In Final Hours
The heaviest woman vote in the history of the county will be recorded. A total of 19,139 voters are registered. One-third of these are in the 13 Medford precincts, and half the total vote rests in Medford and Ashland.

All candidates were busy today getting their final locks, and this evening many will make final appeals over the radio. Many rural residents came to the city today, and an air of excitement prevailed on the streets.

Public offices and banks will be closed tomorrow, and there will be a general suspension of business. Local interest centered chiefly in the race for county judge, district attorney and sheriff and the presidential contest.

Double counting boards will function in the largest precincts of Medford and Ashland, Central Point, Jacksonville, Phoenix, Talent, Perrydale and Eagle Point. The bulk of the vote lies in these precincts. National returns will start to trickle in about 5 o'clock.

There are 58 precincts in the county. The election officials, in every instance, comprise a member of opposite political faiths. One report today claimed all election officials were Republicans, and another that all were Democrats. It was just another one of those things!

PHYSICIANS AND PRODUCERS FOR CITY'S MILK LAW

Because of the alleged fact that the Medford milk ordinance has become an issue in the campaign for the office of mayor of Medford, the supporters of E. M. Wilson, candidate for re-election, are reviewing the enthusiastic endorsements given this ordinance by the physicians and the producers of this locality.

Mr. Wilson, according to his friends, is the only candidate who is pledged to strictly enforce this ordinance. The physicians and producers signed endorsements of the present milk ordinance follows:

We, the undersigned, members of the medical profession in Medford, feel that the standard milk ordinance as adopted and enforced is of great benefit to the health and well being of the citizens of this city and that any attempt to repeal or lessen benefits of this ordinance would reflect unfavorably to the health of the people of Medford.

The Republican County Central committee closes its campaign tonight with short talks over the radio and predicts that Hoover and the state, congressional and county republican tickets will carry Jackson county, that Hoover will carry Oregon by a good majority and that he will be re-elected.

The committee bases its views on the belief that the people of the state and nation realize the re-election of Hoover means the continuation of a sound, stable government, the continuance of the present upward tendency in business and will inspire general confidence.

Another reason the committee believes that Hoover will be re-elected is the fact that the women of this county and state and all over the country—the silent voters—were for Hoover before and are for him this time.

The committee also calls special attention to the county ticket which they claim as one of the best nominated for years and asks that republicans stand by their ticket.

Tonight from 7 to 7:15 Everett Beeson, for sheriff, talks over KMEM. Wm. Biggs, candidate for district attorney talks from 7:15 to 7:30. Between 8:00 and 8:30 p. m., Chairman Frank Farrell of the committee will make a short talk followed by Ralph Cowgill, president of the Veterans Republican club who will speak for representatives, E. B. Day and Geo. Porter. Geo. Carier, candidate for county clerk, W. E. Coleman, candidate for justice of the peace, and other republican county candidates.

The headquarters on West Main street, opposite the First National bank, will be open all day tomorrow and will furnish transportation to all who are unable to get down town to vote. Phone 64 and a comfortable auto will be sent for you.

GIRL WITH DAD, NOT 'KIDNAPED'

Following a report at the city police station Saturday evening that Betty Jane Burdell, 5, was "kidnaped" by her father and taken to the Adam L. Wilkinson residence next door, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson reported this morning that the child had returned to their home, but that Mr. Burdell of Grants Pass, Betty Jane's father, had made his regular weekly call for his daughter.

VOTING MILLIONS RELAX AS BATTLE OF BALLOTS NEAR

Norman Thomas: "The vote will go down in history as marking the first great definite trend to Socialism in this country."

Vice President Curtis: "Everything is fine. We'll carry the country." Speaker Garner: "The people of the country long since made up their minds for a change in administration. President Hoover and his followers are defeated."

Chairman Sanders: "President Hoover will be re-elected by a minimum of 338 electoral votes." Chairman Farley: "I predict a great and triumphant victory. Roosevelt's popular majority will be 10,000,000 votes."

Secretary Mills: "I believe President Hoover will win." Alfred E. Smith: "The American people will relieve the Republicans of their stewardship and place it in the capable hands of Roosevelt and Garner."

With a prediction of his own, or at least a hope that he is right, the voter will mark his ballot tomorrow not only for president and vice-president, but for United States senator in 33 states, for members of the national house of representatives in every state except Maine, which elected three on September 12, for governor in 34 states and for other state officers in 39 commonwealths.

A popular plurality does not necessarily elect a president. A majority of the electoral votes, 266 out of the total of 531, is required.

STUDY CLUB MEETING POSTPONED 2 WEEKS

Due to tomorrow being election day, the study club of the Y. W. C. A. will not meet at 7:30, as previously announced, but the gathering will be conducted November 22, instead, according to Miss Laura Drury.

The music appreciation class meets on the first and third Tuesdays in each month, instead of the second and fourth, as appeared in the paper Sunday.

PARTY ASSUMING AMERICANS DUMB AVERS CANDIDATE

The first in 30 years "which has won for you the consideration of this question by the nations of the world."

Urges Smoot Re-election.
With Senator Smoot of Utah close beside him, the president urged his re-election. He declared the Republican party favored "immediate relief to the sugar beet growers."

Applause echoed and re-echoed against the dome-like ceiling of the tabernacle when the president and Mrs. Hoover, accompanied by Senator and Mrs. Smoot took their place on the terraced pulpit.

Finally, the chief executive held up his hand for silence. The applause for the presidential party had started even before Mr. Hoover's train reached Salt Lake City in the form of blowing steam whistles. There were bursts of handclapping when the party rode through the streets, which were draped overhead with flags. A squad of uniformed troops was drawn up in front of the tabernacle and a military band played the national anthem as the president stepped from his car.

Inside a large American flag was draped down the front of the big pipe organ behind the pulpit.

"Next President!"
The Rt. Rev. Arthur W. Moulton, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Utah, delivered the invocation, and the Mormon choir sang, before Senator Smoot introduced the chief executive confining his remarks to the words:

"I present to you the present president and the next president of the United States."

Some difficulty was experienced with the loud speaker arrangement and after several cries from the audience:

PUBLICITY DRIVE FOR LOCAL AREA CHAMBER'S PLAN

Plans for a great publicity campaign for Medford, Jacksonville and other southern Oregon cities were discussed today at a meeting of the publicity committee of the Medford Chamber of Commerce, according to C. L. MacDonald, head of the publicity group. The plans cover the major activities of the publicity committee over a period of the next 18 months, and are the most comprehensive and extensive of any campaign launched in Medford in many years.

Due to the nature of the proposed campaign, details cannot be divulged until after the board of directors of the chamber has acted upon the recommendations of the committee, but members of the committee, when interviewed this afternoon, stated that the project suggested at today's meeting holds untold publicity value for Medford and southern Oregon, and is certain to merit and receive the support of all citizens of this section.

The proposal will be presented to the directorate at its earliest meeting, and if approved, definite steps will be taken immediately to carry into effect the details of the project. Included in the personnel of the publicity committee present at today's meeting were C. L. MacDonald, W. A. Gates, Clyde Eakin, A. H. Banwell, J. Verne Shangle and H. L. Bromley.

When needing duplicating sales books, flat-packs or fan-fold cash register forms, ledger sheets for bookkeeping machines or any other kind of printing, don't order from out-of-town firms and pay more. Phone 75 and one of our representatives will call.
