William Powell Is Star Craterian Hit

One of the strangest and most fascinating romances ever told is the theme of "One Way Passage," the Warner Bros. production co-starring William Powell and Kay Francis, at the Craterian theater tomorrow.

Most of the action is laid on a Pacific liner sailing from Hong Kong, where the two ill-fated lovers meet for the first time, to San Francisco, where the final farewells are said. William Powell has one of the most impressive roles of his career as Dan Haredesty, the debonair criminal who is finally tripped up by the police.

Kay Francis is considered by metropolitan critics to have the finest opportunity of her career in the role of Joan Ames.

Tonight ends the showing of "Mr. Robinson Crusoe," with Douglas Fairbanks.

GLEASON SPEAKS ASHLAND TONIGHT

Predicting, without reservations, a great victory for Governor Roosevelt and other candidates seeking office this year on the Democratic ticket, Walter B. Gleason, Democratic candidate for United States senator from Oregon, arrived in Medford last night and met with a large delegation of local Bourbons today, who will greet him again tonight at the county Democratic rally to be held at the armory in Ashland, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Gleason stated that he had visited all counties, but four, in Oregon since opening of his campaign and finds the majority of the people enthusiastically for Roosevelt.

"He will carry Multnomah county, and so will I," Mr. Gleason stated. "Senator Stetler is more popular in Oregon than President Hoover, and I'm going to defeat Stetler."

As a clever bit of campaigning, Mr. Gleason exhibited a check form, used by hop growers in paying off 40,000 workers. On the back of the check, one endorsement already appears. It reads "Vote for Roosevelt, vote for Gleason, vote 312 X yes. This check would be 20 per cent larger if we were drinking brewery beer instead of malt extract beer. It's up to you."

Mr. Gleason will return to Medford October 25 or 26 to deliver a message to the local public.

The rally in Ashland tonight will be followed by dancing and a large delegation from Medford is being organized.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—(AP)—The republican national committee today made public a statement by R. W. Dinslip, assistant secretary of agriculture quoting him as saying Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt has been in a "constant haze" during the past 12 years on tariff issues. The statement in part said:

"There is just one issue that the opposition has brought out that I am not going to meet," said Mr. Roosevelt at Minneapolis on Aug. 13, 1920. "Senator Harding has been talking of the tariff. I can only remind him that the tariff issue has been a dead one for several years since the tariff commission was created and put to work."
