MINISTERS OF VALLEY MEET AT CENTRAL PT. ALL DAY ON MONDAY

Ministers of the Rogue River valley will meet for an all-day session at Central Point, Monday, December 12. The first session of the day will be at 10:30 for devotions and business. Dr. Frank Wettest, pastor of the Methodist church in Grants Pass, will be the principal speaker in the afternoon session.

All ministers' wives are to be present and will furnish covered dish and sandwich lunch at the noon hour.

These meetings will be held in the Federated church, of which the Rev. J. M. Johnson is pastor. He is also president of the Ministerial association.

The Rev. B. E. A. Hoffman of Grants Pass is secretary.

The November meeting was held in the First M. E. church of Medford with the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Bennett, and the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Kabele of the Lutheran church in charge. The occasion was a delightful one, largely attended by ministers and their wives.

Several pastors, newcomers to the Rogue valley churches, were introduced and responded happily to the cordial welcome.

Warm Rooms For Everyman's Bible Class Meeting

Never mind the cold weather. Attend Everyman's Bible class at the auditorium of the new court house today at 9:30 sharp. Nice, comfortable room, singing by the class and special music. Splendid talks on a timely subject by W. R. Baird, the teacher, who understands topics men enjoy hearing, and fellowship of others all in one hour's time, are the attractions offered.

All men, young and old, are earnestly invited. If you attend once you will be a regular member.

SPECIAL CENTRAL PT. SERVICES END TODAY

"The Burial of the Gentiles and the Resurrection of Israel" will be the subject which Rev. Joseph S. Flacks will discuss in the Central Point Federated church in the closing service of the special meetings there. An invitation is extended to all.

The public is cordially invited to all public services and gatherings.

SOUTHERN OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Ashland, Dec. 10. (Sp1.)

Last of the fall term examinations will take place December 16, it was announced yesterday by Katherine M. Vincent, registrar, and the Christmas vacation will begin at the conclusion of that day's tests. Examinations are listed for Thursday.

Final edition of the "Slakyou," student newspaper, will be circulated the first of the week preceding the examination dates. The issuing of the paper will mark the end of student activity and officially wind up the fall term.

Pre-registration will also be available through the registrar's office all week, it was stated. This convenience enables students to select their courses for the winter term so that all the confusion of enrollment is eliminated as the students merely go through the formality of registering and paying their fees when they return to school following the Christmas holidays.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10. (AP) - The stock market appeared somewhat worried today by the effort of the advance late yesterday, and prices drifted irresolutely.

A little selling appeared here and there, and some of the leading shares lost ground moderately, but price changes were mostly of negligible proportions. The closing tone was about steady. Turnover was about a half a million shares.

Today's closing prices for 30 selected stocks follow:
