WOMEN ENLIST WITH WAR-TIME SPIRIT IN RED CROSS DRIVE ON DISTRESS

and by October 1 had distributed more than 30,000 yards of cotton cloth to more than half of the chapters or counties of the nation. Thousands of women volunteered to make the cloth into garments for school children, for men and for women. Dresses, underwear, men's shirts, boys' suits all came flying from the sewing machines.

Following up the cloth, the Red Cross prepared to give men's trousers, overalls, jumpers, boys' knickerbockers, underwear and stockings and socks for all the family. Without the work of the women who volunteered as seamstresses, and the thousands of men and women who helped give flour, clothing and other direct relief, in the name of the Red Cross, these useful aids to the unemployed would not have been handled so promptly.

How shall 500,000 bales of Farm Board cotton be converted into clothing for the unemployed and needy, was an urgent question confronting the American Red Cross when Congress voted the raw cotton for that purpose to the Red Cross in midsummer.

Congress also had laid 85,000,000 bushels of Farm Board wheat upon the Red Cross doorstep, beginning last March, and the great relief organization had conquered the task of putting flour and bread from this wheat into the homes of 2,500,000 of the nation's needy families. The wheat distribution continues and it is estimated that the flour will not be exhausted until the late spring of 1933.

Cotton presented a complex problem, but the Red Cross swung a large staff of workers into the job. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned Executor of the Estate of Clara E. Beall, deceased, has filed in the County Court for Jackson County, Oregon, his duly verified Final Account and said Court has fixed Wednesday, November 30th, 1932, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of said day at the court room of said Court in the Court House in Medford, Oregon, as the time and place for the hearing of said Final Account. All persons interested are hereby notified to make or file their objections, if any they have, to said Final Account, with said Court, on or before said date.

ASBURY BEALL, Executor of the Estate of Clara E. Beall, deceased. GUS NEWBURY, Attorney for Executor. Notice of District Road Meeting. Road District Number 12, Jackson County, Oregon. Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of a petition duly and legally signed by more than three freeholders and legal voters residing in Road District Number 12, Jackson County, Oregon, and duly and legally presented to the County Court of Jackson County, Oregon, on the 29th day of November, 1932, at the hour of 10:00 a. m. on said day for the purpose of levying a special road tax not to exceed ten mills on the dollar on all taxable property within said road district for the special improvement of the roads within the district and for any other purposes which may seem proper to come before said meeting.

Dated at Medford, Oregon, this 15th day of November, A. D. 1932. C. B. LAMKIN, County Judge. VICTOR BURELL, County Commissioner. JOHN BARNEBURG, County Commissioner.

Depression Days Write Opera Pathetique for Musicians and Society

By R. H. Hippelheuser. (Associated Press Staff Writer.) NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—(P)—Hard times have written an opera pathetique for the American public.

It's an opus of dowagers' laments, of debutantes' shattered dreams, of darkened dress circles in the metropolises, of dreary social seasons, of jobless singers and musicians. It tells of the lowest ebb of grand opera in America.

Two of the brilliant civic operas in Philadelphia and Chicago are closed for the season. Although New York society is well into its winter whirl, the "diamond horseshoe" of the Metropolitan will not gladden until next week. Its season was trimmed.

Opera has never paid its own way in America. Its salvation has always rested with society. But in the past few years, some of the society prominent have abandoned opera.

The hard times brought attempts to establish popular-priced opera. These were revived this year in Chicago's huge stadium. But the "shirtsleeve" variety was short-lived—the impresario couldn't raise the money.

The inaugural was auspicious; 22,000 people heard Aida and Carmen. Many of the nation's leading cities, that in the past have depended on the road tours of the Chicago Civic opera, will feel the pinch.

Most of these cities are on the routing of the venerable San Carlo company, enjoying one of its best seasons to date. In Boston, it was scheduled for one week, but stayed two. This city always depended in past years upon the Chicago Civic opera.

In Philadelphia, the suspension brought the announcement that "opera in its present form is out of date." As an innovation, "drama with music" is being presented, with Leopold Stokowski and his Philadelphia orchestra.

Chicago society leaders—minus the patron of past years, Samuel Insull—handed early in the fall to seek some way to salvage some opera, but their efforts were fruitless.

McLeod. McLEOD, Nov. 22.—(Sp.)—A dinner party was given Saturday in the dining room of Mr. and Mrs. Will Coburn's place of business. Members of the local P. T. A. were the hostesses. It was a general get-together for neighbors of McLeod, Dick Harding and daughters, Dorothy and Frances, furnished the entertainment, with Mrs. Chester Davis at the piano. The affair was appreciated by all and was pronounced a success.

Excitement was caused on the Crater Lake highway just inside the park Sunday night when several cars derailed on a sharp turn. Drivers were not aware of the ice until too late. They applied the brakes and each time would add one more victim to the snowbank beside the road. No one was hurt and with the concerted efforts of all the cars, were soon on their way.

Improvement program at the Dude ranch has halted and all hands laid off except the caretakers. Employees were surprised as the work is far from being completed.
