SOUND EFFECTS AID TOM'S YARN

A thrilling climax to a gang story, told at a local lunch counter a few days ago, was reported today by Thomas Fuson, teller of the story, but not of the climax. "Tom," as he is known to the Roxey Ann gang, was seated at the counter reviewing a thrilling story of gun battle, following the attack by an unidentified bandit upon State Police Officer Joe Polson. The story was nearing an end, and Tom had made it as hair-raising as possible, when a shot suddenly sounded in the room and Tom fell over on the counter. His listeners were paralyzed for the moment, but when no blood appeared, stepped forward and found a cork on the counter beside Tom's head. Assured that it was only the cork from a bottle of mixer on the counter behind him which struck him, Tom made a quick getaway without completing his yarn.

SELECT PROJECTS IN HIGHWAY WORK

Installation of a drinking fountain and a rest place on the Pacific highway south of Rogue River, on which work is being done now, was one of the projects selected by the committee. Miss Jane Snedicer, chairman, for the expenditure of the prize money received recently in the Sam Hill highway beautification program. The other work to be done by the highway group is grading and planting the land secured at the top of Blackwell hill on the Pacific highway, where travelers get their first view of Rogue River valley when journeying south, with Mt. McLaughlin looming in the distance. Local labor is being employed on the work, it was pointed out, and valley shrubbery is being reared. C. L. MacDonald was general chairman for the beautification program carried on in Jackson county with the co-operation of the Medford Garden club.

ROSSON TO DIRECT OREGON ATHLETICS

EUGENE, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Hugh E. Rossion, University of Oregon graduate manager, was granted new powers and responsibilities at the meeting of the executive council of the Associated Students Wednesday evening. The new duties make Rossion virtually the director of Oregon's intercollegiate athletic program. He will be the director of athletics since Virgil D. Earl resigned such a position two years ago.

Radio Picture Now On Craterian Bill

"The Big Broadcast," which opened a three-day engagement at the Craterian theater this afternoon, is one of those extraordinary films which come along occasionally—product and scene of the moment we live in. Timely as tomorrow's news and topical as the current style in hats, it takes full advantage of popular radio idolatry, and succeeds in becoming a light, frivolous piece of entertainment, amusing and constantly diverting. The cast includes Bing Crosby, Stuart Erwin, Lella Hyams, Burns and Allen, Beawell Sisters, Kate Smith, Donald Novis, the Mills Brothers and many others.

Hapless Hunter Gets Buck After Twelve Seasons

ALPENA, Mich., Dec. 1.—(AP)—For twelve seasons T. Earl McDougall, Alpena's most persistent hunter, had tramped the woods in fruitless attempts to shoot a deer. The thirteenth season was almost at an end and McDougall was becoming irritated. So he took careful aim at a tree and fired, just to vent his disgust. There was a commotion in the brush behind the tree. The hapless hunter had missed the tree and brought down a buck, at last.

Winter Babies Need Sun Baths

Babies born in the fall or winter should be given long indoor sun baths throughout the winter, the U. S. Children's Bureau says. In the temperate zones, especially in the fall and winter, the sunlight must be supplemented with cod-liver oil, which is known as "bottled sunshine."
