming them to the city and eagerly awaiting Reverend Howell's first sermon, as minister here, which he will deliver at the church this coming Sunday.

Educated at Oxford university, Reverend Howell brings to Medford a wealth of English as well as American culture, and Mrs. Howell, also a native of this week by a charming addition to Medford society. Both are especially interested in young people's work in the church and played a very prominent part in the development of numerous activities for the younger groups in Spokane, where Reverend Howell was pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian church.

Coming to a smaller city, they expect to find even more time to devote to special work. Reverend Howell is particularly interested in Boy Scout work and a program of sports for boys, being very much of an athlete himself during his university days.

Mrs. Sheley Honored at Showers Wednesday.
Mrs. John Sheley, of near Talent, was pleasantly surprised on Wednesday afternoon of this week by a number of the ladies of the W. B. C. of Central Point, giving her a shower of household articles and spending the afternoon with her.

Mrs. Sheley expressed deep appreciation of these gifts and to the corps as a body, for the very useful gift sent, also, for the spirit of friendship which prompted the giving. The afternoon was spent in conversation, music, and the serving of a delicious luncheon.

Those present were Mesdames Gleason, Parker, Farris, Davis, Hilkey, Maple, Slagle, Jones, McKim and Sheley.

Mrs. Keene Gives Bridge Party.
Mrs. J. M. Keene was hostess last evening at a pleasant bridge party at which two tables of contract were in play. Members of the evening bridge club attended and high scores were held by Mrs. T. B. Morris and Mrs. Josephine Clark.

College Women Meet Saturday Afternoon.
Saturday afternoon the College Women's club will meet with Mrs. Porter J. Neff at 2:30 o'clock. An interesting program is promised with Miss Annette Gray to review "Limit" and "Renewal" by Kipling.
Miss Sara Van Meter will assist the hostess.

COTTAGE GROVE LAD SUICIDES IN MONTANA

KALISPELL, Mont., Oct. 7. — (AP) — J. Bruce McCutcheon, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. McCutcheon of Cottage Grove, Ore., shot himself to death with a rifle here late yesterday. Officers said the boy was mentally upset when he left the home of his sister for an inn where he was employed as night watchman. He went to his room and fired the fatal shot. McCutcheon was a senior in Flathead county high school here. There will be no inquest.
