Christian Church Cantata Opens at 7:30 This Evening

"The Story of Christmas," a beautiful cantata by Matthews, will be presented this evening at the First Christian church by the chorus choir under direction of Effie Herbert Yeoman. The cantata will open at 7:30 o'clock and the public is extended a cordial invitation. The choir, under direction of Mrs. Yeoman, with Mrs. Mabel Sims as pianist, has devoted much time to the musical undertaking and a splendid presentation of the Christmas music is anticipated. The complete program for the evening includes: Men's chorus—Behold the Days Come Soprano solo—The Angel Gabriel Was Sent From God. Effie Herbert Yeoman. The Vision of the Shepherds. Ladies' chorus, Eleanor Curry soloist. Mixed chorus and quartet—Glory to God in the Highest. Tenor solo and chorus—La Verne Sutherland. And It Come to Pass. Voices of the Sky—Unaccompanied carol, Marmie Olson. The Quest of the Magi. Piano—Mabel Sims. Baritone and tenor solo with men's chorus. John Kirkpatrick, La Verne Sutherland Oh Come, All Ye Faithful—Chorus. Contralto solo—Steph Holy Babe. Gladys Watson. Awake, Awake, Put On Thy Strength, O Zion. Chorus and soprano solo, Miss Curry.

Activities of Legion Auxiliary

(By Mrs. C. Holmes) This has been a busy week for Auxiliary members. Monday night the Christmas Frolic was a great success. The entertainment consisted of six numbers: 1. Football skit by fourteen high school boys under the direction of Miss Harriet Baldwin. 2. Japanese dance by Edna Takahara and Tichitta, accompanied by Gertrude Boyle. 3. Song—Adams' "Noel," by Mrs. Louise Cleaves, accompanied by Miss Genevieve Brown. 4. Christmas carols by Miss Genevieve Brown. 5. Spanish dance, by Miss Frankie Rinabarger, accompanied by Mrs. Antle. (Pupil of Miss Ruth Luy). 6. Christmas carols—community singing.

What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

At a meeting of the Girl Scout leaders of the city, conducted Friday evening, Miss Naomi Hohman was elected president, and Miss Ruth Meusel, secretary, according to announcement by Mrs. Vivian Coos Bateman, local Girl Scout director. Next meeting will be conducted January 6, and further announcement will be made later.

What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

The meeting of the Historical society was the Washington school for a contribution of money to the marker fund; also to all who so generously helped to make the historical pageant a success. The meeting was held at Mrs. E. M. Wilson's home and Miss Jean McDiior and Mesdames Meeker, Vane Stratton and Taylor were assistant hostesses. Among the guests were Miss Helen Norris, Mrs. Flynn and Mrs. Wright.

What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

The Royal Neighbors held a pleasant meeting at the Baldwin shop, invited there by Mrs. H. O. Purucker for the regular meeting. The subject for discussion was "The Piano and its Possibilities." A program of piano numbers was presented and plans made for the next meeting. It will be held January 10 and the subject for study will be Wagner's "Die Walkure." The meeting will be in charge of Mrs. Minnie Guy.

What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

The Fidelity circle of the First M. E. church will meet with Mrs. W. F. Campbell, 804 East Main on Tuesday.

Blankenship, vice-president; Mrs. Charles Nahaas, secretary; and Mrs. Inez Miller. Members of the class are making quilts for needy families, and progress of the work was reported at the meeting. Emphasis was also placed on the white gifts to be brought for the Sunday school.
