Doug Fairbanks At Fox Craterian

With characteristic enthusiasm, Doug goes Robinson Crusoe one better in all that he does, but, unlike Crusoe, he does it with a sense of humor. For example, Doug's man Friday is Friday the Thirteenth, and the girl who furnishes the love interest is known as Saturday. And there are cannibals and battles and always high adventure of the rollicking sort for which Fairbanks is famous.

Musical Comedy Hit On Screen At Holly

Set off by a brilliant background of beautiful girls and magnificent setting, "The Girl From Calgary" is a thoroughly entertaining story of a pretty French-Canadian rodeo contestant whose pliant personality so impressed a couple of Broadway news agents that they decided to launch her on a stage career which also involves the winning of an Atlantic City bathing contest.

The musical comedy scenes are magnificent, introducing as they do, three new song numbers which should prove instantaneous hits. They are "Misbehaving Feet," "Comme Ca Va," and "Maybe Perhaps," all sung by the personable Miss D'Orsay. A number of scenes are photographed in color, a medium which has been neglected for some time in pictures. This picture will be at the Holly for three days, starting today.
