NEW YORK, Dec. 17. (AP) - The stock market showed no inclination to venture from its narrow groove of recent trading in a quiet week-end session today.

While some brokers continued to talk of a Christmas rally, news of a character to impel the market in either direction was lacking. Recent buying activities have provoked little response. Turnover approximated 400,000 shares.

With the bear bill likely to come before the house of representatives next week, floor traders evidently held Coca Cola, and bought the bottling issues. Crown Cork and Seal, and Owens-Illinois Glass rose about a point.
