FAIR IS HELD BY ROGUE RIVER CLUB

First community fair and rally day for Home Extension units and probably the only community fair in Jackson county this year was held at Rogue River community hall by the Rogue River Civic club, Oct. 14.

Products collected featured many articles manufactured in Oregon, and many Jackson county products. Study of all products produced in Oregon was one of the club projects last year.

Other booths featured attractive displays of fruits, vegetables, canning, cooking, handwork, rugs, quilts, and minerals mined near Rogue River. An antique booth displayed old china, silver, pewter, chairs and other interesting articles.

ROGUE RIVER LADIES CAN FOOD FOR RELIEF

The food conservation committee of Rogue River reports 879 cans of peaches, tomatoes, pears and string beans conserved for their commissary for relief work.

The canning work was done in the community club house and was directed by Mrs. Lela Shepherd, chairman of the food conservation committee; Mrs. Mabel Mack, county home demonstration agent, assisted Mrs. Shepherd in organizing the kitchen the first day.

Provolt Community Hall Is Cleaned Up At All-Day Meet

WILLIAMS CREEK, Oct. 17.—(Sp.) Provolt Community club met at the community hall all day Wednesday. The men cleaned the grounds, fixed a parking space and built a new chimney. The ladies cleaned and decorated the windows and inside of the building. A picnic dinner was served at noon. Sunday school is now held in the hall instead of the school house. The club meets every two weeks. They will give a Halloween party for the little folks of the community the evening of October 28.

CLINIC WEDNESDAY FOR HANDICAPPED

Extensive plans are being completed here for the handicapped children's clinic to be conducted at the Sparrow Memorial clinic Wednesday by Dr. Dillehunt and Dr. Dixon of Portland under direction of the Jackson County Public association.

The Portland doctors, who need no introduction to the southern Oregon public, will arrive here Tuesday to continue to Ashland for a meeting of the medical society, under the leadership of Dr. E. A. Woods.

Wednesday morning, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, every ten minutes the two specialists will examine a different child, 54 appointments having been made with Dr. Dillehunt and 28 with Dr. Dixon.

LIONS SOUP KITCHEN CAN USE PRODUCE

Larry Pennington of the Lions' club requested Saturday that all farmers who have produce of any kind that they can spare, or which might be damaged by rain, if they will turn it over to the Lions' club for use in the relief kitchen, it would be greatly appreciated.

Donations are requested to be turned in as early as possible, and any canned fruit for the kitchen would also be of use by the club in its work. Mr. Pennington said, Pennington's garage on Bartlett street just north of Sixth street, will be the base for receiving supplies.

THANKS EXTENDED BY TEACHERS IN SESSION

Resolutions adopted by the Jackson county division of the Oregon State Teachers association were announced at the close of the two-day session the latter part of the week, and appreciation and thanks was expressed speakers, members of the Medford school board, and faculty members who worked together to make the gathering a success.

France Affronted By German Stand

PARIS, Oct. 17.—(P)—Characterizing Germany's refusal to take part in a preliminary four-power arms conference at Geneva as an affront both to France and to the League of Nations, a government spokesman indicated today that France was unlikely to agree to hold the meeting in any other city.

JACKSON COUNTY EXTENSION UNITS MEETINGS LISTED

Home Extension Units of Jackson county began their regular extension program the first of October under the direction of Mabel C. Mack, county home demonstration agent. The extension program for the year was made following County Homekeepers Day last April by the county extension committee. This committee composed of Miss Alice Hanley, Jacksonville, chairman; Mrs. J. R. McCracken and Mrs. Bertha Glasgow, Valleyview; Mrs. A. T. Lathrop, Central Point; Mrs. H. F. Weststone, Tolo; Mrs. Lee Fort, Applegate; Mrs. Lela Shepherd, Rogue River met recently with Clarel Nye, state leader of home economics extension and Mrs. Mabel Mack, home demonstration agent, and discussed the program for the remainder of the year.

The committee voted to make available to the county groups a project on clothing renovation, which will include care of clothing, dry cleaning and dyeing fabrics and re-modeling of garments that are available. This three meeting project will be given in October, November and December and the Low Cost Meal project, which was scheduled for this fall, will be given in January, February and March. This change in schedule was made in response to numerous requests for a clothing project.

Missouri Demos Nominate Park

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Guy B. Park, 60-year-old Platte City circuit judge, today was unanimously nominated for governor by the democratic state committee. Judge Park succeeds the late Francis M. Wilson, also of Platte City, as head of the democratic state ticket. Wilson died suddenly last week.

At Cleveland too, the president had discussed unemployment relief. There Mr. Hoover made it the first of "twelve major measures" he said composed the administration record in relation to wage and salary earners. They were:

- 1. Mobilization of national and local relief agencies, appropriation of $300,000,000 for loans to states, and distribution of farm board wheat and cotton. 2. Calling of an employer and employee conference to uphold wages and buying power. 3. Use of public works to assist in employment stabilization. 4. Appropriation of $1,500,000,000 for construction loans of the self-sustaining class. 5. Employment spreading for government workers through shorter hours. 6. Creation of the home loan bank system. 7. Advocacy of high wages. 8. Protection of the domestic market for American labor through a protective tariff. 9. Prohibition of immigration except for relatives of citizens. 10. Preservation of the integrity of the American dollar. 11. Restoration of normal jobs thru maintaining credit. 12. Efforts to improve American markets by improving the internal stability of other nations.

TRIPLE TRAGEDY SEEN AS SEQUEL IN LOVE TANGLE

MINNEOLA, N. Y., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Responding to a call from Guy Phillips, 35, a dramatic coach, Nausau county police today found Phillips unconscious and his wife and two children asphyxiated by gas at his home in Woodmere on Long Island.

The body of Mrs. Phillips, 37, was found in a bedroom, fully clothed. Her 6-year-old son was dead on the floor of another bedroom, in which Phillips' prostrate form also was found. A 9-year-old daughter, Norma, was dead in bed.
