

G. O. P. MEETINGS CONTINUE DRAW LARGE THROGHS

The Republican County Central committee meetings continue to draw packed houses as the campaign nears its close. Last night at Wimer every seat in the hall was occupied.

The meeting was called to order by Precinct Committeeman Ed Dimmick, who introduced, as the first speaker Attorney Frank VanDyke, representing the Junior Republican League. Mr. VanDyke in his usual forceful manner, appealed to the voters from a broad and better standpoint, to retain the Republican party in power, the party that stands for a protective tariff on things that are produced in the Rogue River valley.

Ralph Cowgill, the second speaker introduced, told the voters that on next Tuesday, November 8, we will be standing at the cross roads and that it is up to the voters as to which road we will take for the next four years. One road, under the direction of President Hoover, leads straight ahead while the other leads off at right angles, directed by Franklin D. Roosevelt, out into the great unknown.

The candidates on the Republican ticket were introduced and short talks were made by each.

Announcement was made in regard to the rally tonight in the Matatorium at Medford, with Buron Pitts as the speaker.

WILSON'S FRIENDS BACKING ELECTION

Friends of E. M. Wilson have organized a Wilson for Mayor club to E. M. Wilson further his candidacy for re-election to the office of mayor of this city.

G. Q. D'Albini is secretary of the new club which is sponsoring a campaign in behalf of Mr. Wilson.

The purpose of the formation of Wilson for Mayor club is to call the voters' attention to Mr. Wilson's qualifications for the office of mayor. During the past two-year term, E. M. Wilson's administration has established a record of economy and efficiency that has gratified the taxpayers who have investigated the affairs of the city, in the opinion of the members of the Wilson for Mayor club. It is with the idea of emphasizing this fine record and calling the voters' attention to Mr. Wilson's qualifications that the local Wilson club has been formed.

Among the points recommending E. M. Wilson to re-election to the office of mayor for another two-year term is the fact that his administration's expenditures during his term are considerably below the amount allowed by the budget, according to members of the Wilson for Mayor club.

HEALTH WORKERS TALK SEAL SALE HERE WEDNESDAY

County chairmen of the Christmas Seal sale project, carried on in Jackson county each year in the drive to prevent spread of tuberculosis, will meet next Wednesday afternoon with Miss Mildred Carlton, president of the Jackson County Public Health Association, it was announced today. Definite plans will be made for the annual drive.

The announcement comes at an appropriate time, following closely news of the tuberculosis clinic conducted Wednesday by Dr. G. C. Bellinger under the auspices of the Public Health Association and the Jackson County Medical Society. These clinics are financed by funds realized from the seal sales and are each year attended by a larger number of persons in Medford. Thirty-five were examined at the one-day clinic this year, some being contact cases and others persons recovering from tuberculosis.

The annual sale of seals will start this year the day after Thanksgiving.

BARNUM CANNOT PAY, HE ASSERTS

George Barnum of this city, defendant in a divorce suit instituted by his wife, today filed a motion in circuit court, asking that he be granted until Monday to show cause why he should not pay the $100 per month maintenance money. Barnum asks that he be not held in contempt of court by reason of non-payment. He further sets forth that he has been unable to raise the money, and asks the right to show cause why he cannot make the payment. Barnum also states that he will seek a reduction of the maintenance allowance.

Barnum seeks delay in the hearing of the motion upon the grounds that his attorney, A. E. Reames, is appearing before the state supreme court at Salem this week end and will not return until Monday.

NAVY GRIDDERS RECOGNIZE JINX

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 4.—(AP)—The secret is out and the Naval academy students explain why Navy could not get better than a scoreless tie with Princeton a couple of weeks ago.

Baltimore has been the jinx for the middies. The regiment considers the city so ill-omened that whenever the midshipmen pass through the city on trains bound for other stadia, they pull down the window shades until they are safely out of town.

Some of the cars of the train carrying the regiment to Princeton were dark, their shades down tight, but in a few, the middies were neglectful and went through Baltimore with shades up.

In the future, the middies say, every one of the shades will go banging down in Baltimore.
