

CALIFORNIA GRID BIG SHOTS FACE TOUGH CONTESTS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—(AP)—Southern California's two unbeaten football teams risk their records in games with powerful opponents this week-end, drawing Pacific coast grid fans to Los Angeles, where both contests will be played.

The University of Southern California Trojans will put their Pacific coast conference co-leadership on the spot in Olympic stadium Saturday when they take the field against University of Oregon.

In an Armistice Day contest today, the University of California at Los Angeles Bruins will take on the train-wrecked St. Mary's Gaels, non-conference eleven.

The bay region's conference members, University of California and Stanford university, will draw long breaths Saturday—one week before their annual "big game" contest. The Cardinals have scheduled the oft-defeated California Aggies, while the Bears clash with University of Idaho.

Seattle's contribution to the conference program will be the annual University of Washington-Washington State College battle.

At Missoula Paul Schisler's Oregon State College eleven is expected to step into the conference with column for the first time this season. The Beavers play University of Montana, also without a conference win to its credit.

CORN BELT HAILS CHAMPION HUSKER

GAUVA, Ill., Nov. 11.—(AP)—Out of the gumbo mud of an Illinois corn field has emerged a new American corn husking champion.

He is Carl Selter, 29-year-old left-hander, who boasts no mechanical corn pickers have been used on his father's farm near Onida, Ill.

Forty thousand persons watched Selter win from 17 other contestants by husking 35,914 bushels in 80 minutes—a new national record. The previous high of 35.5 was held by Elmer Williams of Henry county, Ill.

Walter Johansen, Audubon county, Iowa, with 35.2 was the runner-up, while Clarence Maley of Minnesota, with 35.142, was third.

Excitement was so high that two women fainted.

TIGERS PLAYING EUGENE OUTFIT

Medford high school's undefeated Tigers clashed with the Eugene University high school football eleven at Van Booyce field this afternoon in a game which, although not viewed as a "push over" for the locals, was calculated to further enhance the Medford squad's claim to recognition in any state championship contest.

In addition to the game here, valley fans were also offered a game between the Ashland normal squad and the strong Chico, Cal., normal outfit on the Ashland high school field.

UNIQUE RULES ON CHICAGO COURSE

CHICAGO—(AP)—"Elsbert Green" is the name of a unique private golf course located in suburban Barrington, but the course and its name are no more unique than the score-card that goes with it.

It is a nine-hole affair, and in the 2854 yards are included two holes of 878 and 811 yards each. Despite the shortness, par is 36, for there are plentiful water hazards and woods.

The back of the score card contains a map of the course and, among others, these fanciful rules: the locals, "An amateur is one who, after attaining the age of 16, has no means of support.

"Penalty for grounding bottle in trap—stroke and distance.

"Penalty for competitor receiving advice from anyone but his caddy and his wife—a slap in the molars with a niblick.

"Rules for the U. S. G. A. apply strictly when opponent is looking."

GRIDIRON SPARKS

(By the Associated Press.)

DETROIT — Earl McCracken, Detroit's 140-pound back, is ready to assure Villanova and all other opposing players who haven't run up against him yet, that he is by no means fragile. He has played comparatively little, but that is because he has a trick of putting a scoring punch into his plays and Coach Gus Dorais prefers to send him in fresh when there is a chance for a touchdown.

NOTRE DAME, Ind.—"Bunk" Anderson, Notre Dame coach, predicts that tomorrow's battle between the "Irish" and Northwestern will be a toss-up. Long runs or successful passes by the backs of either team will probably break up the game, he says.

PROVIDENCE, R. I. — Brown's sturdy football team not only boasts three sets of brothers but five of the six men are members of the first team. Captain Bill Gibson and his brother Tom, Roland and Larry Brown and Dave Allen are regulars. John Allen, a halfback like Dave, is on the second team.

SPINNER TRACED TO ACCIDENT IN 1924 GRID GAME

CHICAGO. — (AP) — The "spinner" play, in recent years one of the most popular backfield maneuvers in football, was discovered quite by accident, says Judge Walter P. Steffen, Chicago jurist and "commuting coach" of Carnegie Tech.

Steffen quarterbacked some of the University of Chicago teams early in the century and is considered one of the Maroons' all-time heroes.

In 1924, the judge recalls, he was preparing his Tech team for a game with Washington and Jefferson. The Presidents had a fast left wingback whose specialty was taking the ball on a reverse from the fullback and going around right end.

Tech scouts reported the wingback betrayed his intentions by shifting his feet in this play, so Steffen exhorted his right end to leap across the scrimmage line and smear the back when he saw this play coming.

The Tech right end succeeded in carrying out his assignment. The Jeff fullback got the ball from center, whirled halfway around to his

STATISTICS TELL MOHLER'S WORTH

LOS ANGELES.—(AP)—Now that Orville Mohler, great University of Southern California quarterback, has been forced by injury to abandon football, a statistician has discovered just how good he really was.

In two and a half seasons with the Trojans, Mohler gained a grand total of 2143 yards in 26 games, scored 204 points and averaged 82.4 yards of gridiron for every game.

Getting it down still finer, Mohler averaged 6.1 yards each and every time he carried the ball.

NEBRASKA POOL FAILS TO DRAW

LINCOLN, Neb.—(AP)—Students are paying for the new University of Nebraska swimming pool—but they aren't using it.

Students and faculty disagree on why the pool, completed last year, isn't more popular.

There are only 125 women and 54 men students registered for class periods in the pool.

Last year the students voted for construction of the pool under an agreement that they would pay a $1 per semester fee.

Today Is Armistice Day!

HENRY L. STEVENS, JR.
National Commander of the American Legion

WE COMMEMORATE today the anniversary of a great event that a few brief years ago brought joyousness to millions of saddened hearts and relief from the strife and turmoil of armed conflict. To the people of America and of other nations engaged in that internecine struggle, the signing of the Armistice came like a burst of sunshine to drive away the black clouds of war and to herald the dawn of a new and glorious day in world peace. We were grateful then for the blessing of peace and we should be grateful now for its continuance.

The deeds of valor performed by America's fighting men in that war will never grow dim, but will forever reflect the light of peerless devotion and the spirit of unselfish service that has made America great. Thousands made the supreme sacrifice and many came back to pay the price of service in terms of physical and mental suffering. Such magnificent loyalty to the nation, capable of rising to the greatest heights of patriotic chivalry, must challenge the sincere admiration of all.

From their service in time of war veterans gained a high appreciation of citizenship responsibility and they returned to civil life with the conviction that the lofty idealism that inspired them to victory in arms should be preserved and made useful in the peacetime life of the nation. It was this sentiment for continued service in time of peace that resulted in the creation of The American Legion.

Confidence is reposed in the American Legion today because it has labored faithfully since its inception to uphold the high ideals to which it has pledged a lifetime of effort. It has kept faith with those comrades who were disabled in the service and it has kept faith with the nation.

As we observe another Armistice Day we can look to the future with confidence and abiding faith in America. Allegiance will never be lacking to the Flag that symbolizes all we hold dear and priceless. We honor today the courageous spirit that brought victory 13 years ago, and in so doing all Americans should gain a renewed inspiration to carry on for greater and grander achievements.
