

HOOD RIVER FANS 500 STRONG WILL ACCOMPANY TEAM

Medford to Be Football Center of State Saturday As Teams Clash for Right to Play Portland

Hood River high school's football squad, opponent of Medford, southern Oregon conference champions, on Van Scoyoc field next Saturday afternoon—the winner to play Jefferson high of Portland Thanksgiving day, for the mythical state title, will be cheered by 500 of their home folks. They will come by Southern Pacific and by auto.

Tickets were placed on sale here and in Grants Pass, Ashland, and Klamath Falls today for the banner athletic attraction of the year in the southern part of the state.

Dalles Protest Ignored

Reports from Portland today indicated that the state high school athletic association will pay no attention to the eleventh hour protest filed by The Dalles against Swanson, 180-pound fullback of the Applepickers. Swanson is the mainstay of the invaders, along with Orday and Burton, two big tackles, and Thurner, quarterback.

La Grande and The Dalles, title claimants will play a post-season game, and Lake View high, enthused by a 15-0 victory over Ashland, Monday, came forth with state title boasts. It, too, has an unbeaten record.

Turn-Out to Greet Visitors

The Hood River team will arrive greeted by the high school band and here Saturday morning and will be student body. They will have a secret workout before the game.

Hood River has played eight games this season, winning all, as follows: Hood River 27; Roosevelt, Portland 0.

Hood River 54; Goldendale 0.
Hood River 13; Oregon City 0.
Hood River 60; More 0.
White Salmon 13; Hood River 0.
Hood River 1; The Dalles 0.
Hood River 7; Chemawa 0.

Hood Coach Young

Hood River's annual big game is with The Dalles, which this year ended in a scoreless tie. Afterwards the state high association declared Hood River the winner, because The Dalles played an ineligible player. Intense and bitter rivalry exists between the two schools.

Hood River is coached by James Carr, a 26 year old mentor, who has drive and personality. The Medford squad will go through a rigorous course of sprouts this week, but Minear and Gillinski will indulge only in light practice until they have recovered from colds, which slowed them up in the University high game.

Local interest in the game is mounting, and a crowd of close to 5000 will be in attendance. Medford will be the football capital of the state next Saturday as there is state-wide interest in the battle.

ELKS TRAMPLE GATES BOWLERS

The Elks' bowling juggernaut rolled over the Gates Auto outfit, to take all three games in their City Bowling league match last night. Pruitt, Diamond and Baos of the lodgemen were bright stars of the evening.

The Butchers and Barber battle to-night.

New Medicine Drives Out Poisons, That Cause Torturing Stiffness, Swelling and Lameness.

EASES PAIN FIRST DAY

You cannot get rid of rheumatic aches and pains, Neuritis, Lumbago, Stiffness, lame knotted muscles and painful swollen joints till you drive from your system the irritating poisons that cause rheumatism. That's why external treatments only give temporary relief.

What you need is RU-MA, the new internal medicine that acts on the liver, kidneys and blood, and helps expel through the natural channels of elimination, these dangerous poisons.

Dalles, Hood River and LaGrande in Squabble Over Player Eligibility

HOOD RIVER, Ore., Nov. 15.—(AP)—J. L. Breckenridge, superintendent of schools here, declared today that if Tom Swanson, high school star, is a ten-term student and therefore ineligible, the school knows nothing about it. Swanson formerly attended The Dalles high.

Hood River high school has, Breckenridge said, a signed official transcript issued by The Dalles high school two and a half years ago which showed only one semester with 4 1/2 points earned.

"It was on this official transcript that Hood River was playing Swanson this year," the superintendent said. "The matter is being investigated and if The Dalles records show that he was in attendance at The Dalles for a longer period than that attested to in their official transcript, Swanson will not play against Medford."

"Today brought forth the first evidence of his being more than a seven-term student and Hood River authorities were greatly surprised at the charges, since they had accepted at face value the official transcript sent them by The Dalles."

"In all probability this will not mean the forfeiture of past games since he was not knowingly played as an ineligible."

THE DALLES, Nov. 15.—(AP)—A formal protest against the eligibility of Tom Swanson, Hood River high school fullback, was filed Monday with the Oregon State High School Athletic association. This action followed within a few days a success-

Hamas Injured Goes To Hospital

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—(AP)—A knee injury threatens to end the boxing career of Elvie Hamas, promising young heavyweight from New Jersey. Hamas wrenched ligaments in his knee several months ago and spent six weeks in the hospital. An operation was performed, but the injury failed to respond to treatment.

Forced to the flint sidelines, Hamas was returned to his first athletic love, football. A star at Penn State, he now is coaching Montauk high school's eleven.

WILLAMETTE, WHITMAN TO BATTLE FOR RANK

SALEM, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Whitman and Willamette university football teams will battle here Saturday for second place in the Northwest conference.

Whitman has lost to Willamette only once and has never finished lower than second in the Northwest conference.

SONS WILL PLAY MONMOUTH TEAM ASHLAND FRIDAY

(By Estill Phipps.)

SOUTHERN OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Ashland, Nov. 15.—(Sp.)—Two major features of the remaining portions of the 1932 football schedule of great interest to southern Oregon gridiron followers were made public yesterday by the athletic relations department of Southern Oregon Normal school.

The "big game" high point of each season's sporting activity at S. O. N. S.—the annual feud between the Sons and their rival teachers from Oregon Normal at Monmouth, will be staged in Ashland this Friday.

In the announcement yesterday the officials said that in view of the very fine backing the Sons received from all southern Oregon and from the great number of Medford people at the homecoming fray with Chico State on Armistice day, it was felt that the school had an obligation to give those in this district a chance to see S. O. N. S. and Oregon Normal play here.

After a definite decision had been made not to take the two teams to Portland, the game had been slated for Saturday, either in Medford or Ashland. Then, being confronted with the conflict on that date by the eleventh hour arrangement for a game between Medford and Hood River high schools, the S. O. N. S. heads showed a fine spirit of cooperation toward providing varied gridiron entertainment in this valley by conceding the request of Medford high school to move the date to Friday.

This concession to Medford will enable southern Oregon fans to see both their outstanding elevens in action this week-end.

The other ultimatum assures Medford that football will be served along with turkey on Thanksgiving day. Should Medford win from Hood River and journey to Portland to meet Jefferson high on Turkey day, authorities of the Ashland college announced that they would continue their policy of bringing in high class collegiate grid teams for local appearances by scheduling a contest in Medford between Howard Hobson's great S. O. N. S. outfit and one of the leading Northwest conference teams, probably Spec Keene's Willamette university eleven.

PORTLAND, Ore.—Using his jiu jitsu tricks to advantage, Walter Achit, 155 pound Guinean matman from Dayton, Ohio, defeated Joe Kirk, 158, New Haven, two out of three falls here last night. In the semi-windup, Wildcat Pete, Eugene, took two out of three falls from Billy Cogins, Tacoma. Sid Ambrose, Portland and "Whata Man" O'Reilly, Eugene, went to a draw in the opener.

THE BATTLE OF HASTINGS—1066 A. D.

"Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by J. Scott Williams... inspired by the surging fury of the Norman hordes under William the Conqueror, in their merciless onslaught against the English in the Battle of Hastings, October 14, 1066.

"Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes.

"Nature in the Raw is seldom MILD"

No raw tobaccos in Luckies —that's why they're so mild

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

"It's toasted"
