Mrs. Newbury to Sponsor Benefit Bridge Party.
Mrs. Gus Newbury, joining in the county-wide movement among society folk to make their entertaining of benefit to the relief program, so greatly needed this season, announced this morning that she will sponsor a duplicate contract bridge tournament at the women's club rooms, recently opened in the city hall, Tuesday afternoon, December 6.
All funds realized from the party will be donated to the Lions' Community Relief kitchen, where the number of unemployed dining is increasing with each day.
Playing will begin at 2 o'clock and Mrs. Newbury asks that all bridge fans of the city come to the party to give their support to this worthy cause. Those planning to attend are asked to call her for reservations.
The new club rooms, formally opened Monday at the benefit bridge party and tea, sponsored by the Greater Medford club and other groups, form an attractive and appropriate setting for bridge parties, and it is hoped many events will be held there during the coming social season.

Bridge Club Has Pleasant Meeting at Barker Home
At the country home of Mrs. R. A. Barker, Talent, the Building Bridge club met yesterday for a pleasant afternoon of cards. The rooms of Mrs. Barker's home were beautifully decorated in a pre-Christmas scheme with red berries and autumn leaves blending into pleasing color effects.
Assisting Mrs. Barker as hostess, was Mrs. A. V. Graves of this city. There were four tables in play during the afternoon as the guests awarded Mrs. G. R. Benschel and Miss Anne Kelleher. Miss Catherine Barker assisted the hostesses in serving refreshments.

Altar Society Begins Relief Sewing Program.
St. Ann's Altar society, at the meeting Tuesday afternoon completed plans for participating in the sewing program of the Red Cross to aid the unemployed. Sleeping robes will be made by the society and work has already started on this subject. It was reported today.
Plans for a card party to be held next Wednesday evening at Parish hall were also made at the Tuesday meeting. Arrangements are in charge of Mrs. W. H. Smith and members of the advisory board. Playing will begin at 8 o'clock and the public is cordially invited.

B. and P. W. Club Enjoys Luncheon and Program
The first luncheon meeting in the new club rooms, opened in the city hall, was held yesterday by the Business and Professional Women's club. Miss Winifred Walker, chairman of the emblem committee, arranging the event.
Luncheon, prepared by Miss Walker and her committee members, was served at small tables arranged about the rooms with autumn flowers for decorations.
The program included a piano solo by Mrs. Wm. McAllister; group singing, led by Miss Emily Brown; and a talk on control of health by business women, especially during an influenza epidemic such as is prevalent now, was given by Dr. Susie V. Standard. Miss Alice Morgan gave a report on the Roseburg conference. Mrs. Edwina Weishaar, president of the club, presided at luncheon and program. Miss Jane Steglock spoke on Oregon products and the work of the Women's Greater Oregon association, stressing the need for all persons to buy as near home as possible. There are in Medford 107 manufacturers, she informed the club members.
Following the luncheon program, plans were made for the next club's Christmas party, which will be held December 22, date of the next club meeting.

Committee Considers Plans for Club Dance.
Plans for the dancing party at St. Mark's Guild hall, scheduled for this evening, have been completed by the committee from the Formal Dancing club and much festivity is promised the numerous groups included in the invitation list.
Many guests will gather at homes for short receptions before continuing to the dance. The committee for the event is composed of Mrs. R. G. Bardwell, Mrs. Gilbert Stuart, Mrs. Fletcher Fish, Mrs. Donald Gray, Mrs. Robert Norris and Mrs. Rease Bruley.

Little Miss Humphreys Celebrates Birthday
Mrs. Goodwin Humphreys will entertain tomorrow with a theater party honoring her little daughter, Joan, on the occasion of her seventh birthday. Following the trip to the theater the guests will continue to the Humphreys home for game and refreshments.

WHAT THE NORTHWEST MAKES, MAKES THE NORTHWEST
A PAYROLL OF THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS is Sunshine Bakers' contribution each month to the welfare of the Pacific Northwest!

Sunshine Bakers are a definite part of the community they serve. The money your grocer pays for the Sunshine Biscuits you buy at his store flows back into the stream of industrial progress... in wages, taxes and purchases of raw materials.
When you say "Sunshine" to your grocer, therefore, you are indirectly helping to build up this great section of the country where you live and work... for "what the Northwest makes, makes the Northwest."

Sunshine Bakers make these dainty, slightly salted squares crispier, flakier, more flavorful. They're at your grocer's in big-value, blue packages NOW!
