EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 14.—(AP)—After an intensive workout to accustom themselves to a moist field, the Oregon university football men planned to leave today for Portland, where they will meet the UCLAN Bruins tomorrow afternoon in a Pacific Coast conference clash.

The Bruins, headed by Coach Bill Spaulding, were also scheduled to arrive in Portland today and to try out the Civic stadium field where they will show their wares for the benefit of the Portland Shrine hospital.

Tulane Grid Star Held Professional

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 14.—(AP)—The green wave from Tulane which has smashed everything in the southern conference for three years now must roll on without its captain and star fullback, Nollie C. Felt. Charges of professionalism on grounds he played professional baseball in the Cotton States league in 1927 were upheld last night by the southern conference executive committee.

GRAND OLD MAN OF GRID COACHING LAST SEASON

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—(AP)—One of the most engaging chapters in American football today was in its closing pages, for Amos Alonzo Stagg will retire as director of athletics, and head football coach at the University of Chicago at the end of the college year next June.

The grand old man of the Midwest, Chicago's only athletic director and head gridiron teacher, having reached three score and ten years, must step aside under a university rule providing that 70 shall be the age limit for members of the faculty. And Stagg will make way for Thomas Nelson Metcalf, now director of athletics at Iowa State College, Ames, Ia., only because of the rule. He became 70 years old last August 16. In yielding, Stagg, clear-eyed and looking not more than 50 of his 70 years, said he was "frankly, not content to do it"; that he felt he is good for 15 or 20 more years of active service. His successor as football coach will be named by Metcalf, who has given no indication of his choice. In announcing the retirement of Stagg, the board of trustees of the University said a new post, chairman of the committee on intercollegiate athletics, had been created for him. Stagg, however, has not accepted the place.

MAT KINGS SIGN PORTLAND MATCH

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14.—(AP)—Lou Daro, local wrestling promoter, said today he had signed Ed (Strangler) Lewis and Jim London, both claimants of the world's heavyweight wrestling championship, for an outdoor match here next February. London has been guaranteed $50,000 to risk his claim to the title, Daro said. Lewis is scheduled to face Ray Steele, Glendale, Cal., wrestler and the California heavyweight champion, in New York, December 5, for world's title recognition in that state. Daro said the London-Lewis match would depend on Lewis being victorious over Steele. Steele held Lewis to a 90-minute draw in Boston last April.

FELDMAN LOSES TO 'KEED' AGAIN

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—(AP)—His third successive victory over Lew Feldman has gained for Kid Chocolate, Cuban negro flash, a piece of the more or less vacant featherweight championship. Chocolate hammered Feldman into decisive defeat before a sparse gathering of 7000 spectators in Madison Square Garden last night, stopping the New York youngster in the 12th round of what was to have been a 15-round bout.

CARGO OF PEARS GOING NEW YORK FROM HOOD RIVER

The S. S. Carrillo of the United Fruit company's "Great White Fleet," which is under charter by the Apple Growers' association of Hood River to carry a cargo of pears to New York city, started taking on cargo at Portland Monday morning. The original load contemplated would have been finished Wednesday, but since the ship slowed to better advantage than was anticipated the load will be increased from 73,000 to 89,500 boxes. This additional cargo was not delivered to the ship until Thursday. The Carrillo probably sailed this morning and is scheduled to arrive in New York November 2 or 3, where the pears, all Anjou except two cartons of Bose, will be placed in cold storage. The Carrillo came out from the east coast especially for this cargo of pears and will carry no cargo other than pears on her homeward voyage.

Although especially equipped to carry one hundred passengers on the "Great White Fleet" West Indian cruisers, no passengers will be carried on this voyage except a technical observer for the United States department of agriculture, Charles L. Powell. Mr. Powell, a specialist in fruit transportation and storage, has recently been stationed at Medford on pear storage experiments in co-operation with the Oregon state experiment station.

The U. S. department of agriculture, under the supervision of Mr. Edwin Smith, is making a close study of the temperatures of pears during this voyage of the S. S. Carrillo. The quality of the fruit shipped on this boat will be compared with fruit picked from the same trees, shipped overland by railroad. The test shipments by rail have already left Hood River for New York. To obtain the fruit and air temperatures down in the hold of the ship Mr. Powell will have distant reading electrical resistance thermometers throughout the cargo. The complete record of fruit temperatures during the railroad transit by Portland and during the loading operation will thus be continued during the entire 20-day voyage to New York. Upon arrival at New York Mr. Powell will assemble the boxes shipped overland by rail and the test boxes carried on the ship, and hold them in the same cold storage room. In the spring this fruit will be ripened and the quality of the fruit shipped by boat compared with that shipped by rail.

A number of Medford shippers, including Ralph Headley of the Simons & French company and Ralph G. Bardwell of the Bardwell Fruit company, have been in Portland observing the handling and shipping of these pears. Growers and shippers in this district, as well as those in Yakima and Wenatchee, are greatly interested in this initial intercoastal shipment of pears, since the saving to the Hood River growers will amount to approximately 25c per box as against present railroad rates.
