GUNMAN SLAYS ESCORT, ABDUCTS ATTACKS GIRL

Compelling the girl to drive the car, he pushed Guislinger out a few blocks away and left him lying in the street. Guislinger worked himself loose and notified the police. Miss Henry was kept in the car. The bandit, covering her with his pistol, forced her to drive the car throughout the South Side. Several times, she said, they heard the scream of sirens of police cars nearby, but the gunman merely compelled her to drive faster. After several hours of driving pursuit, the gunman told her to drive home. As they approached the girl's residence he made her stop while he jumped out and escaped.

My Beauty Hint

CAROLE LOMBARD Although I think makeup is very essential to beauty, my hint is not to overdo it. In daytime, I use a powder of equal parts beige and flesh tints; a tea-rose shade of rouge and a very pale rose lipstick. I never use mascara or eye pencil when going to shop or out walking.

For evening, a powder four shades darker is my favorite. I use no cheek rouge, but my lipstick is heavy. I use carmen red. At night I also use violet eyed shadow and dark blue mascara, lengthening my eyebrows slightly with a blue pencil.
