

DEMOCRATS HOLD HOPE OF COUNTRY DECLARES SMITH

Al Emphatic in Boston Speech for Support of Roosevelt — Hoover and Policies Vigorously Scored

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 28.—(AP)—Massachusetts Democratic sons turned out in a cheering throng last night to hear Alfred E. Smith urge upon them the "unqualified, full and complete support of Franklin D. Roosevelt."

He called for the election of Governor Roosevelt in the opening sentences of his speech, and again, just before he closed, he said: "The salvation of the country in this crisis . . . lies in the success of the Democratic ticket under the leadership of Frank Roosevelt and John Garner."

Suspects Moses
The crowd of 15,000 in the Boston arena vigorously applauded his criticisms of President Hoover and his attacks on administration policies. It laughed as he greeted with "suspicion" the "solicitude of Senator Moses" after his (Smith's) defeat at the Chicago convention.

Smith said he felt he had come "home" to his audience was "sitting around his table," and he said he was going "to be pretty frank." "I was not satisfied with that Chicago convention," he said. "And I know that you were not satisfied with it. But listen, we'll settle these troubles in our party. We don't want any advice and, above everything else, we want no sympathy from Senator Moses or his Republican cohorts."

Points to 'Failures'
Referring to what he termed "administration failures" Smith said: "If I was to be asked tonight what in my opinion was the greatest failure of the existing administration, I would say that they left the people of this country entirely in the dark with regard to the all-important function of government—the final adjustment of our financial condition. There is no doubt that they will be able to explain it, but the explanation was not in their favor, and it was therefore withheld."

The crowd roared its mightiest as he said: "Every successful and progressive president of the United States during my time has been a former governor of a state—Cleveland, Theodore Roosevelt, Woodrow Wilson, Calvin Coolidge."

Boos for Coolidge
And even as they roared, a few boos were heard at the mention of Coolidge's name. Smith frowned and shouted:

"Can that, can that—I'm talking of successful presidents."

Of President Hoover, Smith said: "The trouble is that he lacks the power of leadership, even over the members of his own party, and what is more he lacks the power to appeal to the people themselves."

Smith spoke of the bonus army incident in Washington and said the president should have explained the situation of the finances of the country with respect to the claims the bonus army members were making.

"Instead," he said, "they (the bonus army members) were encouraged to remain in Washington until sanitary conditions became so bad they had to be driven away from Washington by armed forces of the United States and the secretary of war went out trying to explain why it should have been done."

rifles on their shoulders, held the crowd back.

Tariff Need Shown.
Robert McDougle, one of the West Virginia Republican leaders, introduced the president.

Mr. Hoover said that due to the low cost production of Japanese pottery that product was flooding into this country and hindering the domestic industry.

He asserted that "our Democratic opponents" would further lower the protective tariff.

The bituminous coal situation was discussed briefly at Athens, Ohio, by President Hoover.

The president said the bituminous coal industry had been badly crippled by intense competition from electricity and petroleum and that he had recommended to congress an investigation of means of co-operation among the mining interests so that labor would not be the fulcrum which would bear the burden.

Mrs. Hoover appeared on the rear platform with her husband and was presented with a bouquet of flowers and a box of cookies by the Girl Scouts.

Battle for America.
Mr. Hoover told a crowd at Hamden, Ohio, that their welcome was "evidence of your intentions on November 8."

"We are waging a great battle to preserve the foundations of American institutions," he said. "It is far more important than the destinies of any one man. The battle is being led by the Republican party."

College cheers for the president and then Mrs. Hoover echoed in the wake of the train, as it left Hamden behind. "The president crossed his own path for the first time at Chillicothe. Although he has stopped at a score of cities in four trips across the state, he had not previously made two appearances at any one place. Mr. Hoover made a stop at Chillicothe on his way to Detroit last week. He made no speech, however."

HELP THE RED CROSS TO HELP THE NEEDY!

The 1932 poster of the American Red Cross Roll Call for members.

EVERY year, beginning with the World War, the Red Cross has issued a poster calling attention to its roll call for membership, which is held, traditionally, from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day. Many famous artists have painted these posters. Usually they center about the figure of a Red Cross nurse, which carries sentimental recollections of her service during the war, and of her service in disasters in peace-time, as well as in the path of public health.

The poster this year is a timely reminder that the Red Cross needs help, if it is to carry on helping others. Every one who joins as a member of the Red Cross chapter in his community will be helping to help the needy.

PUTTING CONTEST AT PUBLIC LINKS SUNDAY

The Medford public golf course will stage a putting contest Sunday, giving prizes for both men and women players, according to F. W. Chaussee.

This will be a novel putting affair, as each player will shoot from four, eight, 12 and 16 feet distance, for points. The ball to sink or remain in a 12-inch circle to count for points.

Oregon Weather.
Fair tonight and Saturday, but becoming cloudy in northwest portion; little change in temperature; gentle changeable winds offshore.

VOTERS OF OREGON

KILL IT ONCE MORE!

VOTE NO

ON REFERENDUM MEASURE 307

FOR the third time the Oregon Legislature has attempted to hinder the manufacture and sale of that vital food product, oleomargarine. Twice it has been voted down by the people. This third attempt is most vicious of all.

Over ten thousand families in Oregon are receiving public relief. There are more than seventy-five thousand unemployed in the state. Remember these people and vote against the Oleomargarine Tax.

Kill it now—before it can reach its greedy fingers into your home; into every home in Oregon. Kill it, or there will be other food gouges inflicted upon you.

Go to the polls next Tuesday, November 8. Vote 307 X NO.
