LONE POINT WIN
OVER GRANTS PASS

Heavier Josephine Team
Loses 7 To 6 In Bitter
Battle—Locals Punt Far,
Think Fast Order To Win.

The Medford high school football team defeated Grants Pass, 7 to 6, on Van Boyce field yesterday and the Burghermesters kept the heavier Josephine county squad in their own territory through the first half and the fourth quarter to nose out a victory. In the third quarter Medford carried the ball to the one-foot line, where they lost the ball on a fourth down. It was a hard-fought, well-played battle throughout. The defeat put a crimp in Grants Pass' championship hopes.

Medford took advantage of Grants Pass' inability in handoff punts and three times during the contest recovered fumbled punts. The Burghermesters outkicked and outgeneral-ed Grants Pass.

On the final play of the game, Prady, Grants Pass full, was blocked out of the play so viciously that he was several minutes in recovering.

Medford scored in the first quarter on a pass from Gilmaki to Lindley, and Knips kicked the extra point. The balance of the half, Medford kept the ball deep in Grants Pass territory.

Star In Eclipse
Fredericks, of Grants Pass, rated as the best high school lineman in the southern Oregon conference, was taken out early in the second quarter when Medford started pounding him for steady gains.

The Grants Pass backfield had its trick plays smothered before they got started.

With a seven point lead Medford played a conservative game and through the punting of Knips, Scheel and Gilmaki kept the ball out of their own territory. Practically the entire first half was played in Grants Pass territory.

The visitors started with a rush in the second and began using their weight advantage to make steady gains. Early in the third period, Wyatt caught along forward pass to score a touchdown. The extra point failed when Medford ends and tackles rushed in and hurried the kick, which was low.

In a third quarter drive, Medford carried the ball to the five yard line on a series of off-tackle bucks by Gilmaki and a forward pass to Lindley. On a line buck for a touchdown Fitchner, just out of bed with the flu missed by a scant foot.

Trick Plays Smothered
In the fourth quarter Medford smothered again Grants Pass' trick plays and broke up two forward passes. Twice Medford carried the ball to within scoring distance to be held for downs.

The game ended with the ball in Medford's possession on Grants Pass' 40-yard line.

Fredericks and McLain of the visitors, failed to play up to advance notices but Prady and Wyatt starred for Grants Pass. The Grants Pass squad is the best team produced there in many years and has weight and speed. They were weak on handling punts.

Gilmaki was the most consistent ground gainer for the Burghermesters along with Fitchner and Knips. Lindley caught the scoring pass and was on the receiving end of another that netted yardage when it counted. Fitchner plunged through for yardage.

The Medford team, outweighed seven pounds to the man won because they showed the most brain power and kicked the farthest.

Few substitutions were made by either coach. Grants Pass substituted Shaw for Prady and Kennedy for Fredericks. For Medford, Gheardi was substituted for Gilmaki and Scheel for Knips.

A trifle fell throughout most of the second half.

PASS AND POWER OF TROJANS DOWN
STANFORD HOPES

STANFORD STADIUM, Palo Alto, Calif., Oct. 22.—(AP)—To all the football world today was flung a stirring challenge by the Trojans of southern California as the nation's mythical champions of 1931 met and mastered Stanford Indians, 13-0, to pass the first mighty test in defense of their title.

While 65,000 rosters thrilled to the first big gridiron spectacle of the far western season, Coach Howard Jones' Trojans outdid the masters of aerial offense at their own game; out-tricked them when deception was needed and generally outplayed one of the greatest Stanford teams assembled by the old dean of football, Glenn Warner, in many years.

After a scoreless first quarter in which the Indians made their only goal line thrust, Southern California's high geared gridiron machine started down the touchdown trail.

From deep in their own territory, the Indians kicked after an ineffectual drive at the line. Ory Mohler, Trojan quarterback, tucked the ball to his midsection and headed down the field. He was stopped after an 18 yard gain.

The Trojans tried their third pass of the game. McNelis, substitute left half, fared far back in a deceptive spread by the backfield while Ford Palmer, end, dashed over the goal line. McNelis whipped the ball true into Palmer's hands while three Stanford men looked on, apparently too befuddled to close in on the Trojan receiver. The try for point failed.

Another touchdown march, starting by way of the air and finishing in a terrific smash straight through center brought the Trojans a second score midway of the third period.

Taking possession of the ball in mid-field, the defending champions pushed over the last line in four plays.

Oregon Power Too Much
For Idaho — Temple Star
For Victors With Several Broken Field Runs.

MOSCOW, Idaho, Oct. 22.—(AP)—On a rain soaked and slippery gridiron, the University of Oregon Webfoots outpassed, outdove and outpunted the University of Idaho football team in the latter's homecoming contest here today. The final score was 33 to 0.

From the opening play, when Oregon started down the field with a tremendous power drive, the 8000 shivering spectators saw the Vandals driven back into their own territory and gradually battered down by the heavier and smarter Oregon eleven.

Mark Temple, flashy Oregon halfback, led the Webfoots, outkicking, scoring three of the five touchdowns, and gathering the two points earned in completed tries for points after touchdowns. He darted through the Idaho line on the second play of the game, and shook off tacklers for 65 yards to make his first score.

A few minutes later, after an exchange of punts, he scored again. Randall, substitute Idaho halfback, punted poorly to his 25 yard line. Temple took the ball through the line for twenty yards, Bobbitt advanced it three yards more, and Temple took it across.

Temple scored on the fourth play of the second period, breaking through the Idaho line and dashing 12 yards. Near the end of the period Pepelnjak, right halfback, found a hole off Idaho's right tackle, and splashed 41 yards for a touchdown.

Oregon's last score came in the third period. Pepelnjak hurled a long pass to Pozeeo substituting for Morse at end, and Pozeeo ran 17 yards to score.

Only one Idaho present a formidable advance, this late in the last period. The galloping Webfoots were weary, and Coach Prink Callison was throwing in substitutes. Willis (Little Giant) Smith, substitute quarter, advanced the ball twenty yards on a series of end sweeps and line bucks.

On the Oregon 28 yard line, the Webfoots held and Smith attempted to pass on the fourth down. The pass was blocked and Oregon took the ball. A second Idaho advance, started when Smith took a punt from the 25 yard line to midfield, was stopped on Oregon's 3 yard line when the Webfoots line held.

ASHLAND NORMAL
BEATS HUMBOLDT

The Southern Oregon Normal of Ashland football team defeated the Humboldt Teachers college at Arcata Friday afternoon, 25 to 0. The Californians held Coach Hobson's men scoreless in the first half, but in the third quarter, Fullback Bud Jones of the Normal recovered a fumble on Humboldt's three yard line and then bucked it over for the first touchdown.

In the same quarter Bradford ran right end for 50 yards and a touchdown. Lancaster entered the game in the third quarter and soon scored, and again in the fourth quarter.

Coach Hobson started with a freshman backfield. The Sons gained 26 first downs, while Humboldt was gaining two. Fumbles at critical times cost the normal more points.

The features of the game were McLain's running and kicking, along with the general all-around play of Lancaster and Bradford. Mahoney, Balcovich and Anderson led the line play.

The Normal team came through with slight injuries.

HUSKIES LOSE 7-6

WASHINGTON STADIUM, Seattle, Oct. 22.—(AP)—The battered Bears of California smothered the Pacific coast conference championship hopes of the University of Washington football team in the slippery sod in this stadium today when they scored a sparkling 7 to 6 victory, winning by the margin of the extra point after a touchdown.

The victory was the first of the season for the southerners, and it virtually eliminated all northern division teams from consideration for the title as Washington was the only undefeated team in this section before the battle.

It was an inspired Bear led by a demon halfback in the person of Arleigh Williams, which turned defeat into victory in the 19th traditional contest between the two eleven.

Late in the second period after Washington had tallied a touchdown in the first quarter, Coach Bill Ingram sent Williams into the fray to replace his brittle triple-threat ear, Henry Schalbach, and the close to 20,000 Washington fans gave a sigh of relief but the worst was yet to come.

Arleigh immediately tipped everybody off as to what was to follow, ripped off two first downs in quick succession and then punted to Washington's 7-yard line.

Matt Muczynski returned the kick and Williams went to work again from Washington's 47-yard line.

His short pass failed to connect and he took the ball for a line smash. His linemen opened a big hole at right tackle and he shot through into the waiting arms of all the Husky backfield men. He pushed one aside, wiggled out of the clutches of two others and headed for Art Ahonen, the Washington safety man. His interference took care of Ahonen and Williams romped on to the winning touchdown.

The extra point was important after the Huskies had failed at their opportunity and Williams dropped back, indicating a drop kick. He took the ball from center and completely surprised the Washington gridgers with a forward pass into the corner to Gus Castro, scintillating quarterback, who stepped over the goal stripe for the single point that proved to be the margin of victory.

COUGARS CLAW OUT
WIN OVER STATERS
IN MUD AND RAIN

BELL FIELD, CORVALLIS, Ore., 12.—(AP)—By the margin of one point the Washington State college Cougars, mud-lathered and water-soaked, trotted off Bell field today, victors once more over the Oregon State college football team. The score was 7 to 6, when the Oregon Staters making their counter in the dying moments of the final period. The critical kick for point was low.

An early touchdown put Coach "Babe" Hollensberry's fighting football eleven in the lead and the toe of John Eubanks scored the extra point. The Cougars shortly after this score however were put on the defensive and most of the remainder of the game was played in their territory.

The Beavers tallied in the last two minutes of play after opening up on passes. But Keith Davis could not split the uprights, his kick was low. Oregon State tried desperately in the last minute to snatch a victory, but their inside kick went into the hands of a Crimson and Gray player and the Cougars held the ball, until the final gun making an extra first down in the meantime.

About 5,000 fans saw the Cougars three times hold inside the Washington State 3 yard line, for downs. On the Oregon State fourth drive for a score the Cougars held again for three downs, but here Johnny Biancone, Beaver quarter ran around left end seven yards for the lone Beaver tally on the last try. But the scoring stopped at 7 to 6.

Washington State started at the opening gun to make it look bad for Coach Paul J. Schialer's Oregon Staters, but this was the only quarter in which the Cougars were not on defensive most of the time.

Oregon State did not get by the half way line in this period.

Advertising Results:

Gentlemen:
Word has just reached me from General Executive Offices that Ward Week was the most gratifying sale of its kind ever held.

This sale, the greatest event of the year in the Ward organization, was held in 500 Ward stores reaching from coast to coast. This event is generally conceded to be the greatest sale of its kind and scope in America.

You will be interested in the success of the sale because of the fact that approximately 90% of the advertising appropriation for Ward Week was spent in local newspapers.

The amazing total of almost 9,000,000 lines of space in about 800 newspapers carried the Ward Week message to 50,000,000 people.

We feel we owe you a word of appreciation for the splendid manner in which the Mail Tribune co-operated in making Ward Week a success. Your publication has again proven its value as an outstanding advertising medium.

Best wishes for continued success.
