

3500 CHILDREN TESTED FOR T. B. THROUGH SEALS

More than 3500 children in Oregon have been given the tuberculin test during the past two years through the various health agencies, assisted by the National Tuberculosis association, and many of these are Jackson county children. Tuberculin is administered where necessary, rules for proper care taught, hospitalization ordered in some instances, and protection of those exposed to this communicable disease provided.

Much concern is being expressed throughout the country at the curtailment of funds for carrying on the various lines of health protection and the following is an extract from an appeal being sent out to all state chairmen of public health by the public welfare department of the General Federation of Women's clubs.

"Throughout our land, governmental economies are seriously threatening the foundation which we have labored these many years to build, and are seeking to tear down our health structures."

"If American stability is to survive, then the health of our people must be our first consideration. National, state, and local health budgets must not be slashed. Our health standards must be maintained and improved against all odds. We must work for constructive, not destructive, economy."

"Two million and more clubwomen will join forces with national, state, and municipal health departments in protesting against all so-called economic policies which endanger our national health—the vitality of America will be preserved. Enlist now in the cause of human welfare. It is your responsibility."

The Jackson County Public Health association, with its record of 1500 children treated in dental clinics alone has recognized its responsibility for public welfare. The Christmas seal sale must be depended upon for a large part of the funds to carry on this work. It makes possible also throughout the nation the fight against the ravages of tuberculosis, which has a fertile field for development at the present time in the many cases of undernourishment. Such conditions in Jackson county are daily being brought to the attention of health workers.

With only 7 more days to raise the amount hoped for through the Christmas seal sale, every effort is being made by all committees to urge every person in the county to help in this way to give each child its right to health and happiness.

The post office and sub-station seal sales were under the supervision of Mrs. F. G. Thayer today, assisted by Mrs. R. W. Steeter, Mrs. Ed. Walley, Mrs. Bert Noblit, Mrs. Edwin L. Knapp, Mrs. W. M. VanSoy, Mrs. Helen Holt Wilson and Miss Ella Rawlings.

Tomorrow Mrs. C. G. Lemmon will be assisted by Mrs. R. C. Mulholland, Mrs. A. R. Edwin, Mrs. D. S. Libbey, Mrs. R. W. Stearns and Mrs. D. G. Tyre.

MUD MAY HELP OREGON GRIDMEN

BATON ROUGE, La., Dec. 16.—(AP)—While the University of Oregon football players rejoiced at prospects of cold weather for their inter-sectional clash here tomorrow with Louisiana State university, the southern Tigers viewed with dismay the possibility that the game will be played on a muddy field.

The westerners' attack will consist principally of power plays, built around their giant lineemen and backs, while the L. S. U. team plans to rely upon speed and deception.

On a muddy field Tiger fans believe the Louisiana team will be at a disadvantage, for the invaders outweigh the L. S. U. line some 10 or 12 pounds to the man.

Weather forecasters, however, predicted continued cold weather with possible rains on Saturday.

FLORIDA WELCOME WAITS UCLAN REST

GAINESVILLE, Fla., Dec. 16.—(AP)—California's Uclan slipped quietly into Gainesville shortly after midnight today and the very appearance of their Pullmans brought an increase in the already big odds that they would be the victors in tomorrow's inter-sectional battle with Florida.

A band of several hundred University of Florida students was on hand to extend a welcome, but soon dispersed when officials of the party appeared on the platform and asked that the visitors be allowed to rest until practice time this morning.

Baker—Miller, automobile agents, moved front of their garage, Fourth and Broadway, back several feet to make room for two additional gas pumps and driveways.

Oregon City—Fifth annual potato show and second annual corn show held recently.

Gold Beach—Gold Beach auto camp building new unit of three cottages at north end of camp ground.

HOME CHRISTMAS HOPE OF LOCAL MEN IN PRISON

Applications for paroles for a number of the Jackson county prisoners in state prison, who have served minimum sentences, will be acted upon by the state parole board, within the next few days. The successful ones will be able to spend Christmas with the home folks. There are six or seven inmates serving short terms from this county, who if they have been "good boys in the big house" will be freed soon.

The state parole board has a complete record of each prisoner, almost from the cradle, and their previous criminal activities are taken into consideration, in extending clemency, also the number of times they have been given paroles without good results.

The three DeAutremonts, serving life for the Siskiyou tunnel train robbery murders, each year filed application for a parole, as a matter of form to keep the records straight, but with no hope of getting it. Sheriff Jennings has a standing recommendation of "no parole" for the bloodthirsty brothers. Reports from Salem say that Ray DeAutremont was "put out" by recent radio and press reports of the crime.

Two other inmates from this county are serving life terms. They are Jack Dougherty, a three-time loser, sentenced as a habitual criminal for torturing an aged junkdealer in an effort to make him reveal the hiding place of his wealth, and Albert W. Reed, of Denver, Colo., sentenced for complicity in the slaying of Victor Knott, Ashland special policeman.

Reed, a model prisoner, plus his hope of early freedom on a re-hearing petition to the state supreme court, King and friends in Colorado are now assembling funds for this purpose.

BOUNTY WARRANTS IN 15 DAYS BRING $345

During the first 15 days of December bounty warrants for coyote and bobcat were issued by the county clerk's office, amounting to $345, according to figures compiled from the records. The largest amount paid in one check was $89 to Vernon Hopkins of Ashland last Saturday for 12 coyotes and one bobcat. Five warrants were issued yesterday, amounting to $96. Three dollars is paid for each coyote or bobcat.

LUTHER HUBBARD'S LONG AND ACTIVE LIFE ENDED AT 92

Luther Prescott Hubbard, a resident of the valley for nearly a quarter of a century, died at his residence, 13 Ashland avenue, yesterday, December 15, at the ripe old age of 92 years. Up to a few weeks ago Mr. Hubbard, in spite of his years, enjoyed the most extraordinary health and vigor, taking a keen interest in local and national affairs, and being extremely active physically. A short time ago he fell against a heater, suffering severe burns, and it was the effect of these burns, added to his extreme age, which finally caused his death.

Mr. Hubbard was born January 20, 1840, in New York city, and at the age of 21 abandoned further education, to join the Union army, being named corporal of the Second New Hampshire, with which organization he saw active service until he was transferred to Maine as a federal disbursing officer, remaining at his post for the duration of the Civil war. With the signing of peace, he decided to go west, finally settling in Minneapolis, Minn., and securing a position with what was then an infant industry, the Pillsbury Flour company. His financial experience in the army, his energy and zeal resulted in his rapid advancement, and when he resigned, after 43 years' uninterrupted service, he was treasurer of the company, one of the largest and most prosperous corporations in the entire northwest.

Looking about for a place to spend his well earned leisure, Mr. Hubbard decided on southern Oregon and with his wife and daughter, Margaret, came to Medford in 1909, purchasing an orchard on the Old Stage road, where they made their home for many years, finally purchasing their present residence on Ashland avenue and removing to this city. Since Mrs. Hubbard's death several years ago, Mr. Hubbard had lived there with his daughter, Margaret, who is the sole surviving member of the immediate family.
