

DIAMOND DOCTORS STAGE CLINIC FOR MINOR LEAGUERS

Committee of Five Draws List of Needs After Long Study—Salary Cut Idea Will Stir Fuss, Is Fear

By James L. Benick. (Associated Press Sports Writer.) COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 7.—(AP)—With the fate of minor league baseball practically hanging in the balance...

Battle Over Salary Limit. If the committee's plan is adopted, the office of president and treasurer will be consolidated when officers are selected.

To Promote Rivalries. A closer supervision of the geographical make-up of leagues to eliminate expensive jumps and to promote civic rivalry between cities is proposed by the committee.

Several leagues have been forced to suspend operation in mid-season, due to major league clubs withdrawing support from their "farms."

Other proposals by the group include stricter enforcement of legislation against tampering with players; continuance of a minor league press bureau; and a recommendation that broadcasting of home games be discontinued.
