ROLLA A. TAYLOR OF JACKSONVILLE PASSES, AGED 84

Rolla A. Taylor, Civil war veteran, 84 years of age, passed away at his home in Jacksonville, December 11. He was born at Fairfield, Iowa, July 31, 1848. He enlisted in the 7th Kansas cavalry. After the war he was united in marriage to Dilcy F. Bonham at Lawrence, Kansas, to whom were born nine children, six of whom survive.

Mr. Taylor was a member of the Congregational church and always lived a Christian life and was a devoted husband and father.

Besides his wife, Dilcy Taylor, the following are the surviving children: Mrs. Lillian Huffman, Aberdeen, Wn.; Mrs. Lydia Jones, Kellogg, Idaho; Adrian Taylor, Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Aberdeen, and Jules and John Taylor of Jacksonville.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Conger chapel by Rev. Howell at 1:30 Wednesday. Interment in Siskiyou Memorial park will be under auspices of the local G. A. R. with the American Legion assisting.

DANCE CLASS TRAINS FOR APPEARANCE AT EAGLES CHARITY BALL

Chief among the features to entertain the dancers at the Eagles' charity dance at the Dreamland dance hall Wednesday night, December 14, will be a dance program by the dancing class of Miss Ruth Luy, dancing instructor. "An All-American Girl" will be the "idea" of the dance, and Miss Luy has been working for several days to perfect the dance for the occasion.

Ticket sales for the dance are going strong, according to Jack Hueston, in charge of the relief program, and a huge crowd is expected. The "Oregon Pioneers" will furnish the music. Each ticket purchased adds just enough to the warehouse to be opened by the Eagles for the poor during winter, as the Eagles lodge profits not a cent by the dance.

Negotiations are under way for the renting of a warehouse, and the building formerly occupied by the Model Bakery, on West Main street may be used, Hueston said.

The dance will start at 9:00 o'clock tomorrow night, Hueston said, and the dancing feature by Miss Luy's dancing class will be at 9:30 o'clock.

VETERANS PLAN PARTY FOR KIDS

As Christmas draws near extensive plans are being made by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auxiliary here for the party to be staged at the Armory, December 23, in the form of a community tree. Letters are being received in great numbers in the "What Christmas Means to Me" contest, winners of which will receive important prizes at the tree in the Armory. All children under 10 years of age, who wish to compete, are urged to take or mail their letters at once to the chamber of Commerce, in care of the Christmas contest manager. They must be limited to 100 words in length.

All children under 10 years of age intending to come to the tree, and all are invited, are asked to fill in the coupon appearing in the Mail Tribune today and to take it or mail it to the Chamber of Commerce, in order that the veterans and auxiliary members will know how many children will be present the evening of December 23, when Santa Claus arrives.

Prizes for writers of the best letters will be awarded by Medford merchants and hosts of other features are planned for the evening.

Regular convention of Reames Chapter, O. E. S., Wednesday evening, December 14, at 8 o'clock. Election of officers and social night. Visiting members welcome.

HATTIE M. ALDEN, Secy.

SOCIETY and Clubs

Royal Neighbors To Observe Christmas. A Christmas tree and entertainment will be held Thursday evening, December 15, by the Royal Neighbors lodge. Gifts will be exchanged and each adult member and each child is asked to bring a present for the tree.

A bazaar will be held the same evening and the public is invited to attend. Persons donating things to the bazaar are asked to leave them at the Eagles' hall Thursday afternoon if possible.

Women's Association To Meet Wednesday. Women's Association of the First Christian church will meet Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors. It was announced today Mrs. Ernest N. Biden's group will be in charge of the entertainment.

Election of officers will be conducted during the afternoon, as all members are requested to be in attendance.
