

GIRLS' LEAGUE OF JACKSONVILLE TO PRESENT 2 PLAYS

Two one-act plays will be presented by members of the Girls' League of Jacksonville high school this evening at eight o'clock in the school gymnasium.

The first sketch, "A Mere Man," by Edith P. Painter, is to be played in costumes of an earlier period, in dimly ruffled and swishing taffeta, to fit its rather quaint, "old-times" mood.

The second play, "The Truth for a Day," by Helen Darby, will give an enlightening glimpse into the everyday life of a typical group of girls in a "select" boarding house for young ladies.

Circus Plans Bring Thrills To Pupils of Phoenix Schools

If the audience gets half as much fun out of the circus as the performers are getting out of the rehearsals, then the show planned by the Phoenix schools for Friday night in the gymnasium is going to be a howling success, is the report today.

Lincoln School P-T. A.

To Entertain Friday Elaborate plans are being made by members of the Lincoln school P-T. A. for the Daddy's night dinner at 6:30 o'clock Friday.

Each person attending is asked to furnish his own table service. A pot-roast and noodle dinner is being planned for the event.

Tengwalds at Home

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Tengwald, whose wedding was an event of Monday in Klamath Falls, will be at home next week to their friends at 803 West Eleventh street, this city.

Mrs. Tengwald is remembered as Laura Crawford. She was married to Mr. Tengwald at a simple service at the St. Paul's church, Episcopal, the Very Rev. Henry Thomas, archbishop of eastern Oregon officiating.

Daughters of Nile

The Daughters of the Nile are preparing their Thanksgiving box for the Shrine hospital in Portland this week and all members with packages to be included are asked to deliver them to Mrs. J. A. Perry, 604 West Main street, not later than Monday morning, November 31.

Preparation of this box is one of the major holiday activities of the lodge and brings happiness to many children who are receiving treatment in the hospital.

Annual Parish Dinner

The St. Mark's parish hall will be the scene this evening of the annual parish dinner of St. Mark's church, Episcopal. Dinner will be served at 6:30 with St. Mark's Guild, St. Mark's Altar Guild and the Auxiliary presiding.

Allons Club Meets

The Allons club will meet this evening for regular monthly session at the home of Mrs. Roland Hubbard, assisting Mrs. Hubbard as hostess will be Mrs. Tim Daily.

Women Devoting Time To Arranging Rooms

Club women of Medford are still concentrating their efforts in the decoration and arrangement of the new rooms to be occupied in the city hall. Draperies were being hung yesterday and a homelike atmosphere becomes more pronounced each day.

The kitchen, recently decorated, would be a cheerful addition to any home, with its long line of cupboards and other built-ins, all in green with a subtle touch of orchid in the floral trimming.

The club women still realize several needs and ask that anyone wishing to contribute to this community center get in touch with a member of one of the various clubs, planning to use the new location.

Jackson School Daddies

Tomorrow evening annual Daddies' night will be observed at the Jackson school. A covered dish dinner will be served promptly at 6:30 o'clock and anyone desiring information is asked to call Mrs. E. D. Scripser, 1270-J.

The various committees are working diligently to make the evening an especially enjoyable one for the fathers of Jackson school pupils and an interesting program has been arranged for their entertainment.

Mrs. Bliss Hostess

Mrs. M. A. Bliss entertained at her home on Grape street Monday evening, honoring Mr. Bliss on the anniversary of his birthday. It was also the birthday of Mrs. Chas. Good, who shared honors with Mr. Bliss.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Good and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carter and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Kunzman and family and Mr. Franklin.

Cecil Browns Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Brown of San Francisco are guests in this city of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Brown, 147 North Holly street. This is their first visit in Medford for 10 years.

Women's Bible Class

The Woman's Bible class of the First Methodist Episcopal church will hold its monthly social at the home of Mrs. Christenson, 630 West Fourth street, on Friday afternoon.

Dramatics Class to Meet At "Y" This Evening

Mrs. Hamilton Patton's class in dramatics for W. W. C. A. girls will meet this evening at the "Y" at 7:30 o'clock. Each girl is asked to bring a notebook and pencil and an interesting evening is promised.

The "Y" classes are each day drawing a larger following, along with the other activities of the organization, which have taken on new interest during the past few weeks.

Ever-Ready Circle

Ever-ready circle of the First Presbyterian church met Wednesday, November 9, with Mrs. C. V. English following the business meeting.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. H. G. Wortman.

D. A. R. News

A communication from the Daughters of the American Revolution Angel Island committee asks that the Christmas boxes be sent earlier this year than heretofore.

The principal feature of the program will be a talk on "International Relations" by Mrs. M. J. Norris.

HUMANE TRAPS TO WIN PRIZES

Opening of the annual trap contest has been announced by the American Humane association, 80 Howard street, Albany, N. Y., and will run until next May, when the traps submitted will be judged at Albany by eminent men in the field of conservation.

Anyone may enter the contest, the sole purpose of which is to alleviate the suffering of wild life, not to paralyze trapping.

Attractive prizes are offered the winners and the Jackson County Humane society has issued a request for local participants in the contest.

SCOUT JAMBOREE WILL BE CLIMAX YEAR ACTIVITIES

Friday, November 18, 8:00 p. m., at the armory will culminate boy scout activities of the entire year. In addition to bringing together a large number of troops for the purpose of exchanging ideas and competing in scout craft the "jamboree" is a demonstration which it is believed will be of considerable interest to the public and to which the public is invited.

The demonstration Friday evening of the ability of the local boy scouts to care for themselves in emergency through first aid, lighting a fire without matches, signaling of various kinds, knot tying, etc., together with illuminated drills and stunts, should prove of exceptional interest to everyone.

The program opens with the "Human Compass" under direction of Scoutmaster Frank Hill. Use of special lights and formations will add much to the beauty and entertaining feature of the spectacle.

The closing event should be thoroughly enjoyed by the audience for the beauty of its setting and the fine music which is being prepared.

A campfire program will be given under the direction of Scoutmaster K. D. Ross. Troop 3 will furnish the color guard for the evening.

A boys' orchestra under the direction of Mrs. Fredericks will furnish the music for the evening. There will be no admission charge and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Dr. Shockey will lead the singing in the campfire circle.

The demand for Canada Dry at the new low price keeps our new West Coast plant operating full blast

JUST as soon as we opened our new West Coast plant and announced the new low prices of The Champagne of Ginger Ales, the public proved emphatically that Canada Dry was the outstanding ginger ale value on the market.

Our new plant has been busy day and night trying to keep up with the flood of orders for Canada Dry.

This is a real ginger ale—as you'll discover at your first sip. There's more life to it—more sparkle and zest. And the flavor is famous all over the world. It's good to drink and very good for you too.

Yet The Champagne of Ginger Ales now costs no more than ordinary ginger ales. Sold in two sizes—big and 12-ounce. In cartons, if you prefer.
