

REPUBLICANS IN ROUSING MEET IN JACKSONVILLE

Meeting held at Jacksonville last evening under the auspices of the Jackson County Republican Central committee was attended by an enthusiastic audience of about 90.

The Ashland Klity band paraded the streets prior to the meeting.

Republican Precinct Committee-man H. C. Mechem introduced the Rev. Sidney Hall of Ashland, who addressed the meeting on the tariff question, comparing the standard of living in the United States with those of other countries. He also compared the records of President Hoover and the leaders of the Republican party with Franklin D. Roosevelt, Al Smith, William Randolph Hearst and Jack Nance Garner.

The second speaker introduced was Attorney Hilding Bengtson, who represented the Junior Republican league. He explained the workings of the reconstruction finance corporation, showing how it affected every man, woman and child, and saved thousands of jobs.

The third speaker introduced was Miss Regina Johnson of Ashland, representing the Hoover-Curtis Women's club of Jackson county. Her speech was enthusiastically received. Her remarks were upon the legislation sponsored by President Hoover in his 25-year plan for child welfare.

Announcement was made of future meetings sponsored by the Jackson county central committee, by Fred L. Colvig, assistant secretary. A short talk was made by Mr. McCracken of Ashland against the passage of the Zorn-MacPherson bill, and Jack Porter, chairman of the Young Republicans, spoke in favor of the bill to close the Rogue river to commercial fishing.

The next meeting to be held by the Jackson County Republican Central committee will be at Eagle Point tonight at 8 o'clock at the Grange hall.

ACTION IN KONKLE CASE RESTS WITH KLAMATH OFFICERS

Lodge Pole ranger section, lies a mile within Klamath county and, therefore, local authorities have no jurisdiction in the matter. It will be officially referred to Klamath county for future action.

The grand jury, W. T. Grieco, of Prospect, foreman, now in session, is said to have been considering evidence in the shooting of Joseph St. Germain by Reinhardt A. Rolf, for a year, a week ago in the Butte Falls district. Rolf admitted in a signed statement he fired the fatal shot.

The acts of both come under the provisions of the Oregon involuntary manslaughter law.

The present session of the grand jury is expected to last well into next week, as their investigations include the criminal cases accumulating since last April.

It is expected they will return some indictments tomorrow if the court is here to receive them.

It is said that the grand jury is inquiring into petty thieving in this section on a wholesale basis, alleged purchase by butchers of stolen cattle meat, a case of alleged non-support, and the routine grist.

DONALD HUNTRESS DIES IN PORTLAND

Word was received in Medford of the sudden death this morning of Donald Huntress of Portland, who is well known in the valley, where he had visited a number of times. Mrs. Moore Hamilton left this afternoon for Portland to be with her sister, Mrs. Huntress.

Mr. Huntress, a member of the law firm of T. J. Geisler in the northern city, was a graduate of the University of Oregon and was admitted to the Oregon state bar this fall. Besides his wife, formerly Katherine Nealon of Medford, he is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Huntress, also of Portland.

BOURBON RALLY FILLS GRANGERS' HALL AT E. P.

The Eagle Point Grange hall was filled to capacity last night for the Democratic rally, staged by candidates for county offices and Colonel F. E. Kelly, who is stumping the county in the interests of the Roosevelt-Garner ticket.

Each candidate addressed the crowd and received a hearty welcome and repeated applause followed the appeal of Colonel Kelly for support of Governor Roosevelt.

The tariff was the chief subject reviewed by Colonel Kelly, who stated that 1028 economists of note in 170 of the leading colleges and universities of the United States protested the Smoot-Hawley tariff, which was passed in spite of all opposition. Forty-five leading nations of the world and the leading newspapers of the land also opposed the tariff. Colonel Kelly told his audience. The disaster prophesied in the opposition has already resulted and is to be seen on every side, he added, referring particularly to the local fruit industry. "Canada has cut out our pears and apples in favor of the Australian cities and other British possessions. Our superior quality fruits cannot get by that barrier. The same situation is true with Great Britain, France and other countries," the speaker declared.

Colonel Kelly also outlined the costs of government, stating that they have increased since 1922 from eleven million to fifty-two million dollars in the department of commerce alone.

Another Democratic rally will be held at Central Point tonight and another at Applegate tomorrow night. In both places the meetings will be at the Grange halls and will open at 8 o'clock.

DISCOVER BODY BERRY PICKER

GRANTS PASS, Ore., Oct. 28.—(AP) Josephine county officials were advised yesterday that the body of C. A. Potter, 78, of Crescent City had been found in the deep redwood forests near Howland Hill, 10 miles from Crescent City.

Searchers were nowing their efforts to find Potter's wife. The two have been missing since last Friday when they went out to gather huckleberries. Mrs. Potter is said to have relatives living at Roseburg.

"Vote 301 No."

To the Editor:

I advise all thinking persons to vote 301 "No." The proposed constitutional amendment, if adopted, will be the entering wedge to disfranchise hard-working men and women because they may not be endowed with a certain amount of worldly wealth. The proposed law provides that a property qualification is necessary before the voter can cast his ballot on the question of levying special taxes or issuing public bonds.

Since when has poverty become a crime? Our present election laws provide that no insane or criminal person can vote. Are we going to place impoverished people in the same category? By all means vote 301 "No" and notify all your friends to do likewise. This act, in my way of thinking, is one of the most dangerous ever proposed to the electorate. Kill it.

RALPH C. CLYDE, City Commissioner, Portland, October 27.

CONTINUE SEARCH FOR PENDLETONIAN ON SLIGHT CLUES

PENDLETON, Ore., Oct. 28.—(AP) With little or no information to work on, police officers throughout the northwest were today continuing their search for Charles H. Marsh, missing Pendleton business man, and former Umatilla county judge. He dropped from sight Monday while returning from a business trip to Portland.

Marsh 54, was handling the estate of Mrs. Lina Sturgis. His associates presume he went to Portland on matters concerning that estate. He is known to have had some money with him, but friends and officials say they cannot be sure of the amount. Only a check of estate matters and a definite check on any business transactions Marsh had in Portland could clear up this question, police said.

Business associations Marsh had in Pendleton appear to have been in good order, his friends say, and the missing man was reported in excellent health and spirits prior to the trip. Rumors of murder, amnesia and flight continue to be heard while the search continued along the Columbia highway and Old Oregon Trail in an attempt to find Marsh's body or the automobile he was driving.

7000 COMMITTEE OPENS QUARTERS

The building on West Main street formerly occupied by the Model Bakery will be headquarters for the "Committee of 7000," which is working for the re-election of Sheriff Ralph Jennings, it was reported this morning. The building has been rented and will be taken over by the campaigners as soon as the church bazaar, now in session there, is completed some time tomorrow.

Placards were being completed today to adorn the headquarters, and offices of the other workers in the intensive drive. The telephone number at the headquarters will be

"7000" to comply with the committee title, so all persons interested in registering for the drive are asked to call that number, beginning Monday.
