

BURCH RETURNS WITH REPORT OF GAIN BY HOOVER

Albert Burch, of this city, former member of the state board of higher education, who resigned five weeks ago, has returned 15 pounds overweight, from California, where he went with the filing of his resignation. He expects to get back to normal weight in three weeks spreading hay around his orchard.

Mr. Burch, a personal friend of President Hoover, reports a steady drift for Hoover in California, with the contest now a close-up, and the president gaining strength daily. California agriculturists fear the Democratic threat to tinker with the tariff, and release a flood of cheap farm products and cattle into the coast area from Mexico, Australia, New Zealand and Canada, Burch says. "It will be a hard fight," he said, "owing to the wave of discontent, but Hoover will win."

Candidates for county offices, in their travels over the county, report a decided change in sentiment in favor of Hoover, and that many rural voters are announcing their intention of voting the Republican national ticket. The drift towards Hoover in this city and Ashland the past ten days, has been pronounced. Republicans in this city who last spring were outspoken in their opposition to the chief executive, now declare, "Hoover is the man," and are back again in the GOP fold.

Local residents, who have returned the last week from upstate, report that a decided swing is underway in the Willamette valley, and in Portland for Hoover, in contrast to the spring sentiment.

VIRGIL'S CAVE FOUND IN BOWELS OF HILL BY ITALIAN SAVANT

NAPLES, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Discovery of the ancient cave, in which, according to the Roman poet, Virgil, the Cumaean Sibyl foretold the birth of Rome, was claimed today by Professor Amedeo Maiuri, superintendent of antiquities.

The cave, 40 feet long and hollowed out of solid rock in the bowels of Cuma hill, the professor said, conforms to the descriptions of Virgil's and to those of fourth and sixth century Roman writers.

Leading into it from the hillside is a gallery 400 feet long. The cave is the traditional place where, according to Virgil, Aeneas visited the Sibyl and received from them the prediction that he would found Rome. Professor Maiuri discovered the gallery while excavating an ancient wine cellar which seemed to him of Greek construction.

HUNT FOR WILD MAN DROPPED FOR TIME

State police, after a two day search, were unable to find any trace of the "wild man," who Sunday morning threateningly accosted Mrs. George Bousson, wife of the forest lookout station keeper, in southeastern Jackson, when she was alone. No clues

DRY ADVOCATES BAND TO BATTLE REPEAL OF LAWS

Liquor in Canada as a failure and more nearly defined as government sales. She also stated that if Oregon is lost, it will be the loss of another stronghold. She also said that she believed President Hoover will be sympathetic concerning enforcement measures.

The local organization is expected to act as a clearing house through which those interested in the betterment of conditions in Jackson county may find expression, one of the leaders stated today. It will not die on November 8, but continue as a permanent organization. Members of the league will be members of the county churches and other Christian organizations. Meetings will be held frequently until after election.

The meeting this week was described as "characterized by dignity, calm deliberation, definite aims, enthusiasm and harmony."

The Medford Ministerial association was reported to have gone on record as standing behind the Jackson County Civic league in all its undertakings.

FIRST FROST HITS MEDFORD VICINITY

First frost of the fall was reported at the United States weather bureau here this morning, with the lowest temperature of the season, 34.9 recorded. The frosts were reported in the outlying exposed areas, with no damage to tomato or fruit crops, according to the bureau. Earliest frost last autumn was on the September 24 record of the weather reports.

County Agent Robert G. Fowler said this afternoon that no reports had been received by his office of any damage. He said that there are still a large number of unripened tomatoes on the vines throughout the county, and that none has been harmed by weather conditions as yet.

A report was received from Sams Valley today that a slight frost was noted there Saturday morning, resulting in little damage.

PUBLIC IS INVITED TO INSTITUTE ADDRESS

The public is being invited to all of the addresses being given at the county school officers' convention and teachers' institute Thursday and Friday at the senior high school. It was announced by Mrs. Suzanne Homes Carter, county school superintendent.

Mrs. Carter also stated this morning that United States District Attorney George Neuner will give a brief address shortly after 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the school, to which all interested parties are invited.

ELECTION BALLOT IS PREPARED FOR HAND OF PRINTER

The county clerk has completed preparation of the copy, for ballot for the November election. It will contain 116 names of candidates for national, state, county and city offices, and 13 measures. The Eagle Point and Rogue River districts will vote on stock restriction districts, on a special ballot. The measures are for the purpose of keeping stock off the Pacific Highway and the Crater Lake highway, particularly in the fall and spring of the year.

Bids for the ballots for this county will be considered by the county court at an early date, and are expected to be turned over to the printer early next week.

The exact number of ballots to be printed will not be known, until the count of the registration cards is made. It is expected to be close to 18,000 ballots, the early estimate that it would pass that mark being cut by the large number of cancellations of cards caused by voters moving from one precinct to another, in the county, and removals to other counties of the state, and other states, since the May primary.

The law requires that sample ballots to the number of each regular ballot be printed for the education and study of the voter.

FORMER ASHLAND PASTOR IS BURIED

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 12.—(AP)—Prominent members of the Presbyterian clergy and lay folk paid honor today to Dr. Ferdinand G. Strange, 84, minister of the church for 58 years, who died here Monday.

Dr. Strange was ordained in 1874. In 1883 he began his first work in the Pacific northwest. For 14 years he was pastor of the First Church at Ashland.

Dr. Harold Leonard Brown officiated at the funeral today.

FRIEND OF AUTOIST IS TAKEN BY DEATH

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Louis Henry Perlman, who built a fortune from a fit of irritation, is dead.

During an automobile trip in 1900, he had to change four tires and inflate each with a hand pump. The experience so disgusted him that he invented the demountable rim for auto wheels.

Mr. Perlman, who was 70, died Monday in Flushing, where he had a home. He also had a dwelling at Montrose, N. Y.

Marine Aviators Rescued At Sea

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Oct. 12.—(AP)—After drifting all night upon a floundering airplane, Lieut. Edward C. Dyer and Corporal Chambers, marine aviators attached to the U. S. S. Lexington, were rescued at sea off San Clemente Island Tuesday by the destroyer Fairfax, one of a dozen ships in the searching party. The plane sank as the two men were taken aboard the destroyer.

silent, economic recovery was immeasurably impeded."

Treasury Raids Pend. Making no attempt at forecasts, the only living ex-President took out his glasses and manuscript and read his speech. The crowd broke into laughter at his sallies, and shouted "No-no" or "Yes-yes" to his questions. "Give 'em hell, Cal," a man in the gallery roared.

In his slow, deliberate voice, he hit at what he called "pending Democratic treasury raids," and said that assurance that they would be defeated by a Republican victory in November would have an effect "in reviving all kinds of business."

He said preservation of the protective tariff, sound money and Mr. Hoover's measures to protect the country's credit system were safe, sure phases of a comprehensive program of economic rehabilitation in which no man had been forgotten.

Working for People. "Working for the general run of people," he said, "is exactly what we should expect of President Hoover, because he knows them by being one of them and having served with them and for them all his life. He was not born to the enjoyment of generations of inherited wealth so that he could be educated by private tutors and sent through expensive schools and universities. He never was carried into political office by the way of family influence. He has always had to depend on his own name and reputation."

"Some people are saying," Mr. Coolidge also declared, "that as things could not be any worse, we might as well try a change. That is a very dangerous principle to apply to the discharge of the duties of American citizenship. Things could be a great deal worse than they are and would have been worse had it not been for the vision, the courage and the leadership of President Hoover."

The garden, which seats 22,000, was filled in its lower sections; there were vacant seats in the upper altitudes. Another speaker was Col. William J. Donovan, candidate for governor, who declared for intelligent economy in state and national administration.
