Vaudeville Tonite On Stage at Holly Has Clever Stunts

The stage is all set for another of the big vaudeville bills at the Holly. This bill promises to be one of the best presented so far as it presents acts that have been proven a sensation wherever they have shown. Seymour and Cornob, two Hollywood "Sheiks" will present the same act that has caused riots of laughter everywhere they have appeared. Jack and Betty Cavanaugh, another sensational act, will also appear on this bill. This act presents some novel roping and wild west stuff and employs the use of two trained dogs. Jimmy Dunn and Mable present a whirlwind of music, comedy and dancing that is certain to please everyone. Ken Ross has a sensational act and balancing act and the Musical Sweethearts furnish music for the entire bill.

The screen bill will present a variety program headlined by the Carveth Wells subject, Hell Below Zero, which was taken on the Mountain of the Moon in Equatorial Africa. It is said, and proven by this picture that on this mountain one is likely to be struck with sunstroke and be frozen to death at the same time. Carveth Wells is well known for his explorations and this record of his trip is most unusual. "I saw this subject in the Paramount theater in Portland a short time ago, John Niedermeyer, manager of the Holly said today and was so impressed by it that I wanted my Medford friends to have the opportunity to see it too. It is the first time that I have ever heard a metropolitan audience actually applaud a movie loose on this one."

TURKEY RATES TO CALIFORNIA CUT

ROSEBURG, Ore., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Reduced rates on turkey shipments from southern Oregon shipping points to California markets have been granted by the Southern Pacific railway company, according to word received today by McKinley Huntington, president and manager of the Oregon Turkey Growers association. The reductions follow prolonged negotiations.

The rate from Roseburg to San Francisco, under the new schedule, will be 87 cents, as compared with a previous rate of $1.20 per hundred pounds, while the rate from Roseburg to Los Angeles is being cut from $1.57 to $1.17. These new rates, Huntington states, will put Oregon growers on a shipping parity with producers of Utah and Nevada as to California destinations.

T. B. CLINIC HELD AT COURT HOUSE

The County Health association, with Dr. G. C. Bellinger of the State Tuberculosis hospital in attendance, is conducting a clinic today for tubercular contact cases, in the Alex Sparrow Memorial ward, in the courthouse. County Physician C. I. Drummond and Dr. B. C. Wilson are assisting. A large number of cases were given observation.

Two cases of diphtheria have been reported from the Prospect district. Tuesday all school children in that section were given tests as a preventive measure.

Famous Novel Will Appear Fox Rialto

So much has been written and read about "All Quiet on the Western Front" at the Rialto theater tomorrow, that anything one might say now is almost a waste of words. The many thousands who have already seen the picture, admit its superiority over anything that has been written in war stories.

"The Office Girl," a bright, sparkling musical comedy romance, shows for the last times tonight.

Sues Comedian

Edna Wheaton (above), former Follie girl, testified in Los Angeles court that there was nothing funny about the home life of her husband, Bert Gordon, stage comedian. She asked $500 a month pending suit for separate maintenance, but won only $75 a week. (Associated Press Photo)

DEEP SNOW CLOGS CASCADE PASSES

SEATTLE, Nov. 2.—(AP)—With drifts averaging two feet deep already clogging two passes, snow continued to fall in the Cascade mountains today despite warmer temperatures.

Both Stevens and Naches passes were reported under two feet of snow and Washington automobile club officials advised motorists not to attempt a passage over them.

The club officials said no effort would be made to keep Naches Pass leading from Sunrise Park at Mount Rainier to eastern Washington points, open for the remainder of the winter season.
