Society to Gather At Large Benefit Tea in Club Suite

Opening of the club rooms in the city hall to the public Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock with a benefit tea and bridge party, will mark the realization of a desire long harbored by club women of Medford.

The Greater Medford club has sponsored remodeling and furnishing of the rooms with the assistance of other clubs and all club women and the public are invited to the house warming. A musical program will be presented, cards will be played in the council room, adjoining the club suite, and tea will be served.

Mrs. G. B. Satchwell, general chairman of the event, with the assistance of Mrs. Gus Newbury, will have charge of the contract bridge tables. Mrs. Ed Platt will arrange for progressive bridge. Mrs. John Peter for pivot bridge. Mrs. Ed Gore and Mrs. Rawles Moore will preside in the tea room and present the musical.

One charge of 25 cents will be made for tea and refreshments, and another of 35 cents for tea, refreshments and cards, enabling those who do not wish to play, to drop in for tea and musical.

Among the women sponsoring the event are: Mrs. A. J. Hanby, Mrs. Stella Merrick, Mrs. Laura M. West, Mrs. A. E. Reames, Mrs. Detwiler, Mrs. Van Scoyoc, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Swearingen, Mrs. Holloway, Mrs. W. E. Crews, Mrs. Edwin L. Knapp, Mrs. E. C. Gaddis, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Rose Schefflein, Mrs. J. P. Reddy, Mrs. O. V. Morrow, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. C. C. Murray, Mrs. H. W. Hamlin and Mrs. Lewis Ullrich.

Those wishing to make table reservations are requested to call Mrs. Hanby, Mrs. Satchwell, Mrs. Platt or Mrs. Gus Newbury.

Funds secured from the large benefit event will be used for further furnishing of the rooms.

Lull Follows Festivity of Past Holiday

A definite lull settled over local social circles yesterday with Thanksgiving in the background and Christmas four weeks away. While few large parties were held last week a number of informal events, graced the holiday and nearly all Medford homes. Among those entertaining were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, who had as guests Mr. and Mrs. H. Chandler Egan, Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Clark and daughter Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter and daughter Julie, and son Harold.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Corning Kenly had as guests at their home Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Ruhli and daughter Alicia. Miss Alice Holloway and W. W. Aldrich.

Jacques Gordon, String Quartet Leader, Praised

When Jacques Gordon announced that he would discontinue his concertmastership with the Chicago Symphony orchestra to devote his entire time to the Gordon String Quartet, which plays here tomorrow evening, there were many expressions of regret among his host of friends and admirers. Writers on various daily papers have devoted columns in tribute to their friend who is leaving town. In his Round About Chicago column in the Chicago Herald and Examiner, James Weber Linn wrote the following:

"As everybody who is interested in good music knows, one of the most prominent of our prominent citizens is about to leave us. Permanently and yet temporarily. He will go elsewhere to live, but he will return once or twice a year to delight us. He is, and has been for nine years, the first violist of the Chicago Symphony orchestra, and his name is Jacques Gordon. Only he pronounces it Jack."

"But I call him Gypsy Heart. 'I do not know that there is a drop of gypsy blood in his veins. But there is gypsy music in his soul and in his heart the gypsy spirit. Watching him as he plays, I have heard the wild calling him, almost heard the echoing call myself. He was born under an oak tree. I think, with the flame of the fire rising and sinking slowly, throwing flying lights and falling shadows in his jaup-opened eyes. There is something of the oak in his will, but he nurtures and grows deeper among the flying lights and falling shadow, seeking the final flame which is his source. 'He came here nine years ago, a boy of twenty-two. I do not say a boy. That favorite phrase, 'one in whom the child has never died,' is not descriptive of Jack. The child is irrepressible, by turns plaintive and exultant, a fladder of trifles, not a seeker for finalities. Gypsies grow up quickly, and the gypsy heart is not gay."

The concert here tomorrow evening at the high school auditorium, which will acquaint southern Oregon folk with this master of music, will open at 8:15 o'clock and all members of the Civic Music Association are asked to be in their seats at that time. The concert will be the first of the civic music season here and is anticipated by all music lovers.

Mrs. West Speaks Before C. A. R. At D'Albini Home

General Joseph Lane society. Children of the American Revolution, held their November meeting Friday with Misses Ruth and Corinne D'Albini as hostesses. Mrs. Laura M. West was guest speaker and used as her topic, "Commerce of the Nations and its effect on international relations. She stated that the United States was not economically independent and that each child's clothing represented many nations, that we import more than a million dozen eggs and millions of pounds of tomatoes. She told of the little bugs that produce aphelias, of the manufacture of silk, and of importations of rabbits from Australia.

Guests at the society were Mrs. Laura West, Misses Carlin Platt and Mary Beth Bradish. The society was most happy to welcome Jean Platt whose papers have been sent to Washington.

The next meeting will be held with Florence Gifford some time in December.

Dependable Insurance Is The Only Kind Worth Having

When insuring your property make certain that you are assured of fair and speedy settlement of claims. Losing your property is tragedy enough without having to worry about settlements.

The dependable fire, casualty and automobile companies we represent, have gained the reputation of settling claims promptly. It's a big help to get prompt action when in urgent need of money. But in order to do this, the companies must have prompt payment of premiums in accordance with their rule of either cash or forty-five days from date of policy. We do not have mutual, reciprocal or cut-rate companies.

I am recuperating from injuries sustained in an automobile accident and have been instructed by my physician to rest and stay completely away from work for at least another month. Mrs. Gertrude Fredenburg Greb, who has had seven years' experience in accounting and insurance, Mrs. Mabel Showers and my brother L. A. Wakefield will have charge of the office during my absence. Also F. J. Newman and Geo. Neilson, Attorneys, will represent my agency.

I have been serving friends and clients here for the past twenty-four years and have always been glad to extend time on payments, but at this time I am very much in need of some settlement of your accounts and your prompt attention to same will surely be appreciated.

Very truly yours,
