A TRUTHFUL LETTER FROM GOLD BEACH

FOR A CLOSED RIVER NOW.

Gold Beach Business Men Here Reported as Rating the Tourist Value as the Highest.
Gold Beach, Oct. 27.—To the Editor of the Journal—Gold Beach business men, for years leaders in the movement to keep the Rogue river open to commercial fishermen, are ready to vote and to campaign for a closed river. Two years ago every business man but one signed the petition for an open river. Now all but one or two of that same group are in favor of a closed river. We figure that every fish caught in the Rogue by sportsmen is worth $10 to Gold Beach. This year, with canneries paying only a cent and a half a pound for fish, many of the commercial fishermen didn't make a living. Figures given out by the cannery show the average fisherman made only $33.20 a month. And of the 114 men on the river this year during the commercial fishing season only 34 were Gold Beach fishermen. By closing the Rogue to commercial fishing Gold Beach hopes to win the year-round reputation as a fisherman's paradise. WILLIAM E. BEAN,

President, Gold Beach Chamber of Commerce.

(Taken from the Portland, Oregon, Journal, Nov. 2, 1932).

The following excerpt from a letter from Henry O'Malley, Commissioner of the United States Bureau of Fisheries, constitutes a conclusive argument in favor of the passage of the Rogue River Fish Bill:

"I strongly feel that the Rogue river, as well as the other salmon rivers in Oregon, should be closed to commercial fishing if it is hoped to maintain the rivers in any-where near their original productivity. These rivers are not unlike the rivers in Alaska and we do not permit any fishing in any of our rivers in the north. In fact, some of them are closed a mile or more outside their mouths. I believe that the fish in the rivers should be left there to reproduce their species. This would give the steelhead trout, which is largely a game fish, an opportunity to perpetuate itself and furnish sport and food for the people of Oregon and the thousands of tourists who are now seeking the great out-of-doors. These tourists will prove to be one of the valuable assets of the state of Oregon."
