Sunday morning Mr. Gillet speaks in the First Methodist pulpit, as announced by the pastor, Dr. Alexander Bennett, at the 11 o'clock hour of public worship. Also at the Sunday school hour 9:45 a. m., the high school department will be addressed by the visitor, the address being illustrated by an exhibit of African articles of common daily use.

The public is cordially invited to attend the morning service. No special offerings will be taken.

Everymans Bible Class Will Meet At Court House

The Everyman's Bible class has secured the use of the auditorium of the new court house and will conduct a non-sectarian Bible class there every Sunday morning at 9:30 sharp. The service will be out in time for those who desire to attend church any place in the city.

All men and young men of city and valley are cordially invited to attend and especially those who have not been attending any Bible class.

There will be singing by a men's chorus, as well as popular songs by the men. There will also be special music from time to time.

W. R. Baird will be the teacher of the class and will have a real live wire message for men every Sunday. Men in public office and citizens will also address the class occasionally.

All are asked to remember the opening date, next Sunday, October 16 and be there at 9:30 sharp to enjoy the hour with real men.

Peckham to Lead Forum at Church

George Peckham will lead tonight's meeting of the Westminster Forum at the Presbyterian church, using as his topic "The Bible and its Meaning in this Modern Age." Mrs. E. N. Warner will introduce the subject with a five-minute talk, after which the group will enter in discussion with Mr. Peckham as leader.

The program for the meeting will be a piano solo played by Grace Baird. Announcements of future discussion topics and leaders will be made by the program committee.

Missionary Rally Christian Church

There will be a district missionary rally at the First Christian church this afternoon, conducted by the State Missionary Board under the leadership of C. F. Swander, of Portland.

Christian churches of Ashland and Central Point will unite with the local congregation in this rally. The members of the three churches will bring their lunches and enjoy a fellowship luncheon following the morning church service. This will be followed by the program conducted by Mr. Swander.

Churches Unite For Prayer Day

Subjects ranging from the price of pears to requests for healing will be brought before combined Pentecostal congregations of Medford and vicinity during a day of prayer and fasting next Wednesday. Services will be held in the Full Gospel church at 10:30 a. m., 2:30 p. m. and 7:45 p. m. Congregations of the Full Gospel and Foursquare churches will unite for the occasion.
