AUTOIST UNHURT AS CAR SMASHED

PORTLAND, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Although his automobile was reduced to junk, D. A. Price, 50, escaped with minor cuts and abrasions last night when he lost control of the car and crashed over a 350-foot bank on Terwilliger boulevard. At Emergency hospital it was said his main injury was loss of a large lock of hair which had been pulled from his scalp.

To Sell Chinese Wheat. SPOKANE, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Senator C. C. Dill, Washington Democrat, advised the Chronicle today that negotiations for the credit sale of 15,000,000 bushels of wheat to China have been reopened and that the deal is "likely to be consummated soon."

LEGION LEADERS MAY ABANDON BONUS PAYMENT

will probably be a flood of applications to retire on pension. Necessary replacements plus additional persons would use up a lot more money than the cut would save.

TAXES—Semi-annual city tax collections came in surprisingly well toward the end of November. If the final figures hold to average the banks may not be able to put on their pressure act in December after all.

SOCIALISTS—The split in the Socialist party due to the poor showing in the election is assuming serious proportions. Norman Thomas and Waldman are on one side of the fence—Hillquit and his followers on the other. Thomas is in favor of making doctrinaire concessions to enlist the support of other groups which are frightened by the term Socialist.

Hillquit is all for sticking to the party's guns. There is a possibility that the split may lead to the formation of a new liberal party. The first real test will come at the municipal election next year.

FARMERS—Financial leaders are keenly interested in the "domestic allotment" plan to relieve the farmer. They understand that Roosevelt is giving it serious consideration.

The plan provides a government subsidy for farmers who voluntarily agree to reduce their acreage—the subsidy to cover the difference between open market prices and actual cost of production including mortgage interest, etc. For instance, if wheat were selling at 45 cents a bushel and the costs were figured at 60 cents, the government would make up the 15 cents to co-operating farmers.

The subsidy is supposed to be paid from taxes on the processing of wheat (in the case of wheat) such as bread, breakfast cereals, etc. Informed opinion here doubts that such taxes could be enacted. The emotional values involved are certain to interfere with clear thinking. But it is felt that some such effort must be made to put the farm purchasing power on a parity with industrial purchasing power when the upturn shows.

BEER—Among the stock market securities to which beer is expected to give a tilt are Owens Illinois Glass and General American Tank.

The former will make about $2 a share this year. As prospects run, next year should be about $1.50. But if beer goes through there should be about $4 a share extra earned on the first year.

The tank car people scrapped 3000 beer carriers after prohibition came in. In the dairy trade and soft drink field they found new uses for cars and today have 5000 big new modern cars ready for the world. They can take on from 10 per cent to 20 per cent new business and have the bulk of it for the profit column. Beer will do the trick—and the brewers have already made their contracts.

REVIVAL SERVICES AT APOSTOLIC FAITH WIN INCREASING INTEREST

Revival services at the Apostolic Faith, 42 North Front street, are continuing another week. Large crowds are attending. Rev. R. R. Crawford, from the headquarters in Portland, says, "I do not know of a time in the world when men's hearts were more solemnized and when people were being more serious thinking than they are at the present days; and we are thankful that it is possible to get the reality of the old-time religion down in the heart even in these days."

A feature of the meetings is the old-fashioned testimonies which are a part of every service; and the wide variety of testimonies assures even the casual hearer that the work is being marked with great success.

The sacred concerts rendered at the beginning of each service by the concert trio (violin, cello and piano) are very much enjoyed, as well as the special vocal numbers. The Morning Star quartet sings old-time gospel songs and negro spirituals arranged and harmonized in a manner which pleases all who listen.

The services are as follows: Sunday, 10:30 and 7:30, and every evening except Monday and Saturday, 7:45. The public is invited. And another fact worthy of mention is that no collections are ever taken in any of the meetings and the public is never solicited for money.
