HOOVER, CODDING, GATES, JENNINGS WIN STRAW VOTE

President Hoover, C. E. Gates, Sheriff Ralph Jennings and George Codding, district attorney, were popular nominees in the straw vote taken today noon at the luncheon of the Rogue River Traffic association, held at the Hotel Jackson.

Ten voters participated and nine votes were given Hoover with one going to Roosevelt. Gates, as nominee for county judge, received 10 votes, the other candidates for the office polling none. The same situation was repeated in the race for sheriff, 10 votes going to Sheriff Jennings, the write-in candidate. His opponents got none. George Codding, incumbent, also received all the votes given to the district attorneyship.

Three bills were included on the ballot and all voters favored both the Rogue river closing and the truck and bus bill. The vote was divided on the Zorn-Macpherson measure with four affirmative votes and five negative.

Report on this year's fruit crop was made at the luncheon, showing a total for pears and apples of 3149 carloads shipped and in storage. The report included all pears and apples in the district from Grants Pass to Ashland with the exception of the slight movement by truck, which has not been checked.

JUNIORS TO PLAY GLENDALE FRIDAY VAN SCOYOC FIELD

By Dean Pieper.

Beginning at 2:30 Friday, at Van Scoyoc field, the junior high football squad will play Glendale Hi in the deciding game of the year. Judging from rumors preceding them, Glendale, with its extra heavy lineup is ready to give the Bulldogs a hard battle.

Coach Ray Henderson states that although his team is pleased with the success of previous games, they realize they will have to fight for victory.

This season, Junior High has won the 1932 conference by defeating Grants Pass in two games. Ashland, by failing to put a team in the field, forfeits her chance. Glendale is not in the southern Oregon conference, but has an annual game with Junior high.

The probable starting lineup will be:

APPLEGATE RALLY FOR REPUBLICANS ONE OF BEST HELD

One of the most enthusiastic crowds that has assembled during the campaign in this county, met at the Grange hall at Applegate Wednesday evening. The meeting was sponsored by the Jackson County Republican Central committee and Precinct Committeeman A. S. Edwards presided as chairman.

Attorney Frank Van Dyke representing the Junior Republican league, made a rousing appeal to the voters to keep President Herbert Hoover on the job.

The second speaker, Ralph Cowgill, in his remarks exploded the propaganda, which he said local democratic war horses are spreading around the county in regard to refunds received by Andrew Mellon, Ogden Mills and other republican leaders, who subscribed large sums to the republican campaign fund. The speaker showed where Raskob, the democratic leader, received refunds amounting to $6,234,845, and is financing the democratic campaign with $612,0000. Also Franklin D. Roosevelt received in refunds $46,000 and is putting up several thousand dollars, also the same is true of John W. Davis and several other democratic leaders.

Announcement was made by Fred L. Colvig, assistant secretary, of the meetings at Wimer, Nov. 2nd and at Butte Falls, Nov. 4th and of the big Republican rally at the Natatorium in Medford, on Nov. 4. Radio speeches the night before election, 8 to 8:30 p. m., will close the campaign. The Oregon Lumber Jacks will furnish music.

THE OREGON PLAN

of Tax and Debt Control

Extending to every county the system of tax supervision and conservation that has been in operation in Multnomah county and has saved taxpayers there more than $7,500,000 during the last 11 years.

It provides for review of all local tax budgets by a local, non-salaried board of citizens and taxpayers; it will insure safe and sane regulation of public expenditures, without abrogating the principle of home rule; it will not disturb the six percent tax limitation nor any debt restriction now fixed by constitutional provision, but will establish more effective tax and debt control than these so-called limitations have actually provided.
