Support of Drive For Red Cross Is Urged At Meeting

The theme of all speeches at the Allied Welfare association luncheon held at the Hotel Medford Friday was, "Give the Utmost Support to the Red Cross in its Coming Drive, November 15."

Alfred Carpenter, who has accepted the county chairmanship has his work well organized in the county district and he has appointed Rev. Wm. J. Howell, new minister of the Presbyterian church as chairman of the city of Medford. He stated that as the Kiwanis club had previously so successfully covered the business district they would again take over that part of the drive this year.

Some of the other organization representatives volunteering to help in this work were the American Legion and its Auxiliary, the Business and Professional Women, County Health Unit, Active club, Parent-Teacher groups and others.

The first group meeting was called for Monday, Oct. 31, at 2 p. m., at the Presbyterian church. Everyone who can help in this work is asked to attend the Monday meeting.

John Mann, president of the organization, introduced the speakers—first being Dr. C. I. Drummond, who told of the recent visit of Dr. Dellihunt and Dixon who examined over sixty children in this county.

Lee Whitehouse spoke for the Active club and stated that the organization was interested in recreation work and they were cooperating with scout groups.

Mrs. Fredrick Johnson, in charge of sewing for the Red Cross stated that the need was great for volunteers to help with this work, as the national Red Cross is furnishing material for clothing. She asked all patriotic church and other groups to help make these garments.

Mrs. Carter stated that there were some needy in rural communities but most cases were being helped in their own districts.

Jennings Move Is Feature
One of the political features of the past week in this section was the move by the "committee of 7000" to crystallize the sentiment for a write-in campaign for Sheriff Ralph O. Jennings. It has been a general topic of conversation. Friends of the regular Democratic and Republican nominees viewed the move, with considerable indignation and alarm.

Political interest so far in this county has centered in the presidential contests, and the local races for county judge, district attorney, and sheriff, all three offices have independent candidates against the regular nominees.

Upon one point, people of all political faiths and views agree. No one has been located, who will not "be glad when it's all over."

JOBS FOR WOMEN PART OF EFFORT NEW RELIEF SHOP

Clothing Exchange Depot Established By Local Women's Committee Enlarged to Include Employment Bureau.

An unexpected outgrowth of the establishment of the clothing relief shop here is the development of a women's employment department, according to announcement of Miss Helen J. Carlton, who is in charge of the activities which she now designates as Welfare Exchange.

A list of names of women available for all sorts of work will be kept and anyone needing work done by the hour, day or permanently, may telephone 1950 on Wednesdays and Saturdays and names and addresses of available helpers will be furnished.

Clothing Exchanged
Another outgrowth of the work of helping to supply clothing, shoes, and bedding for the unemployed who are unable to buy in the regular markets is an exchange system which is working to the advantage of many who have no money but have articles of clothing outgrown or for other reasons not of use to the owners.

Among the surprising items in the Welfare Exchange supplies are two dinner jackets and three evening suits. It is hoped by those in charge that someone who needs such garments will buy them and so make available to the committee money which will help supply practical warm clothing for those in need. A feather bed, recently contributed, will be made into pillows.

Open Wednesdays, Saturdays
The work room is open on Wednesdays and Saturdays from 9:30 a. m. to 12 and from 1 to 4 p. m. Five sewing machines are available for use here and from 6 to 8 women on these days mend, remodel, make quilts and sometimes also make new garments.

More than 300 garments have already been given out and the stock of clothing, shoes, bedding, underwear and especially children's clothes is seriously depleted.

Contributions Needed
Both Mrs. A. E. Reames, chairman of the women's division of the county relief council and Miss Carlton and her committee are hopeful that the public will respond to this need and contribute anything, no matter how worn, which will help to make possible the task of seeing that no worthy person in the county need suffer, because of insufficient clothing.

Those who have anything to give to the Welfare Exchange at this time, are asked to telephone 1950 on Wednesdays or Saturdays during the hours indicated above or telephone Mrs. David Rosenberg of the motor corp. on other week days.

A special drive for clothing will be conducted during the Red Cross campaign period next month and trucks will be sent out over the city weekly to gather up bundles, the dates to be announced later.

Card of Thanks
Ladies of the Sacred Heart church wish to extend their thanks to the sisters of St. Mary's Academy, the merchants and business people of the city and all patrons who were responsible for the success of our two-day harvest festival.

Activities of Legion Auxiliary

(By Mrs. Cole Holmes)
The American Legion Auxiliary of Post No. 15 of Medford, Oregon, met in the club rooms at the armory, Monday evening, October 24, at 8 o'clock. The members voted to send magazine subscriptions to Portland veteran hospital No. 77 and to continue sending our "check a month" to the hospital. Mrs. Elizabeth Fuhrer had received a letter from the hospital chairman thanking us for our past good work and check. The hospital committee will notify us when work for the hospital is needed.

The first sewing club will be held on Monday evening, November 7, at 7:30 at the welfare rooms on the third floor of the Medford National bank building. The auxiliary bank voted to help the Red Cross make anything that is needed in caring for the needy of Jackson county. Members are asked to come and enjoy a pleasant evening while doing their "bit" toward helping others.

Dues for 1933 are payable now. They are a little less than they were a year ago. Do not wait for someone to call on you. Help the membership committee. The committee chairman for membership is Mrs. Beva Aiken. (Phone 441-M).

The semi-annual vesper service will be held in the Presbyterian church Sunday, November 6, at 4 p. m. All members are requested to reserve that afternoon and meet at the church to spend a few minutes in honor of our departed.

The children of the Legion and Auxiliary are to meet again this Armistice day. There is to be a junior parade. Mrs. Edward Leach is chairman and you will hear more of this event later.

The Armistice Day luncheon for Auxiliary members will be held at the Hotel Medford. Mrs. Gladys Watson is in charge of the luncheon. Details of this event will be announced next Sunday.

All members are requested to march in the parade on Armistice day. Let us show the "Legion boys" that we are not afraid to walk. We should have the largest representation in line.

Mrs. Beva Aiken won the "Lark" Monday evening.

"Banking Hours"

-- a look behind the scenes

Before the curtain goes up in the morning and after it falls in the afternoon, a tremendous amount of routine work must be accomplished by the bank in the interests of its customers.

Before opening the doors, the wheels must be set in motion to handle innumerable transactions during that day. After closing, all those transactions must be reconciled, deposits credited, withdrawals debited, transfers made, cash and currency checked and the books of the bank balanced regardless of the time required.

Doesn't a new value occur in respect to banking operation when one gets the picture from the inside as well as the outside? A good average working-day is given over to taking in and handing out money, affording consultation, making loans, effecting collections—and then another working day of routine remains to be done.
