RED CROSS HUB IN CHRISTMAS RELIEF

Organizations and individuals who are seeking names of deserving families to aid at Christmas time, are asked to get in touch with the Red Cross in order to avoid duplications and to assure all children a merry Christmas. Miss Lillian Roberts, secretary of the local Red Cross chapter, has a list of approximately 400 needy families and keeps a check on all in order that duplications in giving will not result to the elimination of others deserving of aid. Each day brings a new plea for a visit from Santa Claus as some destitute families, and it is hoped all will be cared for when the holiday arrives.

Rotary's Christmas Meeting Tomorrow

Annual Christmas meeting of the Rotary club will be held tomorrow noon at the Hotel Medford, and each member is reminded to bring some toy suitable for a small child. The gathering is to be in charge of Dr. Wm. W. Holt, and special musical numbers are to be included on the program. President Al Lantis is urging a 100 per cent attendance for the Christmas luncheon.

MAIL IN CHECKS FOR HEALTH SEALS URGES CHAIRMAN, MRS. GREEN

Those who have not yet sent checks for the Christmas seals mailed them are asked by Mrs. R. E. Green, county sale chairman, to do so as soon as possible, since the campaign proper is supposed to close on Christmas day. Attention is also called to the blue slip enclosed with the stamps, and Mrs. Green and her committee hope that many pledges to the work of the County Public Health association will be made this way, before the beginning of the new year.

Booth sales will continue this week with only five more days in which to realize funds for all of next year's work of the association. An extra booth will be conducted the last day, before the beginning of the new year.
