Lady Lions Gain Many Dolls for Needy Children

A jolly party was held yesterday by the Lady Lions at the home of Mrs. L. Pennington on the Jacksonville road. The beautiful Christmas tree, decorated for the occasion, was crowded with dolls before all guests had arrived, each being requested to add one to the supply to be distributed to needy children sometime next week by the Lady Lions, who will act as Santa's helpers.

Covered dish luncheon was followed by bridge and sewing for the doll family. High score at cards was held by Mrs. J. Verne Shangle. A number of dolls were dressed for their Christmas debut before the close of the afternoon.

Mrs. D. G. Tyro and Mrs. Wm. Holloway assisted the hostess in entertaining and Mrs. Thos. Judge of the Medford Greenhouse sent flowers for the tables and a lovely dressed doll for the Christmas tree project.

Altar Society Plans Post-Christmas Benefit

Plans for a benefit card party to be held December 28 were made at the meeting of St. Ann's Altar society Tuesday afternoon. An invitation to the event will be extended the public and a large attendance is anticipated.

At the Tuesday meeting members responded to roll-call with Christmas thoughts and cheery suggestions and work for the Red Cross was completed. Mrs. A. V. Graves, named chairman of the Altar society's participation in the sale of Christmas seals, appointed the following committee to assist her at the postoffice and sub-station Monday, December 19: Mrs. Stella Anderson, Mrs. Rose Scheffelin, Mrs. W. H. Smith and Miss Anne Kellhor. These workers will be stationed at the two locations that day to aid the sale of the little stamps, which bring health and happiness to children throughout the nation.

Made Lovers to Hear Gleemen Again
Medford music lovers welcome the news that the Gleemen will appear in another program this coming Friday night, the first out-of-town appearance of the local organization. The chorus will sing at the reopening of the Ashland theater, under the management of Walter Leverette of this city, and many folk are planning to escort the Gleemen to the neighboring town.

The recent formal concert of the Gleemen was so enthusiastically received that plans for future programs are rapidly developing under the able direction of James Stevens, director and soloist, with Sebastian Apollo, accompanist.

The regular meeting of the Washington Parent-Teacher association will be held tomorrow afternoon and an interesting play has been prepared for the program by Mrs. Oscar Hoover. The title is "What, No Christmas?"

A report on progress of the school kitchen, where many children are being fed hot lunches each day will be made. The dishes and equipment, purchased with funds realized from the marionette show recently sponsored here, have arrived. And the children are enjoying hot lunches each day. For many of them, according to the report, the hot lunch received at school constitutes the only hot meal of the day, and the children are given all they can eat at the school kitchen in order to help them through the week, which holds little else for them in the way of food and warmth.
