

FREE MEALS AT LIONS' KITCHEN BOON TO HUNGRY

Many Call for Wholesome Food As Hunger Gnaws—800 Served Since Nov. 7 Opening—Thank Donors

Last night, with the registration of the last of three women and 12 men for the evening meal, the relief kitchen sponsored by the Medford Lions club had served 800 meals since the day of opening, November 7.

Invited by C. S. Stuart, of the Lions club, who directs this project, located in a wing of the old Methodist church building at Fourth and Bartlett, a part of which is rented by the Salvation Army, a reporter visited the kitchen and incidentally sampled the food served yesterday.

A tasty and wholesome dish in which were mutton, onions, potatoes, carrots, cauliflower, sweet potatoes and turnips, was served in a large bowl. With this is served bread (without butter), coffee with milk and sugar if desired. All one can eat is given at each meal, but only two meals are served to any one transient unless he has a ticket which he has earned or which someone has given him.

The Lions club sells books of tickets which may be exchanged for work, or which entitle the purchaser to the amount of work indicated by his tickets. The individual meal coupon represents 10 cents.

At least 15 minutes work is required from those not having tickets. Six cords of wood donated to the kitchen provided work for many.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. McKeen donate all their time and receive only living quarters and a part of their meals for their work.

The fine type of men who are fed and their courtesy and willingness to help in every way was pointed out to the reporter. A former shoe merchant from San Francisco and his son came to the kitchen Monday, cold, wet, hungry and broke.

A man and his wife, the latter ill, were cared for Tuesday among the 44 served. No couch or resting place was available for the sick woman at the kitchen, but after waiting for some time arrangements were made to care for them overnight.

Parents with obviously undernourished children who were fed at the kitchen brought forth the remark by one of the eight men present: "It had been enough for us fellows without families, but those starving kids are going to suffer all the rest of their lives because right now during these two or three years of their growth, they haven't food or shelter for right growth."

A Medford woman, without work, is being fed daily. Her embarrassment is distressing to the onlooker, but hunger forces her to seek this aid.

Mr. Stuart pointed out to the reporter the great need for a place to care for emergency cases such as this almost desperate woman who has neither food nor room; also the need for a place for caring for the sick and possible isolation of patients.

Lack of funds prevents further expansion of the club's charitable enterprise, which so far has been carried on through assistance of various persons gratefully acknowledged by Mr. Stuart and the Lions club, chief of which was the benefit at the Holy Theater on election night, a gift of $25 and the following:

- Shed donated by Economy Lumber Co., Porter Lumber Co., Woods Lumber Co., Big Pines Lumber Co., Lamport's.
- Labor by Ed Foy and brother.
- Labor: Modern Plumbing & Sheet Metal Works.
- Laboratory, by Hoover.
- Lights, by Peoples Electric.
- Sixteen and one-half cords of wood by D. H. Perry of Gold Hill; hauled by Jackson county.
- Ed Blinn, one ox heart.
- Levorton, one chicken.
- Four Square Gospel, one sack onions, three crates cauliflower.
- Mrs. Coffeen: Two gallons milk, two pounds coffee, 2 gallons milk, five pounds oatmeal, 10 pounds of crackers.
- Beck's Bakery: twenty-one loaves bread.
- Ostes & Lydiard: Two hundred pounds vegetables and two dozen eggs.
- City Meat Market: Eleven pounds meat, four dressed rabbits.

SCOTTISH MASONS IN REUNION HERE

The fall reunion of the Scottish Rite Masons opened this afternoon in the Masonic temple and will continue through this evening, tomorrow afternoon and Saturday.

Because of general economic conditions, no reunion was held here last spring. At that time all the Scottish Rite lodges south of Portland held a joint reunion in Eugene.

ROXY ANN GRANGE TO MEET FRIDAY EVENING

The last 1932 meeting of Roxy Ann Grange will be held in the Red Top school house Friday evening, and a number of important matters will be brought up for consideration, according to announcement today.

The irrigation question will be fully discussed, with well informed speakers appearing before the group, and answering any queries on the subject. Refreshments are to be served at the close of the business session.

During the evening, plans for the special entertainment on December 15 will be discussed.

Sink, by Penwell. Reliable Store: One hundred and thirty pounds vegetables. Pennington: Forty pounds vegetables.

Stuart: One hundred and fifty pounds potatoes. Forest Service: One ham, one slab bacon. John Fisher: One gallon skimmed milk per day.

Mr. Baylar and Talent Farms: One thousand pounds carrots, cabbage, turnips and squash; hauled by Herb Meusel, Rogue River Meat Co. Nels Jacobson and Table Rock School: Two hundred and fifty lbs. vegetables.

Valley Fuel Co.: One load of kindling. Game Warden: One deer. Mrs. James Owens: Ten and one-half gallons cawed fruit. Mrs. Simmons, Kings Highway: Four roosters. Brown's Pharmacy: One care of sick.

Donations of vegetables and meats, milk and fruit would help the Lions club in what seems to this reporter an outstanding relief project. No salary is paid to any person connected with the work and the necessary buying is done so carefully that so far an outlay of less than $70, including $10 for rent of the kitchen, has been made.

CHAMBER BUDGET COMMITTEE ASKS MINIMUM LEVIES

The budget committee is meeting this afternoon for final consideration of the budget for the year. It is expected that first publication of the document will be tomorrow, so that the public hearing thereon can be called before Christmas. The law requires that the public hearing be held not less than 20 days after the first publication.

Yesterday afternoon the budget committee heard the Chamber of Commerce committee, which urged that "all the levies be cut to the minimum, wherever possible." The committee was composed of W. H. Gore, H. S. Deuel, Hamilton Patton, George Iverson, O. C. Boggs and others.

As the budget now stands, the levy for general road fund is practically eliminated, with a market road fund of $21,850 and an emergency fund of $2000. The general county fund has been placed at $159,355.50. Last year the same fund was $200,073.25.

The levy for the schools, however, is still high, as it is barricaded with mandatory state laws, in many instances approved both by the legislature and the vote of the people.

The fund for county schools is placed at $102,875.00; for high schools $31,800, and for elementary schools $60,000.

Funds for the maintenance of roads and bridges was cut yesterday from $25,000 to $20,000. The bridge item was held vital. The county obligated for the maintenance of bridges over irrigation ditches, besides the bridges on roads throughout the county. The budget committee took the position that keeping the bridges in tip-top shape was practical because, should one crumble beneath an auto the county would face a suit for damages that might cost more in a court judgment than the saving.

For road improvements, $19,000 was listed, including the extension of North Court street, to join with North Central avenue, for a direct route into the city, leaving North Riverside avenue to tourist travel and reduce the traffic congestion. This item would cost about $3000. The balance was for the improvement of roads, chiefly on the east side of the valley, used for hauling of fruit, and outlets for large orchards.

The county court said the Court street project preliminaries had been completed, and that its furtherance was necessary to safeguard monies already expended.

As far as possible, all expenditure of money for road work will be used to provide employment.

The treasurer was instructed by the budget committee to prepare a statement, showing the amounts in the various interest bond funds for 1933, with the object of reducing the levy for this purpose.

SALEM CONCERNS DUPED BY CHECKS IN MEYER'S PATH

Harold F. Meyer, 22, arrested Tuesday night when he passed a worthless check for $5 at the Toggery, was arraigned before Judge Glenn O. Taylor in city court this morning and was bound over to the grand jury on $1000 bail. He waived preliminary examination.

Information received last evening from Salem showed that eight spurious checks had been passed by Meyer in that city, instead of four as Meyer had stated in his confession. These listed from the northern city were Salem Drug company, $2; Opera House Pharmacy, $1; Montgomery Ward and company, $5; Central Pharmacy, $3; Man's Stop, $5; J. C. Penney, $5; Miller Clothing store and Bly Pool hall.

Roseburg authorities said that two checks for $6 were passed in Roseburg, by an "E. Meyer," who is thought to be the same person.

The other four youths, arrested with Meyer, are being held until information is received from Salem whether or not they will be returned there.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sore and sunk and the world looks black, it's a warning. You're getting a little laxative water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your drowsy-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a tired and tense and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely. They make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle, reliable ingredients, amazing for their ease in making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Never a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.
