

PIONEER RESIDENT JOHN G. NORTON, IN DALLAS 'WRITEUP'

An interesting story of an old time Medford resident recently appeared in the Polk County Itemizer under the heading "Interesting People of Dallas and Polk County." It tells the life history of John G. Norton, who spent more than 50 years of his life in Jackson County, and who is the uncle of John and Henry Barneburg and of Mrs. J. M. Kenne and sister, Ida, all of this city. He now makes his home with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Norton of Dallas.

The article in the Dallas press, reads in part: John G. Norton, who was 85 years old October 2, crossed the plains in the year 1850, arriving in Oregon in October of that year. Mr. Norton, who makes his home with his son, F. R. Norton and family, has not been able to leave the house for the past 15 months, but other than this has been in fairly good health.

He was born in Windsor, Ohio, in 1846, and was the son of Daniel Parker Norton and Jamina Jordan Norton. He had one brother, Henry, who passed away in 1882, and a sister, Electa Barneburg, who died in 1900.

When Mr. Norton was four years old the family moved to Burlington, Iowa, and later to Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, where they resided for 10 years on a farm. It was at this time that Fred and Wm. Barneburg, who had been out west, came to Mt. Pleasant and later after their marriage of the west induced the Norton family to join their caravan to Oregon.

Fred Barneburg married his sister Electa, and in April, 1860, a caravan composed of 45 wagons set out on its way westward. Mr. Norton states that their trip was not one of great danger, as the Indians were quite peaceful. Nevertheless, it was a hard and laborious journey and took six months, their caravan arriving in Oregon in October. They came by way of Salt Lake City and on July 4 they arrived two hours late to witness the unusual spectacle of Brigham Young and his 80 wives, who were on parade. They traded with the Mormons for some cattle and continued on over the Siakiyous.

His father purchased a large farm at the present site of Medford, which consisted of 300 acres. There was a nice house on the place and the entire acreage was purchased for $800.

SOUTHWEST SOLON DESERTS HOOVER, AND SCORES HIM

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 28.—(AP)—Attacking President Hoover's record in office, U. S. Senator Branson Cutting, progressive Republican of New Mexico, has announced his intention to vote for Franklin D. Roosevelt for the presidency of the United States. Senator Cutting praised Roosevelt as an "idealist who has been able to put many of his ideals into practice," and declared the Democratic presidential candidate "his own master and makes his own decisions."

The first of Senator Cutting's twin speeches, delivered here last night, was broadcast over a nation-wide hookup. Immediately afterward he attended a rally under the auspices of the National Progressive League and filled a speaking engagement for Senator George W. Norris, progressive Republican from Nebraska, who was unable to appear because of a severe cold.

Pointing out that no one supported Mr. Hoover more enthusiastically than he did four years ago, Senator Cutting said "It is not pleasant to admit political errors."

He expressed disappointment in the President's actions in the last four years and listed as the reasons for his disappointment: the cabinet selected by President Hoover, his judicial and diplomatic appointments, his attitude on the power issue, and finally, his policy relative to existing economic conditions. Senator Cutting also said "No President in history has been more amenable to dictation of party bosses and politicians have never had a more docile yes-man in the White House."

The New Mexico senator characterized the President's handling of the bonus army as "heartless" and an example of "bad faith and colossal stupidity." With a reaction which overwhelmed the administration with popular disapproval.

Referring to President Hoover's remarks on the nation's financial status as a "mass of nonsense," Senator Cutting said there was "not the slightest danger of this country going off the gold standard, and many economic authorities believe it might be a good idea if we did go off." He quoted the President as saying the balancing of the budget saved the

Trail

TRAIL, Oct. 27.—(Special)—The Home Extension unit met at the home of Mrs. Harry Merriman on Tuesday. Mrs. Mabel Mack was present. This was the first meeting this fall. New officers were elected for the coming year as follows: President, Mrs. S. W. Hutchinson; vice president, Mrs. Boyd Tucker; secretary, Mrs. Mary Sigismund. Work for the coming year was planned. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. S. W. Hutchinson on Thursday, Nov. 10. Mrs. Mack will be present to assist all with any sewing they wish to bring. Also will start some relief work so hope for a good attendance to be an all day meeting, each one to bring something for lunch. All ladies are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Payne of San Jose, Calif., who are spending a few weeks on Rogue river near Gold Hill fishing, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Millus in the Hutchinson cottage Tuesday evening.

Harry Merriman returned Tuesday from an unsuccessful hunting trip in Klamath county.

Boyd Tucker made a week-end visit to Ashland to visit his mother and other relatives.

Tracey Burk made a trip to Medford Saturday to see the doctor about her injured ankle as it isn't doing as well as she should.

S. W. Hutchinson was in town Wednesday to have some teeth extracted. Edd Pence and Wes Ragsdale are busy hauling in their winter wood. Every one is glad to know the Edd Scott's family is to have a new house. F. L. Hutchinson and family visited with the Howard Ash family Sunday.

BETTY'S HALLOWEEN DOUGHNUTS

GIVE BOB'S MOTHER A NEW IDEA!

WHERE DID YOU GET THESE GRAND DOUGHNUTS, BETTY? THEY'RE THE BEST I EVER TASTED!

I MADE THEM... MYSELF. FIRST I EVER MADE, TOO.

PRETTY SWELL, AREN'T THEY, MOTHER? I'LL HAVE ANOTHER, AND THAT MAKES FOUR!

YOU'RE A DEAR TO GIVE ME THIS DOUGHNUT RECIPE, BETTY. BUT TELL ME, WHY ARE YOU SO VERY PARTICULAR ABOUT THE KIND OF BAKING POWDER?

IT REALLY MAKES A LOT OF DIFFERENCE, MRS. HALL. EVERYTHING IS SO MUCH MORE EVEN AND SO MUCH LIGHTER WITH CALUMET. AND NEVER A FAILURE... THOUGH HONESTLY, A YEAR AGO, I DIDN'T EVEN KNOW A CAKE PAN FROM A PIE TIN! LET ME SHOW YOU HOW CALUMET WORKS!

NOTHING UP MY SLEEVE... SEE! BUT I'LL PUT 2 TSP. OF CALUMET IN THIS GLASS...

Put two level teaspoons of Calumet Baking Powder into a glass, add two teaspoons of water, stir rapidly five times and remove the spoon. The tiny, fine bubbles will rise slowly, half filling the glass. This demonstrates Calumet's first action—the action designed to begin in the mixing bowl when liquid is added.

NOW WE'LL STAND THE GLASS IN A PAN OF HOT WATER...

I MUST TRY IT. WHERE DO YOU BUY IT, BETTY?

OH, THEY HAVE CALUMET EVERYWHERE, MRS. HALL! YOU LOOK IN THE PAPER AND YOU'LL SURELY SEE A GROCER'S AD FEATURING CALUMET.

After the mixture has entirely stopped rising, stand the glass in a pan of hot water on the stove. In a moment, a second rising will start and continue until the mixture reaches the top of the glass. This demonstrates Calumet's second action—the action that Calumet holds in reserve to take place in the heat of the oven.

WHO'S A GOOD COOK? BETTY!

DOUGHNUTS

4 cups sifted flour
4 teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup milk

1 cup sugar
3 eggs, well beaten
1/2 teaspoon lemon extract
2 tablespoons melted butter
or other shortening

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, and mix together three times. Combine sugar and eggs; add lemon extract and shortening. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time. Beat after each addition until smooth. Knead lightly on slightly floured board. Roll to 1/8 inch thick. Cut with floured doughnut cutter. Fry in hot fat (385° F.), turning frequently, until a golden brown. Drain on unglazed paper. Sugar & desired. Make a dozen small doughnuts. (All measurements are level).
