

REPUBLICAN RALLY TONIGHT TO DRAW GREATEST THROG

Mr. Pitts will be the speaker at the closing Republican rally tonight at 8 o'clock in the Natatorium, and from all reports of his meetings, his success as district attorney in Los Angeles and his ability as a speaker, all who attend the meeting will be well repaid for their time.

The Veterans' Republican club will have charge of the meeting, assisted by the Republican central committee, the Junior Republican League and the Woman's Hoover-Curtis club, and a number of people will attend from all over the county.

Buron Pitts, who speaks at a Republican meeting in the Natatorium this evening at 8 o'clock, arrived this morning from Eugene, where he addressed a large meeting last evening, and was met at the station by several world war veterans who showed him over the city and valley and he was a guest at luncheon. Mr. Pitts is a disabled war veteran.

Mr. Pitts spoke for half an hour before the meeting, reviewing briefly the issues before the people in this election and giving his reasons why Herbert Hoover should be re-elected.

Young men and women, irrespectively of party, and especially those who are voting for president for the first time this year, and the women who, it is claimed, elected President Hoover last time, are especially invited to hear this successful young man.

Music will be furnished by the Oregon Lumberjacks.

There will also be a Republican meeting at Butte Falls tonight with two good speakers and the Kelly band will furnish music and the candidates will attend.

MANY GARDENS MADE POSSIBLE BY RED CROSS

In answer to many appeals for garden seed from residents of Jackson county who could not afford to purchase them, the local Red Cross secured from National Red Cross headquarters 300 pounds of seed, comprising 19 varieties of vegetables. This was distributed to more than 100 needy families.

Miss Roberts has seen many of the completed gardens in her visits about the county and reports that they have not only supplied families with vegetables for several months but furnished a surplus to be utilized for winter. Looking to the future, many of the recipients of Red Cross seeds are saving the seed from this year's garden for planting next spring.

Several individuals who had received Red Cross aid in 1931, in gratitude brought cabbage and tomato plants to the Red Cross headquarters to be passed on to others in need.

Opposes Two Measures.
To the Editor:
In the excitement of the election, two measures of extreme importance on the ballot may be overlooked or misinterpreted by many people. I refer to the proposed amendment limiting voting on tax matters and bond issues to taxpayers, and to the so-called "tax supervision and conservation" bill.

It is unthinkable that American people would now be called upon to say that some degree of wealth is essential to the voting privilege, a privilege this country is supposed to accord free men and women.

The first measure is ridiculous in practice, as well as vicious and even malicious in conception.

The measure disfranchises many intelligent women who have not taken the trouble to have property placed in their names; it would disfranchise many capable and worthy citizens who earn good money in salaries, but who for sufficient reasons have not invested in property, but who always vote conscientiously and intelligently. It would disfranchise many men and women who work for wages, but who can vote as intelligently as the wealthiest men in the state. It would disfranchise many splendid young men and women just starting out in life, who have not yet acquired property, but who might, through their industry, acquire much property before the bond issues which they could not vote upon could be paid. Aside from all this, it is wrong and stupid to start with.

The other measure has an engaging name, but nothing else to recommend it. If there is anything that is typical of political life in America, it has been the fundamental principle that local self-government is desirable, and is one of the primary objects of a Democratic, or if you will, Republican form of government.

The assumption that the citizens of Oregon will vote to disfranchise themselves completely on local taxation, and submit this really important power to the arbitrary decision of some unknown three men in each county, selected at the whim and caprice of the governor, is one of the most amazing propositions the writer of this letter has had to face in his political experience.

In practice, the citizens in any town, city, school district, county, would not have a word to say, in fact, about their local expenditures. All this is made subject to the arbitrary decision of three men who could not possibly be familiar with the needs of all these corporations, and who could not stay any, and should not have the power to say, what the people need and are willing to pay for.

Each proposal is an offense to every citizen of the state.

Young People To Lead Church Night

It will be young people's night at the special meeting at the Baptist church tonight. D. L. Penhollow will sing a group of three religious songs at 7:15 p. m., and will lead the big sing afterward. Dr. Eaton's subject for tonight will be "Magic." The intermediate and junior B. Y. F. U. are urged to bring their parents and the seniors to bring their friends. There will be no service on Saturday night.

Rev. D. L. Penhollow will preach the sermon Sunday morning and we bespeak for him a good congregation. Dr. Eaton's subject for the evening sermon will be "Why." Everybody try to be present Sunday and make the last services of the revival helpful and successful.
