

MEDFORD DROPS TITLE TILT, 33-0 TO MIGHTY JEFFS

was so completely covered that he was generally downed in his tracks. In the last half he brought the ball back 25 yards. There were two men for him all through the game. Medford's punting game worked well in the first half, but collapsed in the second half. Medford's tackling usually deadly, was also ineffective. Medford met a better team and was bested. They can't win them all. Even the beta squads lost a game now and then. The defeat should not dishearten.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 25.—(AP)—Launching a puzzling offensive, Jefferson high school defeated a fighting Medford eleven, 33 to 0, in their football game here yesterday, to take for the second successive year the mythical state championship. By an identical score Jefferson last year defeated Marshfield in the Thanksgiving day game.

A crowd, announced by stadium officials to number 11,044, took advantage of the all but perfect football weather—briak but clear—to see one of the fastest games played here this season.

Tigers Show Flash. Held by a strong Medford wall for some time after the game opened, Jefferson broke through to march from midfield by end runs, laterals and line plunges and score their first touchdown near the end of the first period. The second period was scoreless as Medford turned back each Jefferson threat.

After Medford lost the ball on their own 49, attempting unsuccessfully to make a yard on fourth down, Jefferson kicked to the Medford 10. Gillinsky, Medford halfback, fumbled on a running play and Jefferson recovered on the Medford 5. Three plunges at center netted but three yards, then Heimbucher skirted right end to score standing up.

Later in the third period Medford fired a pass from their own 11. Jones of Jefferson intercepted and romped 12 yards to score. Jeff scored twice more in the final period, once on a 60-yard drive through center from the Medford 4. A Medford fumble, recovered by Viken, Jeff guard, on the Medford 25, started the final scoring drive. On the very next play Hergert twisted through center, shook off the secondary and scored. Jefferson converted three of the five tries for points after touchdowns.

BEER TAX ALONE INSUFFICIENT FOR REVENUE NEEDS

This new angle thrusting itself into the Democratic drive for speedy changing of the prohibition laws was made known by Representative Hawley of Oregon, ranking Republican on the ways and means committee. House members from wine growing and consuming states, including

New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan and Missouri, probably will make up the bloc. They already have been promised an equal hearing with beer advocates.

Hearings on liberalization of Volstead provisions begin December 7, with some brewers prepared to ask that beer be distributed both in bottles and barrels.

August A. Busch, of Annheuser-Busch, Inc., St. Louis, responding to an inquiry, held that congress should not attempt to control distribution "inasmuch as any act passed by congress on this subject can relate only to non-intoxicating beer under the constitution." He added that regulation is a state function and that congress should limit itself to determining the alcoholic content and taxing laws.

Sale of bottled beer at hotels, clubs, restaurants and lunch rooms with drug and other retail stores by bottle or case for home consumption was suggested by Edward Landsberg, president of the Blatz Brewing company, Milwaukee.

William L. Goetz, president of the M. K. Goetz Brewing company, Chicago, favored 2.75 per cent beer by weight to be sold as near beer now is through "ordinary channels" and "without sales restrictions which usually are made to surround the sale of intoxicating liquor." Saying 2.75 beer was non-intoxicating in fact, he held this method of selling in bottles or by draught would produce high revenue and keep the price "within the reach of all."

DELAWARE SOLON LONG DRY AIDE TO BACK REPEAL PLAN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—(AP)—Proponents of a change in the federal liquor laws today drew support from Senator Hastings, Delaware Republican and long a supporter of prohibition, who announced he not only would vote to submit a repeal amendment, but would introduce a bill to withdraw national enforcement from states which do not co-operate in carrying out the prohibition laws. Hastings said, however, he would not support wine and beer legislation.

Regardless of what action congress takes towards repeal, Hastings said he would introduce in the coming short session a bill to provide that no federal money shall be used to enforce the Volstead act in states that do not provide for the enforcement of the eighteenth amendment.

"My proposal," he added, "leaves the states to do just exactly as they please with respect to the liquor question." Hastings said the recent announcement attributed to the governor of California that he would pardon those convicted of violating the state enforcement law "demonstrates the necessity of some drastic action to prevent the conflict between a federal and state law from becoming more ridiculous."

ASK INJUNCTION SO M'EWAN CAN HELP HOLY CROSS SQUAD

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 25.—(AP)—A preliminary hearing on the bill in equity of Captain John J. McEwan for an injunction to restrain the trustees of Holy Cross college from interfering with his duties as coach of the football team was opened in superior court today and after an hour of discussion, was suspended until counsel can get college officials to the court to show cause why the preliminary injunction should not be granted.

Counsel for Captain McEwan recited how important it is for Captain McEwan to act as coach of Holy Cross in the game with Boston college tomorrow, saying his reputation as a coach is at stake if he is not reinstated following his suspension by the college on November 9. Counsel for the college came to court to argue why an injunction should not be granted, and Judge Winfred Whiting indicated that in the absence of evidence to the contrary, the allegations in the bill of complaint should be taken as they were recited.

Chrysanthemum Thimble club, Neighbors of Woodcraft, will give a social dance, bazaar and card party, Monday evening, November 28, after regular business session. Refreshments. Members and friends invited.
