Published by MEDFORD PRINTING CO. 21-27-29 S. W. 11th Street Phone 76

For Newcomers Only!

If you are NOT a newcomer to this little valley of ours don't waste your time reading this. You already know this political campaign is ending just as all other local political campaigns have ended these many years...

You don't need to be told these charges are false. You do not need to be told they are fundamentally the SAME CHARGES he has made against this newspaper and his rival candidates, since Hector was a pup. You know all that.

BUT there ARE those newcomers—those new voters. And they don't realize these last minute charges, innuendoes and insinuations, are as false as dice's oaths...

So the last day before election, the Mail Tribune is forced, as it has been forced in practically every local election, for twenty years, to refute these 11th hour charges...

As usual the Mail Tribune is accused of being a member of the plunderbund that has had its hand in the public treasury all these years—when Fehl ran for Mayor it was the CITY treasury...

But it's the same old Fehl wheeze on the same old "down with the gang" record. And for the same old purpose, getting Earl a job at the expense of the taxpayers.

NOW to knock these charges into oblivion, as we have knocked them so many times before, only to have them bob up like the proverbial nine-lived cat at the next election.

During all this time the Mail Tribune has, campaign after campaign, challenged Mr. Fehl and his various mud-slinging spokesmen to make just one DEFINITE CHARGE of wrongdoing, against this newspaper or any of his competing candidates...

That was only a few months ago—May, 1932. Unfortunately grand jury proceedings are secret and can't be made public, but this can be said, and neither Mr. Fehl nor any of his apologists dare deny it.

AFTER a thorough investigation, that grand jury was unable to find the slightest evidence to support any of these criminal charges, no charges against this newspaper were even presented—the grand jury repudiated Fehl and his newspaper, and every mudslinger in the primary campaign...

WHAT did the Fehl forces do? Accept that verdict, as law abiding and right thinking citizens should. NOT AT ALL! They turned their viols of hatred, calumny and abuse upon the members of that grand jury, branded them either as crooks, false to their oath, or spineless tools of a dishonest and corrupt District Attorney...

SO there you are, Mr. Newcomer. And there are the charges. It must be as plain to you, as it is to everyone who has listened to the same charges these many years...

BECAUSE THOSE MAKING THEM KNOW THEY ARE FALSE, KNOW THEY ARE MERELY MOLASSES TO CATCH FLIES, KNOW THAT IF CALLED FOR A SHOWDOWN, THEY WOULD BE REPUDIATED AND THROWN OUT OF COURT, AS THEY WERE IN THE ONE INSTANCE CITED, AND THEIR EFFORTS TO GAIN PUBLIC OFFICE IN THIS CONTEMPTIBLE, UNDERHANDED FASHION, WOULD BE ENDED FOR ALL TIME.

SO much for these charges. Now one word more. If you like this sort of thing, if you want it continued, if you believe it is good for this community and the people in it, for your business and theirs, don't let us keep you from voting for these three musketeers or "Must get theirs," as they seem to prefer—Messrs. Fehl, Wilkins and Zundel.

They are united under one paramount issue alone, the recall of Judge H. D. Norton. A vote for them or any one of them, means an endorsement of this mud slinging, a public demand for this recall—which will have to be held at a special election, at added expense to the taxpayers, and will keep this community disrupted and embroiled for an indefinite period in the future.

BUT IF YOU DON'T LIKE IT,—if you are sick of it,—sick of the whole political snake dance—if you want to end it as far as possible for all time, then don't vote for them, and CONCENTRATE UPON THE CANDIDATES BEST QUALIFIED TO DEFEAT THEM.

If you don't wish to give over the management of Jackson County to Earl Fehl for six years, don't wish to have him, preside over the juvenile court and act as moral guide for your boys and girls; if you don't wish him to decide the fate of your estate, as probate judge, when you depart:

If you Don't wish M. O. Wilkins to handle the legal affairs of this county, under "Judge" Fehl; or Zundel to be responsible for the collection of taxes and the enforcement of law, under the same authority, then vote this triumvirate down, bury it so deep it can never be resurrected again, by voting AGAINST THEM.

THAT'S ALL. The campaign is over. We can do no more. Candidates can do no more. The radio—thank the Lord—can do no more. The decision is up to you and you and you—and you ALONE.

Tomorrow as you enter the voting booth, YOU are supreme, YOU hold the destiny of this community and the country in your hands. Vote for what you want, vote for what you believe in, and don't forget:

You will get in this election as in every other, JUST WHAT YOU VOTE FOR!

Keep Mose Alford on the Job

A FRIEND of Mose Alford, City Recorder, asks why we have not endorsed him, and reminds us that his defeat, under present conditions, might mean a public and personal tragedy.

We frankly admit we didn't suppose a public endorsement was necessary. Mr. Alford has held this position so long, through so many administrations given such capable and conscientious service, is so familiar with all the intricacies of that office, that we took his election for granted.

Perhaps we were too sanguine. If so we regret it very much. But all we can do at this late date is to give him this paper's hearty endorsement, and for the reasons above stated, urge our readers to give him the support he so thoroughly deserves.

We have never urged support of a public official on the plea of sympathy,—that he needs the job. That is true in the case of Mr. Alford, but it is not our reason for supporting him. We urge his re-election because the job, and the city of Medford need him.

Vote for the Fish Bill

THE Rogue River Fish Bill should get a vote in Jackson county, unanimously IN ITS FAVOR.

Its passage has been endorsed by the highest and most impartial fish authority in the county, Henry O'Malley, U. S. Commissioner of the bureau of fisheries.

Even the Gold Beach chamber of commerce, which bitterly opposed the measure in the past, favors the bill because it has found game fishing is more profitable to that community than commercial fishing.

The bill's passage will bring thousands of tourists to Southern Oregon and keep scores of country homes on the river, which might be closed, if the bill fails.

The amount of labor eliminated by the bill's passage would not equal by a thousand percent the amount of labor eliminated by its FAILURE—in the way of new river building, guides, etc., etc., etc.—all cash customers for Southern Oregon.

So vote 306 YES, and get everyone you know to do likewise.

Communications

Dairy Meeting Called. To the Editor: The Rogue River Valley Dairy Association voices its appeal to all dairymen, farmers or any who ever intend to sell a pound of butter urging them to attend the Dairy association regular monthly meeting to be held at the court house, Medford, Ore., on Wednesday evening, November 9 at 8 p. m.

Now Bro. Dairymen, Farmer and Granger if you have the backbone of a jelly fish or a spark of honesty left in your system, you will be at the Dairy association meeting to voice your protest against one of the most vicious pieces of propaganda ever sponsored against an honest, hard-working class of citizens and against one of the leading industries in the state of Oregon.

We also request every publishing company that carries this advertisement of propaganda to have a reporter at this meeting, for they will get an ear full. These reporters will be asked to explain why their companies are helping to sponsor a campaign of misleading propaganda to sell out one of the most honorable leading industries in the state of Oregon or the world over.

Just because a rich tropical oil corporation has far more money than the poor honest hard-working dairy farmer.

Personal Health Service

By William Brady, M. D. Signed letters pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Letters should be brief and written in ink. Owing to the large number of letters received only a few can be answered here. No reply can be made to queries not conforming to instructions. Address Dr. William Brady in care of The Mail Tribune.

JUST ONE OR TWO DRINKS. Every little while we hear of some woman who has taken just one little drink. The courage, confidence, geniality and loquacity that come to the timid, cold or retiring person who resorts to a little drink or two when there is any occasion to be met, are likewise due to benumbing of the higher brain centers so that the intoxicated one is for the time being not so well aware of his own limitations. He or she becomes less concerned about making a show of themselves. The normal self-control gives way, judgment is not so keen, and a lighter restraint is kept on lower instincts or impulses.

It is necessary to take into consideration this deceptive effect of alcohol whenever one quarrels over the wet and dry issue. If the individual who favors "light wine and beer" has had a drink or two within an hour or two, it is just as well to change to the prospect of getting over the depression.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS. The Fallen Stomach. I've been wearing a surgical girdle supposedly to hold up a fallen stomach. I'm going to junk it and would like a set of exercises to strengthen the abdominal muscles—Mrs. L. C. Answer—Try to accumulate more fat. Practice belly breathing. Do some somersaults daily. Lie supine and raise legs to vertical and lower slowly, three times at first, increase one time daily till you can do ten times 20 times night and morning without fatigue. Also lie supine and feet under a weight, and palms on floor, and sit up and lower yourself again to supine three times at first, increasing one time daily till you can do this exercise 20 times night and morning without fatigue.

Child Plays With Dog. Our 14-month-old baby likes to play with the dog. Is it harmful?—Mrs. W. J. Answer—Dogs sometimes harbor a tapeworm (Tenia echinococcus), the eggs of which may be present in the dog's saliva. If the dog licks the child's face or hands the child may ingest the tapeworm eggs and later have echinococcus cysts. Dogs or cats are commonly infested with ordinary Lumbricoides (round worms) and the eggs of these are readily transferred to man by contamination of hands, face or food or water with the saliva of the dog. The only safe plan is to see to it that the hands are carefully washed with soap and water after petting or handling dog or cat, before the hand strays to mouth or lips. (Copyright, John F. Dille Co.)

national provisions by repealing enabling or enforcing statutes does NOT alter the force and validity of those constitutional amendments, in any way, shape or manner.

Keep Ralph Jennings. To the Editor: I wish to make a last-minute plea for Mr. Ralph Jennings. Mr. Jennings is a man; that even those that are against putting him back can't point out a single flaw in the administering of his public duties. They admit that he has been a good sheriff, and that he has performed the duties of his office perfectly. If this true, then why not put him back. Why not keep a good man on the job?

People advance the flimsy argument, that Mr. Jennings has had the job long enough. That is all the more reason why we should keep him there. Any one knows that the longer a man does a certain job the better he gets. A successful business concern doesn't fire a good man just to give some one else a job.

Another argument which shows more jealousy than anything else, is in regard to Mr. Jennings' employing members of his family. To my mind (and I'm sure to every fair-minded person) that is perfectly all right. Any one would do the same thing. I would do it. You would do it.

Now last, but not least, the extremely false charges brought against Mr. Jennings in regard to his trying to get back into office when he was defeated in the primaries. Mr. Jennings has never opened his mouth to anyone, so far as I can learn, about writing his name in on the ball. That movement was started entirely by people, the voters of Jackson County.

Put him back. You won't regret it. This is no time for a change. ELOY W. ANDERSON, 433 Benson Street, November 7.

Oleo Tax Condemned. To the Editor: About the oleo tax bill. I don't see how this bill can do anyone any good and it will certainly do many people harm. Surely the dairymen are intelligent enough to see that it won't do them any good. The people who are now buying oleomargarine are those who simply cannot afford to buy butter, and if this bill passes and puts oleo out of their reach they will not be able to buy anything in that line. Consequently the dairymen will not be able to sell one pound more butter than they did before.

I am sure everyone would rather have butter and all would buy it if they could, but when they cannot, it is some consolation to have a substitute. How do the dairymen think that passing this bill could make these

Jenkins' Comment

Putting it another way, Idaho and Oregon sell more butter to California than any other states, but Idaho sells THREE TIMES as much as Oregon.

WHY is this? Why can't Oregon sell as much butter to California as Idaho sells? We have told ourselves for years that Oregon is a great dairy state, and Oregon is nearer the California market than Idaho.

So why does Idaho put it all over us when it comes to selling her butter to California?

THESE are questions that are important to our welfare, and the answer to them is absurdly simple: The California market demands high quality butter—82 score or better, on the average. Idaho produces the high quality butter that California demands. Oregon DOESN'T. That is the whole story.

SOUTHERN OREGON is potentially the greatest dairy section of this state, because down here we can produce cheap dairy feeds; notably alfalfa. Southern Oregon is also NEAREST to the California market.

If Southern Oregon will learn the lesson of QUALITY, and will produce the kind of butter the California market demands, she can find in California a profitable market for all the butter she can produce.

Ye Smudge Pot

By Arthur Perry. CAMPAIGN RESUME. It's all over but the counting and the counting. In a couple of days the county can return to its normal heaving, hating, and hoody. The result of the election is going to be one of the most diabolical conspiracies, and complete breakdown of law and order, in the memory of the oldest inhabitants.

The list of things over which Jackson county has become enraged and enthused causes doubt to arise that the people can be fooled only part of the time. Many have been fooled all the time, and seem to like it. There has been a decided recovery from spring silliness. A majority will not believe anything—not even the blackest of the lies, told them in the spring.

No section of the land, during the political distemper of the past three years has produced so many conspiracies as this neck of the woods. At the most hysterical stage, to the very foundations. It may be of interest to know that in a four months period, by actual count of the records, the base of Jackson county shimmied 142 times—better than one per diem. The county seems to have been shaken like a gin-firm, if not worse. The mighty force doing the shaking, all the time had one hand tied behind him, and looked holy the while.

Law and order also had a tough time. It was constantly sloshing down in the middle like a sack full of sour milk. These breakdowns of L. and O. always occurred when a member of the pure and sanctified lawless element accidentally caught himself, and was picked in the new hogewog. Every time the jail door changed once, there were "two outrages."

Every time the gang entrapped an innocent man, stealing a cow, car, cash, or engaged in one of the varied forms of human cussedness, the meanness of the district attorney destroyed the Constitution, and caused 12 men to return a verdict of guilty in record time. The district attorney has been very ornery.

The community and county, however, can point with pride to the fact that during all this period, there has been no lying and no liars. However, upon unnumbered times, the Truth has been twisted into a pretzel. The lying, however, the past two months has been ladylike, childish and collegiate until the 11th hour.

For the past 13 years, every city election has been marked with charges of corruption and graft, stealing from orphans, and a general hellish condition in civic affairs. This season the St. Mayor candidate has been running for a better paying job, so the vilification has been all. The opposing candidate has not been described as a cross between Al Capone, Capt. Kidd and the DeAutremont brothers. The mayoralty contest has caused the contestants to call each other nothing more severe than "Mister." It is hoped the decease spreads, and there is no relapse.

No one regrets, if in his right mind, that the turmoil is over, or at least calms down. The winners will serve their terms, the losers will live to run another day. The world will roll on, per usual, after Tuesday. The bitterness engendered by pious-youth poppycockery, and all that is base in man, will linger after all concerned have journeyed whether no politician or voter returned, to lie, and get mad.

Considered from any angle, the hullabaloo was a hectic performance, but not worth the waste of Time and Wind, by one and all.
