Kitchens Humming—Christmas Is Near

It's Time To Make Yuletide Confections Once More

Home-made confections, like those above, add an old-fashioned touch to Christmas, or wrapped in gay holiday paper, they make fitting personal gifts.

By MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE

Once again the kitchen has become the scene of bustling activity in the preparations of old-fashioned Yuletide goodies—for Christmas will soon be here.

Both for family feasting and for gift baskets, home-made delicacies provide an old-time Christmas flavor. Without them, Christmas morning hardly would seem complete.

If you choose, jars of mincemeat, fruity spice cakes, puddings and cookies, glasses of jams and marmalades, salted nuts, preserved fruit peels and candies in gay holiday wrappings can be given to friends for they make fitting personal gifts. They're economical also.

Following are recipes for delicious Christmas confections:

German Almond Cookies

1 cup fat
2 cups light brown sugar.
3 eggs.
1 teaspoon vanilla.
2 teaspoons cinnamon.
1 teaspoon cloves.
½ teaspoon nutmeg.
½ teaspoon salt.
1 cup shredded almonds.
3½ cups flour.
1 teaspoon soda.

Cream the fat and sugar. Add eggs and beat well.. Add rest of ingredients. Break off bits of dough and flatten down, three inches apart on greased baking sheets. Bake 12 minutes in moderate oven.

1 cup sugar.
1 cup pastry flour.
1 teaspoon baking powder.
1 teaspoon salt.
1 cup chopped datea.
1 cup nuts.

Fudge Frosting

1 cup sugar.
1 square chocolate.
½ cup milk.
1 tablespoon butter.
½ teaspoon vanilla.

3½ cups flour.
1 teaspoon soda.

Cream the fat and sugar. Add eggs and cream and beat 2 minutes. Add rest of ingredients. Mix well and drop portions from end of spoon onto greased baking sheets. Flatten and bake 12 minutes in moderate oven.

$3 LICENSE FEE ON AUTOMOBILES URGED BY HOSS

Ten-Fold Plan Includes Levying of Property Tax On Machines — No Increase in Gas Tax Advocated

PORTLAND, Dec. 13.—(AP)—A flat $3 license fee for passenger automobiles and light trucks, with no increase in the gas tax, is favored by Hal E. Hoss, secretary of state.

The secretary, in an address before the annual convention of Oregon county judges and commissioners here late Monday, declared that Oregon can reduce the license fee to $3 and at the same time maintain its highway program and meet its highway indebtedness.

Has Ten-Fold Plan.

A ten-fold plan which he said he prepared from his experience as administrator of the motor vehicle registration act and the gasoline tax laws, was explained by Hoss. It is:

1. Registration fee on private passenger cars and small private trucks of $3 each, with no half-year discount.
2. No increase in gas tax.
3. License of trucks on weight basis.
4. Adjustment of additional fees now charged to common carriers, contract haulers and commercial carriers.
5. Counties to raise their share of income by property tax on cars.
6. Equalization of tax on distillate and gasoline, all motor vehicle fuel to be taxed 4 cents a gallon.
7. Repeal of refund provision of fuel tax law, abolishing department handling that work, or enactment of strict regulations increasing appropriation for investigation and field work.
8. Discontinuation of registration of tourists, abolishing department handling that work.
9. Putting into effect automatically savings in administration of registration and police departments.
10. Change of registration year from July 1 back to January 1, making the first registration period from July 1, 1933, to January 1, 1935, for which motorists would pay $4.50, and thereafter $3 a calendar year.

Such a plan, Hoss believes, would keep 10,000 Oregon motorists from buying their licenses in Washington and California. The average automobile would yield a property tax, he believes, of $7.33, with which counties would pay their road money in lieu of their present one-third of the motor vehicle license fund.

Hoss estimated the plan would produce more than $9,100,000 which the highway commission has declared is necessary. This is made up as follows: Total registration fees, $1,799,109 on the basis of this year's registration; motor transport fees, $594,414; gasoline taxes, $5,906,030, for a total net revenue of $7,480,292. Hoss said additional revenue through savings and income would amount to $2,087,000, making the total income of $9,567,292.

Earlier in the day, Leslie M. Scott, chairman of the highway commission, had warned against drastic cutting of license fees, declaring it would wreck the highway program. But, he said, "the first duty of all of us is to ease, as best we can, the terrific tax burden of the people whose servants we are."

Seaman Acquitted On Slaying Charge

PORTLAND, Dec. 13.—(AP)—James Mastropavlos, 35, a seaman, was acquitted by a circuit court jury here late Monday of the charge of first degree murder in connection with the recent fatal stabbing of Otto Geis in the latter's apartment. Mastropavlos pleaded self-defense after Geis had attacked him with a butcher knife.
