Frank and Al on Same Platform

NEW YORK, Oct. 17. (AP) - Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt and the man he termed the "happy warrior" - Alfred E. Smith - will share the platform in Democracy's closing campaign rallies in New York.

This became a certainty today as Democratic chieftans, desirous of further campaigning by Speaker John N. Garner, awarded a decision from the vice presidential nominee on a proposed tour of the west.

The standard bearer of the Democrats and his predecessor at Albany - who effected a reconciliation at the state convention two weeks ago - will headline the programs at the Brooklyn square of music November 4 and at Madison Square Garden November 5.

Walter Zeidler, who has been employed at the Medford Ice and Storage plant for several weeks, is now at his home on Little Applegate.

Mr. Zeidler is employed at Klamath Falls, trucking potatoes. Mr. Arant motored home Saturday, bringing several sacks of potatoes, which he sold to neighbors.

Laurence Sellers of Medford was a week-end guest at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Hughes, near Rich.
