Benefit Bridge Party Tomorrow to Be Large Affair

Outstanding in interest on this week's social calendar is the benefit duplicate contract bridge tournament to be sponsored tomorrow in the women's club rooms in the city hall by Mrs. Gus Newbury. All funds realized from the party will be donated to the Lions' relief kitchen.

Playing will begin at 2 o'clock, so all guests are urged by Mrs. Newbury to be at the club rooms at 1:45 o'clock in order to avoid any possible delay in starting the tournament. It will be necessary to place the players and to register them, and considerable time is required for placing the boards. Since it will be necessary to start at 2 o'clock in order to complete the duplicate contract tournament during the afternoon, all participants are urged to be at the hall at 1:45 to complete preparations before playing begins.

Among those who had reserved tables this morning are: Mrs. Donald Gray, Mrs. F. G. Thayer, Mrs. John Barney, Mrs. F. Corning Kenly, Mrs. Robert Hart, Mrs. David Rosenberg, Mrs. T. E. Daniels, Mrs. James H. Owen, Mrs. Evan Reames, Mrs. G. Glen Smith, Mrs. D. G. Tyree, Mrs. Edwin L. Knapp, Mrs. O. C. Alderfer, Mrs. F. G. Bunch, Mrs. John C. Boyle, Mrs. R. J. Henry, Mrs. J. F. Pfeleg, Mrs. A. W. Pipes, Mrs. George Dean, Mrs. Harry Prentice and Mrs. John O. Mann.

Those who do not intend to play are also asked to attend the tournament, and are invited to move about the rooms, watching the play, which will be directed by Mrs. Newbury, with the assistance of Mrs. Lois Day and Mrs. Estelle Quisenberry. Their contribution to the benefit fund will be the same as that of the players.

All but three tables had been reserved this morning and anyone else wishing to enter the tournament is urged to call Mrs. Newbury as soon as possible.

Altar Society Card Party Draws Much Interest
Many plans are being made among social groups this week for the card party announced by Mrs. Ann's Altar society for Wednesday evening in Parish hall. Mrs. W. H. Smith and members of the advisory board will be hostesses for the evening and a large attendance is anticipated.

The Altar society parties are favorites with many local card fans who are expected to be at the tables again Wednesday evening when playing begins.

Miss Hansen Fed at Shower Monday
A shower honoring Miss Anna Hansen, whose marriage to Roscoe Roberts will be an event of the near future, was given last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. A. H. Case. Following the presentation of many beautiful gifts to the honor guest, supper was served.

Those present were: Miss Jessie James, Miss Lorena Rose, Miss Elvreda Whitman, Miss Hazel Oliver, Miss Alice Case, Mrs. Henry Hansen, Mrs. Case and the honor guest, Miss Hansen.

A shower for Miss Hansen also was given by the Roxey Ann Grange Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Thornton, followed by a delightful luncheon. An interesting poem, written by A. H. Case, was read. Guests were Mrs. Henry Hansen, Mrs. Ansel Case, Mrs. Charles Rose, Mrs. Hal VonSlein, Mrs. Clarence Dedrick, Mrs. Ada Roberts, Mrs. Joe Thornton, Mrs. Mary Crum, Mrs. Elbert Kellogg, Mrs. A. D. Lewis, Mrs. Jack James, Mrs. Gene Cameron, Mrs. Burrell Redpath, Mrs. Jim Kerahaw, Mrs. Cole Andrews, Mrs. Frank Widner, Miss Ila Evans, Miss Celma Hansen and the honor guest, Miss Anna Hansen.

Greater Medford Club Electing Officers Today
The Greater Medford club is in meeting this afternoon in the new club rooms in the city hall, and will elect new officers to head the organization before the close of the session. Much interest in the meeting has been voiced in club and social circles and an extensive program to be carried on by the well known organization during the coming year is expected.

Former members of the club and many other interested women are attending the meeting.

Gifts for All Promised at Bazaar Wednesday

All in search of gifts to give at Christmas, and tea and cards to go along with the buying, are promised they will find just what they desire at the bazaar to be sponsored by St. Mark's Guild Wednesday of this week. The bazaar will open at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning and continue through the day. Suitable gifts for all will be on display in an inviting Christmas setting and bridge will be played during the afternoon. Tables are being arranged for both contract and auction and tea will be served following cards, with an especially low charge on the two, enabling those who do not intend to buy, in case there should be any such folk after the gifts are viewed, to enjoy an afternoon of tea and cards.

Capable committees are giving much time to the event, in hope that the Guild hall will be the gathering place of many in search of both gifts and entertainment Wednesday. Working on the committees are Mrs. R. E. Swan, Mrs. Gwendolyn Woodcock, Mrs. R. H. Paxson, Mrs. J. A. McDougall, Mrs. Chas. Strang, Mrs. Hal Platt, Mrs. Edwin L. Knapp, Mrs. E. W. Gould, Mrs. John Barney, Mrs. R. C. Mulholland, Mrs. C. W. Ellis, Mrs. M. W. Wagner and Mrs. H. W. Hamlin.

P-T. A. Workers Sell Marionette Show Tickets
The chairmen from each school with corps of assistants, have reported to Mrs. Jack Heyland the council president, that there has been a splendid response from every one in buying tickets for the Hollywood Marionette show which is being sponsored by the Parent-Teacher organization here December 8th. There is a friendly bit of rivalry among each of the grade schools which can sell the greatest number of tickets as each school will get its own proportionate percentage from the lunch room.

To respond to the appeal of the hungry child, local folk are asked to purchase tickets to the marionette show, a clean and clever bit of entertainment, and a fine response is reported from numerous districts.

The cast of the company includes over fifty real portrait puppets of famous movie stars. Among them are Ann Harding, Richard Dix, Will Rogers, Marie Dressler and Joe E. Brown.

The Junior high matinee will include vaudeville skits, and for the grade children a matinee performance of "Cinderella" will be presented at 3 o'clock. Unlike the usual production of this ever-popular fairy tale this performance is unique in that it is presented in a Spanish setting, which adds greatly to the color and beauty of the show.

Special acts of vaudeville will be added as a feature of the program. Among these are a lovely ice skating act featuring Marion Nixon and Edward Everett Horton. Joe E. Brown clowns in a light hope walking act. William Powell appears as a hooper and there is a saxophone surprise.

The evening show, "The Lost Adams Diggin'" is a romance of a legendary gold mine, featuring portrait puppets of Clark Gable, Janet Gaynor, Ernest Torrence, William Powell, Tilly Marshall and Richard Dix.

Anyone desiring tickets is asked to phone one of the following: Mesdames Jack Heyland, Stanley Jones, B. R. Finch, H. F. Nordwick and G. D'Albini or Ethel Florey and tickets will be delivered. These tickets will be acceptable at all shows at the Junior high, matinee or evening. Matinees will open at one and three o'clock and the evening show at 7:30. A different program will be given each time.

Lady Elks Meet in Temple Tuesday
Lady Elks are invited to meet at the temple tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock for bridge and pool. The hostess for the afternoon will be Mrs. R. E. Jones.

Y. W. C. A.
Monday evening, Contract Bridge, Tuesday (first and third) Music Appreciation by Mrs. Nason. Wednesday, Junior high group, 5 to 8. 6:30 to 8 Badminton in Armory, 8 to 9, Basketball at Junior high.

Thursday, Dramatic club, 7 to 9, by Mrs. Hamilton Patton. Saturday afternoon, 4 to 6, Senior high book club.

If enough women are interested in forming an afternoon law club, in which the study of such legal practices as mortgages, titles, contracts, wills, budgeting, deeds, insurance, stocks and bonds, are studied, call Miss Margaret Kerr, Phone 77, and this club will be formed, under competent instruction.

If enough girls are interested in a club in Correct English, call Miss Kerr, at 77 and this will be formed. A Bible Study club may be formed also, if desired. Last year the Bible Study club, under the splendid and spiritual leadership of Mrs. Warner, was one of the best activities of the year, and the best attended.

Many gifts have been made the Y.W.C.A. recently, for which the Board and the girls extend gracious appreciation. The public is invited to visit the club rooms at convenient hours to the matron, Mrs. Oldenburg, and see the transformation in the headquarters, inviting in beauty and warmth. Rooms are available, too, at a very low price. They may be rented for short periods, or for longer periods, and the occupants will find a warm welcome from "The Biggest Sister in the World."

The Y.W.C.A. extends sincere appreciation to the following for the gifts mentioned: H. S. Deuel, wood; Dr. B. R. Elliott, wood; W. H. Leverette, wood; Mrs. Alfred Carpenter, Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, Mrs. Corbin Edgell, Mrs. J. J. Cummings, Mrs. George M. Roberts, Mrs. Paul Janney, Mrs. R. J. Henry, Mrs. J. E. Schuler, furniture and lamps; Mrs. A. E. Reames, general assistance.

Gifts of time, too, are much appreciated and the following are given special mention: Mrs. Nason, music appreciation; Mrs. Hamilton Patton, dramatics; Miss Laura Drury and all who assisted her at recitals; Mrs. Bateman and Miss Kelly for Girl Scout work, and Mrs. Gus Newbury, contract bridge.

The Y.W.C.A. board will meet at the "Y" Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock. The meeting will be in the form of a pot luck supper.

Activities of Legion Auxiliary

The American Legion Auxiliary met last Monday night, November 28th, at the club rooms in the Armory. The meeting was well attended and several matters of importance were attended to during the evening. This was our business meeting for November. It was voted to send a check each month to the Veterans' hospital in Portland to aid in their cheer work. The hospital authorities are always glad to have any members of the Auxiliary visit the hospital when they are visiting in Portland. It is wonderful to see Mrs. Weber, the hospital chairman of Oregon, can help these poor crippled veterans with a cheery word or a package of candy or cigarettes.

Monday night, tonight, is the regular meeting of the Sewing club in the Welfare room over the Medford National Bank building. All members of the Auxiliary are urged to attend. This welfare work is just as important now as it was during the war. The men, women and children in Jackson county that are in need must have warm clothing for the winter and the Red Cross is furnishing the necessary supplies to make these garments so come out and help. You do not have to be a seamstress to help. Mrs. Parker will have enough work for all.

Monday night, Dec. 12th, will be the Auxiliary annual Christmas frolic. This is to be held in the club rooms at the Armory. The committee under the direction of Mrs. Roy Watson is preparing a delightful evening with entertainment, tree and refreshments.

The annual quart and pound show will be held that evening. Each person attending is asked to bring a quart or pound of some non-perishable food. This is to be used in our Christmas baskets, and a gift for the tree. Each year the Auxiliary provides many families with Christmas dinner.

The conference on December 15th is not for officers of the Auxiliary only, all members are welcome and urged to attend. There is to be an afternoon meeting at the Armory club rooms beginning about 2 p. m. The banquet is to be held at the Hotel Medford. The time will be announced later. All Auxiliary members are asked to plan on attending the banquet and dance to be held after the evening session. It has been planned to have a joint banquet with the Legion officials. The Legion and Auxiliary committees for this event have been appointed and are working out plans for a very pleasant evening. Members of Grants Pass, Kerby, Klamath Falls and Ashland Legion and Auxiliary posts will be present. It is quite an honor for Medford to be chosen as the meeting place so each member watch this column for further news on this subject. Each member can help by being among those present on that evening. The time and place for the dance will be announced next Sunday.

The eleventh lecture composed by the National Coalition Society was given by Mrs. J. W. Jacobs, our first Auxiliary president. These lectures over KMBD are given each Saturday from 1 p. m. to 1:15 p. m. Each week the lectures are attracting more attention and more people are enjoying this stimulating educational feature.

SCOUTING AWARDS WAIT MANY BOYS AT HONOR COURT

Many awards will be presented at the Boy Scouts Court of Honor this evening. This court of honor should mark a red letter day in the Medford Scouting, with three eagle badges to be awarded and over 30 merit badges and advancements. The Scouts' interest in the program and activities is keen.

The Scouts who will appear at Court of Honor for awards are: Jack Heyland, advance to first class; Dorris Barrett, receive first aid merit badge; Bill Walker, awarded badges in electricity, and leatherwork; firemanship merit badge to Lawrence Philippe; Robert Gall receives signaling badge; Lucien Smith, advance to rank of star and awarded merit badges in cycling, handicraft, and leatherwork; Delmer Wright, receives badge in public health; Melvin Miller has completed his tests for the handicraft merit badge and Bob Hayes is qualified for the leathercraft award. Jim Horner will be given the bugling merit badge. Scout Horner will be one of the new Eagle Scouts and has earned this merit badge in addition. An Eagle Scout, upon the completion of five additional merit badges and six months' service, is awarded a bronze palm.

All applications for this Court of Honor must be in at headquarters not later than five o'clock Monday.

The three Eagle badges to be awarded to Cleo Hicks, Carl Slough, and Jim Horner will be presented by Larry Schade, president of the Medford district. Don Newbury, chairman of Court of Honor, will officiate as judge. The court will be held in the auditorium of the court house Monday evening at eight o'clock. A large attendance is anticipated for this court, to which everyone is invited and is urged to come.

The invitation to be sent is an attractive design, prepared by Henry Gates, staff artist for the Peoria, Ill., "Star," and depicts the progress of Oregon during the past 75 years. Using the design as a background, the printed invitation states the general objectives of the event, and will be followed from time to time with additional reminders of the celebration, during the 14 months interval between now and the scheduled time, June 6, 1934.

An added incentive for Medford to stage the diamond celebration for the state of Oregon lies in the fact that the same year, 1934, is also the 50th anniversary of the incorporation of the city of Medford, according to local historians, and the chamber publicity committee is planning on using this fact as additional argument for having the local celebration made the official one for the entire state of Oregon.

In connection with the invitations sent to newspapers and radio stations, special news stories are being prepared to be released at the time the invitations are received. It is expected that a vast amount of publicity for Medford and the southern Oregon area will come through this means. The committee is also preparing a series of articles for different magazines on the Pacific coast, using the celebration idea as a background for more publicity.

It is requested that Medford residents having relatives and friends in other parts of the country send them invitations to the celebration. Copies of the invitation may be secured at the chamber of commerce.

WILL BROADCAST INVITATIONS FOR DIAMOND JUBILEE

Invitations to the proposed Oregon Diamond Jubilee celebration which is planned for Medford and Jacksonville, in June, 1934, are now being printed, and will be distributed in large quantities during the next week, according to C. L. MacDonald, chairman of the publicity committee of the chamber of commerce. All newspapers and other publications, radio stations, travel associations, etc., on the Pacific Coast, as well as a selected list of distinguished persons throughout the country, will receive formal invitations. It was announced last night.
