FLU, HURTS AND GIRLITIS FRETS MEDFORD MENTOR

Grants Pass Coming Saturday For Annual Tilt—Sick And Lame on Mend—"Star" In Bad Way.

The Medford high school football team will play one of its "big games" of the season next Saturday, when it faces the big, powerful and rejuvenated Grants Pass squad on VanSchoep field. The Josephine county squad recently slapped the state championship hopes out of the Klamath Falls team, 19 to 0, and defeated Eureka, Cal., last Saturday.

With two weeks rest under their belts, the Medford team will be in comparatively good shape, but Coach Burgher reports that flu, injuries and girlitis have hit his squad. The flu is retreating and the injuries are healing, but the victim of girlitis and grandstanding is showing no signs of recovery. The display of romantic temperament is hard to cure, as the patient pays more attention to her opinions than to the coaching advice.

Coach Burgher will use some drastic medicine to bring the youth into line, and may let him squat on the bench during the Grants Pass game, and give his place to a halfback who will follow his interference, mind the coach, practice teamwork, and carry the ball under his arm, instead of aping a Notre Dame star. The prima donna is also suffering from the delusion that the squad can't get along without him. He is due for a surprise.

Clyde Fichtner, the big fullback of the locals, has been weakened by an attack of the flu, and Scheel is out of commission with his bum knee. Tommy White is again in harness. Most of the worry is with the backfield. The line is intact, and with Hammack at center is stronger and able to take care of itself.

The Grants Pass squad is coming next Saturday, loaded for Bear has whetted their appetite for victory, and they are already boasting of a victory over the Burghermeisters. In Fredericks, tackle, and McGuire, end, they have a first-class pair of high school players, but just what they can do against a line that is nearly as heavy and more experienced, will be told Saturday.

The following Saturday, October 29, the Burghermeisters will go against Klamath Falls, who have recovered from the shock of being trampled, and now point for a victory over Medford, to redeem their lost prestige.

BRIDGE OLYMPIC STARTS TOMORROW

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—(AP)—Contract bridge players throughout the United States plan to sit down tomorrow night and match wits for trophies in the American Bridge Olympic.

sponsoring the "Olympic" has announced the distribution of 16,000 decks of cards, made up in duplicate boards. Game captains have been named to preside over the play in various localities. Each captain will receive the same 16 selected hands, in duplicate boards, ready to be bid and played. Tomorrow night the captains will break the seals on the boards and set their players going.

Afterward, the score cards will be sent to the association here and will be scored according to secret pars of bidding and play. Besides trophies to state, province and national winners, the association announces that the two championship pairs will be entertained in the national contract championship tournament next June and will have their expenses paid.

KLEIN OF PHILS VOTED NATIONAL LEAGUE HONORS

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—(AP)—As the climax to his steady rise toward the top, Charles Herbert (Chuck) Klein of Indianapolis, cleanup catcher of the Philadelphia Nationals, today emerged as the choice of the baseball experts for the distinction of being the National league's most valuable player during the 1932 season.

Klein was third in the 1930 voting and runner-up to Frankie Frisch, St. Louis Cardinal captain, last year in the balloting by a committee representing the Baseball Writers' association of America. His selection was announced by J. Roy Stockton of St. Louis, chairman of the committee.

The Philly right-fielder, now generally rated among the greatest all-around batmen in the major leagues, won the honor from Louie Warneke, the Chicago Cubs' sensational freshman pitcher, and Frank (Lefty) O'Doul of Brooklyn, league batting champion, in a brisk three-cornered contest.

Klein received 78 out of a possible maximum of 80. He was the first choice of six and second choice of the remaining two members of the writers' committee. Warneke, first choice of two critics, was next with 68 points. O'Doul finished with 58.

Paul Waner of the Pirates and Riggs Stephenson of the Cubs, with 47 and 32, respectively, completed the top five.

Frank Frisch, the 1931 winner, received only three points, one less than the young St. Louis pitcher, Dimmy Dean. Hack Wilson of Brooklyn, 1930 selection, collected six points.

OREGON TO MEET IDAHO SATURDAY WITHOUT MORGAN

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 18.—(AP)—Reduced within a period of 10 seconds from a dark horse status and a good chance at the Pacific Coast football conference title, to a position where only a fierce struggle and good fortune can put them up with the leaders, the University of Oregon football team got down to work again at Eugene today in preparation for the next Saturday match with University of Idaho at Moscow.

Meanwhile, on the Corvallis campus, the Oregon States, rested and in good physical shape, continued to drill steadily for the big chance of the season, the game with Washington State on Bell field.

The State College Beavers did not engage in competition last Saturday, and Coach Paul J. Schiller went to Berkeley where, from the stands, he accented the Washington State-California game in which the Cougars were victorious. The Beavers looked like a real football team against the Southern California Trojans two weeks ago, according to Bill Spaulding, coach of the Uclans. Similarly, the Beavers have an edge on comparative scores, although that means little or nothing in these days.

The Oregon Webfoots, meanwhile, defeated by the U. C. L. A. outfit in a heartbreaking reversal with only seconds to go before the final gun, not only had their championship hopes dynamited, but incurred new injuries. Captain Bill Morgan, star tackle, and one of the best in the conference, is out of the game now with both hands and wrists bandaged. He received a fractured left wrist in the second period of the U. C. L. A. game, after having played the previous week with his right hand in a cast.

The Oregon team already was crippled by the absence of Mike Mikulak and Stan Kocika, star backfielders.

LA GRANDE, Ore., Oct. 18.—(AP)—Although the mercury last night dropped no lower than 38 above and expected frosts failed to materialize, Grande Ronde valley residents awoke this morning to discover a blanket of snow on Mount Emily. A few miles north of La Grande, it was the first snowfall of the season on nearby mountains.

LESSER RECEIPTS AND MORE PROFIT FOR OREGON FAIR

PORTLAND, Oct. 18.—(AP)—A profit of more than $15,000 was realized on the Oregon state fair this year although gross receipts were 35 per cent less than in 1931.

This was the report submitted to the state board of agriculture at a meeting here Monday by Max Gehlhar, director. He said receipts totaled $49,837 and disbursements were $36,043, including the cost of the free rodeo. Operating expenses and some unpaid bills will bring the net profit to around $15,700.

Gehlhar told the board that reduced expenditures were responsible for the profit, a new method of ticket sales and supervision cutting expense from $3,271 to $687.

J. O. Holt of Eugene, board chairman, said "We are more than pleased in being able to end the first year this board has had full control of the fair with a substantial cash balance instead of having to ask the legislature for an appropriation to pay a deficit. It does seem to the board that the fair ought not to be further handicapped in the future by the $143,000 placed on the fair by a prior administration."
