

Medford Meets Klamath Tomorrow in Final Test for Grid Title

'COCKY' PELICANS DETERMINED TO SMEAR MEDFORD

Big Game of Season Will Bring Crowd of Fans From Other Side of Mountains — Juniors Play Today

The Medford high school football team will make its final bid for the southern Oregon district championship tomorrow afternoon at Van Scoyoc field when they play the Klamath Falls squad, Medford, if the victor in the battle, will have a clear title. The game will start at two o'clock.

The Pelicans, despite their 12 to 0 defeat at the hands of Grants Pass, are still cocky and confident, and just as full of state title claims as ever, and will come backed by a large crowd of fans.

The Burghermesters, for the first time this season will be able to present their full strength, and with no serious injuries. Red Schell will be in the game, and the flashy halfback will probably direct the team.

The tilt should be the best game of the season in this city, as both teams are well coached, evenly matched as to weight, and the rivalry keen. No Klamath team has ever defeated Medford on the gridiron, though there have been several close squeaks.

The locals went through their final hard practice last evening and will rest tonight and tomorrow.

"Skeets" Manerud, former University of Oregon star, will referee, with L. L. Deal of Grants Pass as umpire, and Paul Young of Ashland as head linesman.

The starting lineup of the two squads will probably be:

- Klamath Falls—C. Hammack
- Maxwell—G. Glem
- Maxwell—G. Glem
- Maxwell—G. Glem
- Maxwell—G. Glem
- Maxwell—G. Glem
- Maxwell—G. Glem

This afternoon at Van Scoyoc field, the Medford Juniors and Medford Midgets are playing the Grants Pass Juniors and Midgets.

DOVE OF PEACE COOS ON CAMPUS

EUGENE, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Harmony was pledged and unnatural rivalry was discouraged at a meeting here for the first time in the history of the chancellor of higher education, of student officials of University of Oregon, and Oregon State college.

The meeting was held Wednesday in the study of Dr. W. J. Kerr, chancellor. The students heard Chancellor Kerr's plea for greater harmony, and they agreed to cooperate with him in seeking that goal.

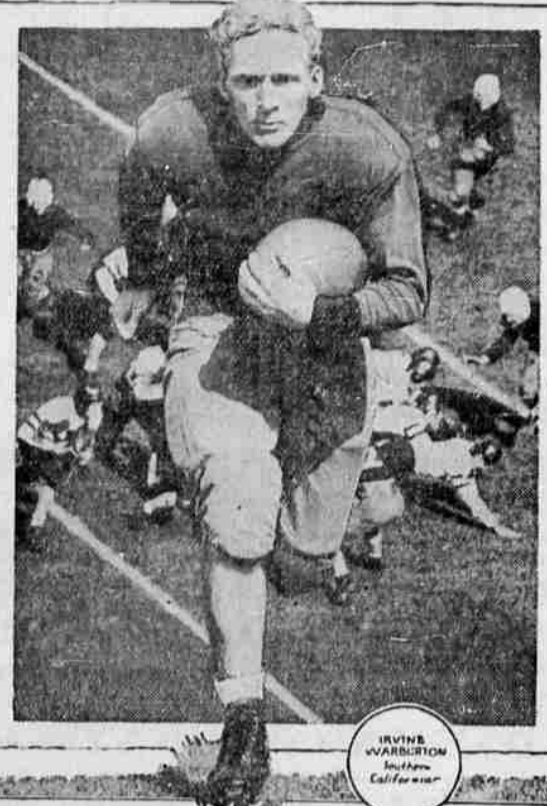

Oregon State was represented by Waldo Taylor, editor of the Daily Barometer, and Howard Douglas, associate editor, University of Oregon was represented by Robert Hall, president of the student association, and Dick Neuberger, editor of the Daily Emerald.

The four student leaders promised the chancellor to aid him in building a finer spirit between the two institutions. They will dedicate their publications and administrations, they said to this end.

Petitions Seek Stagg's Retention

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Petitions asking the retention of A. A. Stagg as head football coach at the University of Chicago, bearing more than 300 signatures, were up for consideration by President Robert Maynard Hutchins and the board of trustees today. The petitions were signed by members of the varsity and freshman football squads and various campus organizations.

CARDINALS CHOICE TO DEFEAT BRUINS IN SATURDAY TILT

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—(AP)—The undefeated record of one more Pacific coast conference football team goes on the spot this week-end as Coach Bill Spaulding's unbeaten U. C. L. Bruins tangle with "Pop" Warner's formidable, though slightly crestfallen, Cardinals of Stanford at Olympic stadium in Los Angeles Saturday.

In spite of the Bruins' clean slate, experts along the coast who are still in the experting business, after last Saturday's Stanford-U. S. C. game, venture the opinion the Cardinals will defeat their southern opponents and that, after the contest, the University of Southern California Trojans will occupy the conference top position alone.

Stanford's one defeat of the present season occurred last Saturday at the hands of the Trojans, 11 to 0.

All will be comparatively quiet along the rest of the conference front. Washington State will meet Montana at Pullman, while other conference eleven will engage teams outside the circuit.

At Berkeley University of California will meet the University of Nevada Wolves. Oregon faces a stiff tussle with the powerful Gonzaga Bulldogs at Eugene, and Washington has a "breather" in its contest with Whitman.

In a game under the lights at Corvallis tonight, the Oregon State Beavers undertake the task of subduing the President's West Coast Army eleven.

MRS. CULBERTSON LEFT IN TOURNEY

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Mrs. Ely Culbertson, only woman to win the Vanderbilt cup tournament, will lead her contract team of four tonight against the stellar combination headed by P. Hal Sims.

The field striving for the trophy that is emblematic of team supremacy in the game was cut in half to

ASHLAND NORMAL GRIDMEN INVADE LA GRANDE LAIR

Coach Hobson Taking 21 Players On Jaunt—All in Good Condition for Important Battle With Eons

SOUTHERN OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Ashland, Oct. 28.—(Spl.)—Howard Hobson, Sons football mentor, and 21 players formed the traveling squad which left Ashland last night on the Shasta bound for LaGrande to meet the Eastern Oregon Normal eleven. Coach Quinn and his boys will play host to the southerners tomorrow afternoon as the first of the annual battles to determine the normal school championship of Oregon is being staged.

Hobson, with every man of his crew in tip-top condition for the fray, is satisfied his men will put forth the best balanced offense of the season against the Eons. With new backfield and line strength found since the Pacific game in Medford two weeks ago the Sons have been driving hard in practice this week to reach mid-season form before meeting the reputedly strong easterners in this crucial conference tilt.

Although the definite starting lineup is not known yet, Hobson indicated just before he left yesterday that he would open the game with the strongest combination of power, trickery and experience that he could muster in eleven men. Hobson, after this week's scrimmages, feels he has

David Burnstine's team gained favor with kibitzers by attaining a point total for the season nearly double that of any other combination. Mrs. Culbertson's team made more than twice as many points as her husband's.

His outfit will boast of a strong forward wall both offensively and defensively. The line all season has shone up as being particularly effective, stopping all enemy attacks.

Anderson shifted him there because of his ability as a pass-receiver. He is well over six feet tall and weighs around 190 pounds. The other wingman will either be Bob Patterson, letterman, or Elton Fomcrook.

Harvey Oakes, young Portland giant, will be Balkovic's mate at tackle, with Ross Carter, another boy who weighs almost 200, ready to go in at any time to complete the strong layout at this position.

Anderson's partner at guard will be the veteran, Dwight Patterson. He is a consistent man at either guard or tackle and while he will start at his regular place he may be moved to tackle if added force is needed there. In that case Ron Green or Earl Hankins will work with Anderson.

Willard Jones, another lad hitting around 200, will be Mahoney's understudy at the middle of the line, although he also serves a dual purpose, being familiar with the end duties also.

The Sons versatile backfield will be a problem for the eastern Oregon teachers. Claude Hines, the negro

Bridge Scoring Rule Changes Known Tuesday

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Gossip is rife in bridge clubs as to the nature of changes in contract scoring which will be announced next Tuesday and go into effect at once.

The code drawn up by the Whist club of New York, the Portland club of London and the Commission Francaise du Bridge and approved by executives of leading American bridge organizations is a carefully guarded secret.

Herold S. Vanderbilt, father of the code to rules which is soon to be superseded, is credited with much of the authorship of the new code.

passing ace and brilliant broken field runner, will be a fullback. Cliff McLean, who made such an outstanding performance last week at Humboldt, can likewise run and pass. He will work at halfback, along with the plunging Powell Lancaster, dynamo of the running attack and sensational kicker. Al Bradford, who broke into the limelight in the role of leading ground gainer against the Humboldt eleven, has won himself a place on the starting outfit as quarterback.

With this group of talented backs to watch Eastern Oregon Normal is depending upon a heavy and alert defensive line for holding the Sons outside scoring distance.

Reserve backs who are making the trip are Tom McKittrick, triple threat halfback, Paul Goddard, 198-pound fullback and Jim Crockett and Ed Joanta, both quarterbacks.

BLIND BUYING

Merchants would be amazed if their patrons attempted to shop BLIND. FOLDED . . . Such a thought would be out of the question. Business men spend a lot of money to properly DISPLAY merchandise so that buyers may examine what they purchase . . . may be sure that FULL MEASURE is given . . . so they may KNOW that they are getting value received.

Audit Bureau of Circulation Ends "Buying Blind" For Advertisers

To buy ordinary "claimed" circulation is just like shopping blindfolded . . . An accurate audit of newspaper circulation is just like displaying merchandise—the merchant who advertises or the woman who places a classified ad KNOW what they are buying—there's no Guesswork! Because the Mail Tribune wants to DISPLAY ITS CIRCULATION, so that advertisers may KNOW what they are buying, this newspaper is a member of Audit Bureau of Circulation.
