ADVENTISTS SALE TO HELP MISSION FUNDS

The annual Harvest Ingathering sale of the Seventh Day Adventist church will be conducted next Wednesday and Thursday at the old Model Bakery building on West Main street. The sale marks the close of an interesting campaign for missions, both home and foreign, which the church sponsors each year.

Roy E. Hay, district pastor, says 32,594 needy persons were given help last year by the church's welfare organization in Oregon and over 22,000 articles of clothing were given away in the nearly 25,000 welfare calls made in this territory.
