

John D.'s Grandson Weds Daughter of Old Family

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—(AP)—John D. Rockefeller, III, is to be married late today to Miss Blanche Hooker of Greenwich, Conn., a descendant of Thomas Hooker, founder of Hartford, Conn.

The ceremony will be in Riverside church. The wedding bells that will ring in the tower overlooking the Hudson river were given to the church by the groom's father, John D. Rockefeller, Jr. In memory of his grandmother, Laura Spellman Rockefeller.

His grandfather, John D. Rockefeller, Sr., will not attend the wed-

The young man, 26 years old, is the eldest of five sons of John D. Rockefeller, Jr. His four brothers, Nelson, Laurence, Winthrop and David, will be in the wedding party. Nelson Rockefeller, already married, will be the best man.

Miss Hooker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hon. H. Hooker of Chelmsford, Greenwich, Conn. Her father was deputy superintendent of public works in New York state when Theodore Roosevelt was governor, and he is past president of the Manufacturing Chemists' association of the United States.

New Loyalty Circle to Have Busy Season

Much interest is being voiced these days among members of the young married set in the New Loyalty circle of the Methodist Episcopal church, recently organized. The circle met yesterday at the home of Mrs. George Coddling, who was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Bernard Roberts.

The group meets the second Thursday of each month and will meet next month with Mrs. Elbert F. Coleman. The membership includes 20 and there were 13 at yesterday's meeting.

The major activity of the circle this season, which the members expect to make a very busy one, will be sewing for the Red Cross. Other phases of relief work will be taken up during the year. All young women interested in this type of work are invited to meet with the circle.

Miss Stone Leaves For Eugene Campus

Miss Ruby Stone, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Stone, left this morning on the Steamer for Eugene, where tomorrow evening she will be a guest at the formal dance being given by the Phi Delta Theta fraternity on the University of Oregon campus.

Miss Stone will be a house guest at the Alpha Chi Omega during her stay in the north.

DEMAGOGUES BLAMED FOR BONUS DEMANDS

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 11.—(AP)—Sam W. Reynolds, national committeeman for Nebraska and leader in the fight against immediate payment of veterans' adjusted compensation certificates, attributed the "bonus" question to "political demagogues" here today.

"A certain element in congress is responsible for the bonus legislation," he said. "The legion didn't initiate

it. Some political demagogue in the trail of votes dangled the bait before the veterans' eyes and said 'Buddy, I'll get you the dough.' He sold it to the Legion just as they have sold other projects to the American people.
